THE HERALD is well fortified for statement of the "safety lamp" pattern to make an attack upon "Lay on MacDuff," &c.

THE cheese-paring Democrats have nothing more to say about a "billion dollar congress." They have one of their own and they think the least said about it the better.

ANOTHER man is dead from heart disease caused by running to catch a train. What's the use of running to catch a train when there is another train running to catch you?

THIS will probably be the last week of Congress, but there is no use in celebrating, as an adjournment is by no means assured. Let us not give a cheer until the departing statesmen have got beyond hearing distance.

THE same Democratic press which baited the election of a Democratic House as the signal for economy and reform is now on its knees praying for a speedy adjournment of a useless and extravagant Congress.

A "SAFETY LAMP" statesman of town is going to "make" the HERALD prove certain assertions. "Make" is a strong word, but Mr. Safety Lamp will find, if he attempts any funny business on the HERALD, he has no ignorant Poles and Huns to bullyrag.

A WORKINGMAN who wrote to a Hill Democratic organ in New York city to ask how he could support Cleveland on a free trade platform, received in reply the statement that the Chicago platform "is a free trade platform," but that the "Force bill" must be the issue. This is asking for bread and receiving a stone.

THE excitement among the striking coal miners of Idaho has about blown over, and Gen. Schofield is ordering most of the troops to their homes. The authorities at Washington acted promptly in dealing with this lawless mob, in direct contrast with Gov. Pattison's cowardly and dilatory course at Homestead.

EX-PARK COMMISSIONER Daniel M. Somers, of Brooklyn, has resigned from the Democratic General Committee and declared that he will not support Cleveland, as he cannot endorse the free trade plank of the Democracy. Mr. Somers is one of the leading tin manufacturers of the country. Since the adoption of the McKinley bill, Somers Brothers, of which Mr. Somers is a member, have put up an immense tin factory in Brooklyn.

A WEALTHY American, who died at Firenze, Italy, recently, during his life-time astonished the waiters, cabmen and others by refusing to give them their customary tips, and by promising to remember them in his will. He has astonished them still more by bequeathing large sums of money to the Cabmen's Society, the Waiters' Association and the managers and waiters of several popular cafes. Henceforth Americans who promise tips, will be quite as welcome in Italy, or a little more so, than those who give them.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. O. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

Utah. The land of sunshine and flowers—rich also in mineral and agricultural resources—is best reached by the Rio Grande Western Railway. See that your excursion tickets read both ways via that road, which offers choice of three distinct routes and the most magnificent railroad scenery in the world. Send to J. H. Bennett, Salt Lake City, for copy of illustrated book, "Utah, a Peep into the Mountain Walled Treasury of the Gods."

50 cents a bottle. No better investment can be had than a bottle of the celebrated imported Anchor Pain Expeller for rheumatic complaints. It has received the endorsements of prominent physicians, and is for sale at C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirlin, J. M. Hillan, and other druggists.

Kitchen Extension. University Extension is good, but Kitchen Extension is better. Wider knowledge of better cooking processes means better health and comfort for everybody. Science can never do us better service than by the multiplication of the cooking schools which make healthful means and methods available for even the most modest home.

COTTOLENE The vegetable substitute for lard, is science's latest gift to the kitchens of the world. Every woman who has ever cooked a meal, knows that lard is disagreeable in use and unhealthy in its effects. Cottolene is a most satisfactory substitute—clean, delicate and far more economical. THE HOUSE DEADLOCK

Impossible to Predict When It Will Be Broken.

PROPOSALS TO COMPROMISE MADE.

These, However, Are Spurned by the World's Fair People—Filibustering is the Order of the Day—Judge Holman's Proposition Not Considered Feasible.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—It is impossible to predict how long the deadlock in the House will last. The opponents of the Fair appropriation have made overtures of a compromise. One proposition is that if a loan will be accepted it will be voted, and the House can then adjourn; another is to the effect that if the advocates of the appropriation will yield, a direct vote on it can be assured on the second Tuesday in December.

Those in favor of the appropriation naturally refuse any offers of a compromise and believe they have the battle won. It now appears to be simply a question of physical endurance. The proceedings in the House yesterday were intensely stupid and filibustering motions on the World's Fair appropriation prevailed all day. The only motion now in order, until the deadlock is broken, is for adjournment and a call of the House.

The proposition credited to Judge Holman, if the deadlock on the World's Fair appropriation continues, to bring in a resolution extending for another year the appropriations made in the Sundry Civil bill for 1891-2, will not avoid the difficulty. So many new measures have been arranged for since that bill was passed that a continuation of its terms would be scarcely less than disastrous than a failure to pass the pending bill. Even if the Senate were disposed to accept that solution of the difficulty and agree to adjourn, it is said the President would feel compelled to issue a proclamation reconvening Congress to provide for carrying on the business that such a step would put a stop to.

When the House was called to order Mr. Wheeler (Dem. Ala.) rose to a question of personal privilege, stating that the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. Watson) had attacked him (Mr. Wheeler) Wednesday. The Speaker ruled him out of order, and was sustained by an appeal to the House. Mr. McMillan called up the resolution from the committee on Ways and Means for final adjournment on July 4th and submitted an amendment substituting July 30th for the adjournment bill pending. Mr. Hatch (Dem. Mo.) said he would oppose fixing any day for final adjournment until the Senate had fully considered the anti-option bill.

Mr. McMillan said there was no desire on the part of the committee to delay the consideration of the anti-option or any other bill. He thought Congress should get away as soon as possible, and he hoped the members would vote for the resolution. Mr. Outwaite (Dem., of Ohio) said that if the House passed a resolution containing an appropriation amendment appropriating $5,000,000 for the World's Fair, it had been said that the Sundry Civil bill would be defeated if the appropriation was not made. He had no sympathy with that sort of talk, but as it was manifestly impossible to get through by Saturday, he hoped the resolution would be amended and August 1 inserted as the date.

Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, thought Congress should not adjourn without first disposing of the resolution regarding the dismissal of Commissioner Baum. Mr. Cummings, of New York, moved to make the date Monday, August 1. Mr. McMillan then demanded the previous question. Ordered. Ayes, 138; Nays, 19. The vote on the motion of Mr. Cummings resulted ayes, 55; nays, 110.

Mr. Outwaite, pursuing his filibustering tactics of Wednesday, demanded the yeas and nays. Refused. Mr. Wheeler moved to take a recess until 2 o'clock. Lost. Ayes, 3; nays, 178. Mr. Wheeler then demanded tellers, but voted alone. The entire House remained in their seats. Mr. Wheeler then called for the yeas and nays. Lost.

He then moved a short recess until 1:45, but being opposed to by Mr. McMillan to cease his filibustering he consented, and a vote was then taken on the resolution for adjournment Saturday, which resulted 121 to 51. Mr. Hatch (Dem. Mo.) demanded the yeas and nays. Refused, and the resolution was agreed to. The regular order of business was then taken up being Mr. Bingham's motion to lay on the table the motion of Mr. Holman to reconsider the vote of Wednesday by which the House decided to recede from its disagreement to the Senate amendment on the World's Fair.

Mr. Bingham moved to lay Mr. Holman's motion on the table. Mr. Outwaite moved to adjourn, and pending this to adjourn until Friday. Mr. Cummings moved to substitute Monday. The yeas and nays were demanded on the latter motion. The vote resulted yeas 1, nays 164. No quorum. Mr. Brown (Dem. Ind.) moved a call of the House. Refused. Mr. Bushnell (Dem. Wis.) moved to adjourn. Lost 39 to 44. Mr. Williams (Dem. Ill.) moved the call of the House. This vote resulted 31 to 29.

Mr. Outwaite (Dem. Ohio) demanded tellers. Not ordered. The call of the House then proceeded, 208 members answering to their names. Further proceedings under the call were dispensed with. Mr. Stump (Dem. Md.) submitted the majority report of the special committee on immigration, and Mr. White reported the views of the minority. The roll was then called again on the motion to adjourn until Monday. This vote resulted 1 to 131. No quorum. Mr. Martin (Dem. Ind.) moved a call of the House and the Reading Clerk again went through the alphabet with the thermometer at 100 degrees.

The House then adjourned until today. Agitated Over Retaliation Measures. KROONER, N. Y., July 29.—Sir John Thompson and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell were here yesterday hastening to Ottawa from their holiday sojourn, and quite agitated over the retaliatory movement of the United States Government. Neither would discuss the matter.

McKinney a Candidate for Governor. COXON, N. H., July 29.—Congressman McKinney, of Manchester, has announced to friends that he has entered the field as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

A Sunset. On Great Salt Lake is but one of the matchless spectacles to be seen in Utah. A new book "Utah, a Peep into a Mountain Walled Treasury of the Gods," is now issued and can be had postpaid by sending 25 cents to J. H. Bennett, Salt Lake City. It is expected that the Knights Templar and others visiting Colorado the coming season will extend their trip to Utah, via the Rio Grande Western Railroad in both directions. That road affords choice of three distinct routes and the most magnificent scenery in the world. Equipment unequalled in the West. Two trains daily across the continent.

HORRIBLE BUTCHERY IN WARSAW. Seven Members of a Hebrew Family Murdered by Brigands.

WARSAW, July 29.—Burglars entered the house of a Hebrew family named Rubinstein during the night and demanded from the father his money. He refused to say where he kept it, and the burglars tried to move him by torture to change his mind.

They chopped off his fingers with an axe, but he still refused to tell. Then they brained him and turned their attention to Mrs. Rubinstein. She protested that she knew nothing as to the whereabouts of the money. They did not believe her and, after torturing her also to no purpose, cut off her throat.

The youngest daughter was killed in the same way, and three boys of 2, 3 and 5 years each, who had begun to cry, were dashed against the wall until dead. The eldest daughter was hung up by her feet until she told where her father had kept his money. The burglars found about 800 roubles in the chimney to which she directed them. To prevent all chance of discovery they eventually stabbed her in the breast and left her dead.

A neighbor called at the house and found the door open. On the floor of the first room was the eldest daughter, weak from loss of blood, but able to tell her story. The bodies of the other six had been thrown in a heap in the bedroom.

MAY BE A POISONER. Dr. McGonigle Suspected of Killing Yeo, Who "Tasted" Electric Wires.

New York, July 29.—If the story that has come out has any foundation in fact Dr. Henry G. McGonigle and Dr. Marion A. Dale, who are in jail in Long Island City, charged with having caused the death of Mrs. Louisa Webb of Ravenswood, may have to answer for a crime committed in this city.

Last month Arthur J. Yeo, an electrician, died at his home in Eighth avenue. His death certificate, signed by Dr. Dale, was such a curious document that it caused a great deal of attention. Dr. Dale claimed that Yeo had died of poisoning, and that the poison had lodged in his system because of his habit of "tasting" electric wires.

The father of the dead man says that his son formerly worked for Dr. McGonigle and knew much of the old man's business. McGonigle induced him to go to Costa Rica, but Yeo returned very ill with chills and fever. Dr. McGonigle and Dale treated him and used a great quantity of morphine.

The elder Yeo is satisfied that his son was poisoned by McGonigle and he will take steps to have the matter thoroughly investigated. He has already communicated with the police authorities and Coroner Shultz.
