TIMELY TOPICS.

What People Are Talking About These Times.
What everybody says must be true—that we are experiencing the hottest weather for ten years.

The excellence of our water cannot be disputed and, with good judgment, we can have plenty and to spare even if the drouth should continue for some time to come.

The Herald is always too happy to chronicle the fact that reported dead people still live.

Barefooted people seem to suffer less than others.

The huckleberry brigade continues their march to the mountains every morning and back again in the evening. The crop is large.

Our Catawissa valley farmers are complaining of the drouth, but do not blame the McKinley bill for it.

The new county movement will be boomed again as soon as cooler weather sets in. The people north of the mountain have been thinking over a change for the better and the movement has gained many friends hereabouts.

Take the Nickel Plate for Cleveland races July 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29th. 7-16-td

LITTLE LOCALS

That Cover Considerable Ground in This Vicinity.

What has become of the dog catcher? The letter carriers complain bitterly of the heat. Their occupation is not a pleasant one.

The electric road ought to be extended to the cemeteries. It would pay the company to do so.

The tally-ho party that left here yesterday would have found it to their interest to travel by night and rested by day.

The soldier boys who have returned home look every inch like veterans. They are much bronzed from exposure.

It would have been an act of mercy if work on the streets had been suspended the past few days.

The trotting park is going into decay. Had the electric railway been permitted to go forward the park would have been in demand all this summer.

ALICE MITCHELL TESTIFIES.

Says She Wanted to Keep Freda Ward For Herself.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 28.—In the Mitchell murder case the defendant was called. She arose slowly from her chair and walked deliberately to the witness stand. She was not sworn and answered the questions of Gen. Peters in a low but firm voice.

She said she had known Freda as long as she could remember. She visited her at Gold Dust twice.

The last time she remained two weeks. She said she knew of nothing unpleasant between her and Mrs. Volkmar. She saw Ashley Howell twice. She thought he was in love with Freda Ward. She knew the way Freda spoke of him that they were engaged.

"I didn't want Freda to marry any young man, but wanted her myself." The witness began to cry and continued, "Freda winked at me near the Custom House. That wink, with the right eye," said she, "meant 'I love you.'"

"Lillie said to me as I started to kill Freda, 'Where are you going?' I replied 'I wanted see Freda once more.'"

Here the witness burst out crying again.

When Gen. Peters asked that Alice be placed on the stand the defence made the objection that there was no precedent for such action. A hot argument ensued, and Gen. Wright made an eloquent plea to save the family from the humiliation of Alice making an exhibition of herself on the stand. After she had testified Gen. Peters stated that the State had nothing to offer. Gen. Wright said the defence was willing to submit the case without argument and Gen. Peters, after a moment's conversation with some of the junior counsel, said he did not care to argue the case on account of the proceedings in the Federal Court at Nashville in the H. Clay King murder case, in which Gen. Peters, Gen. Wright and Col. Gaunt represented the State.

Judge Dubose will not charge the jury until tomorrow. Miss Mitchell was taken back to the jail, and she left the courtroom she smiled and chatted with her father and the attorneys.

SEVERE STORM AT YORK, PA. — Lightning and Wind Do Great Damage—One Man Killed.

YORK, Pa., July 28.—York had another severe experience with a thunderstorm yesterday. It began about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and for half an hour the rain fell in torrents accompanied by a high wind, vivid lightning and heavy thunder.

The street car stables were demolished, and Samuel Rapp, a carpenter, was killed. The timbers of the building and rafters pinned him to the ground and his neck was broken. Nine street cars in the building were damaged, two of which are total wrecks. The company's loss is about $7,000 to $8,000.

Among the other places struck were the residences of B. C. Wilkinson and Samuel Long. The third story of William Bot's house was torn off. The roof was carried across the street, where it struck the roof of Pfaltzgraff's pottery and demolished it.

The roof of a big shed at the Lanus Coal Yard was shied several hundred feet, and a new frame house owned by Alexander Lehr was blown down. Several other buildings suffered from lightning and wind.

FROM BROODING OVER LOSSES. Kennedy, Who Killed Broker Page and Then Himself, Was Insane.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—It is thought now that Ronald Kennedy, who shot and almost instantly killed Mr. Charles H. Page, of the firm of E. D. Page & Bro., stock brokers, 132 South Fourth St., was insane from brooding over his losses. He was a customer who had been dealing in margins with the firm for the past two years. Immediately afterwards Kennedy, who was a Scotchman by birth and who lived at No. 119 North Eleventh Street, placed the pistol to his own head and sent a bullet into his brain, death being instantaneous.

The murderer and suicide is said to have lost between $15,000 and $20,000 since he began dealing with the firm.

Charles H. Page was 32 years of age, and lived at 2231 Locust street. His wife and child are at Cape May, to which place the murdered man made daily trips.

The broker's father and mother are traveling in Europe, and when last heard from were in the heart of Switzerland.

At the time of the tragedy Mr. Page was seated at his desk, busily engaged in writing.

Mr. Page lived only five minutes after the shot.

A Bogus Nobleman Arrested.

NEW YORK, July 28.—William Wilson, who, for two years past, has traveled over the country as Sir Edward Cook, cousin of Earl Dudley and Lord Mandeville, is a prisoner at Police Headquarters, being punished as an English nobleman, evicted extensively in the West. He came to this city and made a specialty of swindling jewelers. While it is not known how many firms were nipped, enough complaints have been found to insure the bogus nobleman a long term in prison.

Smallpox in a New York Hospital.

NEW YORK, July 28.—Through the removal to the Reception Hospital on North Brother Island of Isaac T. Walker, a patient from Ward G in the New York Hospital, the Board of Health made the discovery that since June 23 there have been six cases of smallpox in that institution. The disease was introduced into the ward by Paxton Deese, a negro who was admitted in June. A rigid investigation will be made.

Dr. McGonigle in Another Scrap.

LONG ISLAND CITY, July 28.—Dr. Henry C. McGonigle, of 237 W. 123rd street, who was convicted of causing the death of Annie Goodwin in Harlem by a criminal operation, and who has been a fugitive from justice for many months, has just been arrested in this city, charged with causing the death of Mrs. Louisa Webb, of 400 Hamilton street, Ravenswood. Mrs. Webb died Tuesday, the autopsy showing, from the effects of malpractice.

A Desperate Burglar's Deed.

ROSTON, July 28.—The family of C. W. Whitman, on Wellington avenue, Somerville, were aroused from sleep soon after midnight to find that their house was on fire and that it had been ransacked by a burglar, who, on leaving, had started a fire in the cellar under the stairs. The flames were extinguished with a damage of $300 to house and furniture.
