GREATER THAN EVER.
Thousands Will Attend the Lakeside Musical Festival.

As August 15th draws nearer the indications of success for the great musical festival to be held at Lakeside on that day become more bright. In fact the outlook far exceeds the most enthusiastic hopes of the committee. Shamokin, Ashland, Tanawaga, Freeland and Hazleton had no competitors at the last festival, but this year they will all be in it. The secretary has their entries in his hands and the letters accompanying them are of a most enthusiastic character. Shamokin has entered a choir for the chief prize and a male party for "Ye Breezes That Blow." She also has a number of individual competitors on the list. Dan Thomas (better known as Dan Cwmbrlwl) has entered them. Among the entries made by Centralia is the American band. Mahanoy City will compete on almost every piece on the programme and Gilberton will put in her thumb several times and try to fish out some of the plums.

The committee last night selected the badges and batons that are to be given to the winners in addition to the cash prizes. They are costly and of very beautiful design.

Hazleton and Freeland will have a number of German singers on the grounds, who will find men worthy of their steel in the German singers Ashland will send.

The combined choir of Wm. Penn, Lost Creek and Girardville must not be overlooked in the calculations of victory. This is a remarkably fine organization and Prof. P. T. Evans has them in excellent trim.

The Kaiser Arrives in England.

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 2.—The Emperor William, in his yacht, the Kaiserlicher, formerly the Hohenzollern, arrived here at noon, conveyed by two British men-of-war, which steamed up the channel to meet him. He was received by royal salutes from the ships in the harbor and from the forts ashore, the Spithead forts being the first to sound the thunder of welcome.

For Almost Nothing.

HERE AND THERE.

Interesting Items Concerning Different Sections of the Region.

It is expected the electric railway from Mahanoy Plane to Mahanoy City will be completed this month.

Anthony Schmicker, of town, and Still Baker, of Mahanoy City, will shoot at 11 birds each for $100 a side at the Ellengowan grounds Thursday morning.

Harry Wynn, son of Superintendent Wynn, of Mahanoy City, fractured his collar bone on Friday by falling from the flying horses at Lakeside.

After the Shenandoah Democrats have learned their little lesson this year, they will know better next time. * * * The Shenandoah Democrats may form a large portion of the First Legislative district, but they will find just enough votes to defeat them in their own party when they attempt to run things in the district to suit themselves.—Mahanoy Tribune.

A match has been made between James Farrell, of Plymouth, the light weight of Luzerne county, and John Kelly, of Scranton, who has achieved a reputation for himself as a good fighter, for $500 a side. Articles of agreement will be drawn up for a fight to a finish, to come off within eight weeks from the signing of articles. Kelly is from Philadelphia, but has made his home in Scranton for the past year.

The Centralia Water Company is drawing its supply from the Brush Valley Water Company at a cost of about $600 per month. The water consumed passes through a meter and charges are made by the thousand gallons.

A Girardville firm has received an order from the American Hose Company, of Ashland, to furnish its members with white drill pants. The boys will make their first appearance in their new uniforms in the firemen's parade at Hazleton on September 21st.

Freeland boasts of having the second largest council of the J. O. U. A. M. in the state. Council 248 has had a marvelous growth ever since its institution, scarcely a meeting night passes without initiating from 5 to 10 members. The total membership is now 375 and still growing. The one other council having a larger membership, is located at Pittsburg.

A Hazleton paper says a beverage masquerading under the name of Weiss Beer has been indulged in pretty freely this summer by a great many people in this vicinity including the members of several temperance societies. Several members of St. Ann's T. A. B. society questioned the propriety of its use and to satisfy their curiosity had it analyzed. The analysis demonstrated that it contained a large percentage of alcohol. On the strength of this Rev. M. J. Fallis and Rev. Mc-Nally, of St. Ann's church, issued orders on last Sunday morning prohibiting its use among the members of the T. A. B. society and earnestly requested all the members of the church to abstain from, not only Weiss beer, but all other alcoholic beverages.

A False Report.

It was reported in town last night and to-day that Dr. McCauley, formerly of town, had died at his new home at Rochester, N. Y. M. S. Riggs telegraphed to Rochester to ascertain the correctness of the report and received a reply that Dr. McCauley is not only alive, but is also enjoying excellent health and doing well in his profession. No one can account for the rumor.

DESERTING THE ASSOCIATION.

Sixty of the Homestead Strikers Go Back to Work.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 2.—Homestead striking steel workers are considerably agitated to-day. They have satisfied themselves of the correctness of Superintendent Potter's statement that a number of former employes returned to work yesterday. This evidence of weakening on the part of men who have loudly proclaimed their loyalty to the Amalgamated Association worries the members of that organization, and the streets are filled with strikers discussing the situation with much animation.

That the backbone of the strike has been broken is acknowledged by every one save the members of the Advisory Committee and the more radical unionists. This morning Supt. Potter said to a "United Press" reporter:

"Altogether 60 of our former employes have returned to work and we have informed that many more will make application for their old places. Twenty-seven of our old men came in yesterday. Twenty-four of them found their places still open, but the others, I am sorry to say, were disappointed. But while they cannot step into their positions they gave up a month ago, these men will be given work."

Secretary Lovejoy said this morning that all Pinkertons beaten and robbed after their surrender at Homestead would enter suits at once against their assailants for highway robbery and assault and battery. The Pinkertons claim all their baggage was stolen. These suits will be directed against Homestead people not strikers.

Mr. Frick passed a comfortable night. He was out of his bed this morning, ate a hearty breakfast, and no doubt will visit his office later in the week. It is said that no more bulletins of his condition will be issued by the attending surgeon.

The Thirty-third street Union mill of the Carnegie Steel Company is in operation, with non-union men, guarded by Pittsburg policemen. The new men were taken into the works under guard at 6 o'clock. The exact number of non-union workmen at the Thirty-third street mill is not yet known to Secretary Lovejoy.

No petition for the appointment of an arbitration tribunal for settlement of the Homestead troubles has been filed in court, nor will there be until to-morrow.

Superintendent of Police O'Mara, District-Attorney Burleigh, and Attorney Friedman, have arranged satisfactory bail among themselves for the release of Batur and Knold, the suspect accomplices of Berkman, and will ask Judge Magee to accept it.

More non-union men were taken to Homestead this morning on the steamer Tida. There were at least 100 in the party.

Anarchistic Talk in Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 2.—There are about 500 Anarchists in this city, of whom one Spiesinger is the chief local leader. After a period of seeming inactivity these Anarchists have lately grown active. They held a meeting last night at No. 103 Prince street. Glennos Katz, of New York City, made a speech. In his harangue he said: "May the spirit of Alexander Berkman never diminish. He is noble a man, indeed, to imitate the doings of our Chicago friends. I trust that in the near future we may all become Berkman's."

Iama Has Entered Suit.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 2.—Suit was entered yesterday by the attorneys representing ex-Private Iama, against Gen. Hawkins, Col. Streator and Sergeant Mina, who executed the sentence in the punishment of the soldier. The suits were entered before Alderman Riley.

Yonker Autonomists' Meeting.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Yonker Autonomists met last night to discuss the Homestead affair. Three hundred people were packed into Military Hall, and the customary vituperative speeches were made, Emma Goldman being one of the speakers. Dyer D. Lum also spoke.

MR. HARRISON'S LETTER.

It Will Probably Be Ready Between August 15 and 20.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—President Harrison has not yet written a word of his letter accepting the nomination of the Republican National Convention. He will not make even the first draft of the letter until Congress has adjourned and he has gone to join Mrs. Harrison at Loon Lake in the Adirondacks.

The President has talked confidentially with quite a number of prominent Republicans in the past month, and from these conversations and from careful reading of the Minneapolis platform his ideas have taken quite definite form and it will not be difficult for him to give them expression when once he finds opportunity to write his letter.

The usual pressure of business which always attends the closing weeks of a session of Congress has made it impossible for the President to write the letter here. He hopes to have the letter ready between August 15 and 20.

Prince Bonaparte Wins His Divorce Suit.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Prince Clovis Bonaparte has won his suit for the annulment of his marriage to the woman known as Madame Rosalie Bonaparte. Judgment was given on the ground that at the time of the marriage Madame Rosalie had a lawful husband, Mr. Magone. This decision makes void, on the ground of want of jurisdiction, the decree of a Scotch court, which gave Mr. Magone a divorce from Rosalie on the ground of her improper intimacy with Prince Clovis Bonaparte. It also makes legal the marriage of Prince Bonaparte to the wife with whom he is now living, formerly Laura Elizabeth Scott, and saves Bonaparte from prosecution on the ground of bigamy.

Victory for the Reading.

EASTON, Pa., Aug. 2.—Judges Schuyler and Reeder, in the Northampton county court, have dismissed the case of Elizabeth S. S. Gammere, et al., vs. the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company and others to restrain the Philadelphia and Reading Company from operating the Lehigh Valley road, and asking for a receiver for the Reading. This is the first decision on the "combine" in this State, and it is a signal victory for the Reading.

Back from an Inspection Tour.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Assistant Secretary of War Grant has returned to Washington. While absent he inspected a number of army posts, including Jefferson Barracks, Missouri; Fort Sheridan, Illinois; Rock Island arsenal, and the Watervliet, N. Y., arsenal. He found all the posts and arsenals in excellent condition.
