DIFFERENCES SMOOTHED OVER.

Both Sides Seem Satisfied With the Plan to Give $2,500,000 to the Fair-A Vote on the Darborrow Bill to be Taken Saturday.

Washivoron, Aug. 4.-The differences which have divided the Democratic ma-fority on the World's Fair appropriation eem to have been harmoniously adjusted and if the plan adopted at the caucus yesterday, after the maference committee reported, be carried out-and there appears to be little difficulty in the way of this-Congress will adjourn early next weak, with the chances in favor of Monday as the day.

The preliminary movement in the direction of carrying the Sundry Civil bill and the Durborrow bill through the House will probably be begun during the day. A motion will be made for the reconsideration of the vote by which the House receded from its disagramment from the Senate amendment appropri-ating $5,000,000. This is the motion contained in the resolution submitted by Mr. Bingham, of Pernsylvania, and its adop-tion will free the Sundry Civil hill from the World's Fair feature and pave the way for a motion to send it back to con-

Then the Durborrow bill appropriating $5,000,000 for the fair, now on the calen-dar, will be taken up and amended by re-ducing the amount to $2,500,000 as de cided upon in the caucus yesterday, the subscription feature eliminated and the bill so changed as to make the latter sum an absolute gift to the Expesition. Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock a vote will be taken on the Durborrow bill. Some attempt at flibustering may be made to prevent the bill coming to a direct vote, but notwithstanding the assertion of Mr. Kilgore of Texas and some others that they will fight the gift of any sum if they keep Congress in session continuously un-til March 4 next, the day the 52nd Con-gress expires, it is almost certain that the action of the caucus will be carried ut to the letter.
