Work commenced on the Nonvair Columbian Half Dollars.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The Treasury Department has begun the preparations for coining the five million "Columbian half dollars" authorized by the World's Fair bill.

The designs of the coin have already been selected. The reverse will show the main building of the exposition and the obverse the head of Columbus.

The plaster cast of Columbus was made by A. S. J. Dunbar, sculptor of Washington, from a portrait which is recognized by experts as being as nearly authentic as any that exists and is believed to have been painted for Domenico Mallpiero, a Venetian Senator and historian, in 1501.

The work of coining the souvenir "Columbian half dollars" will occupy a month or six weeks.

The bill also provides for the striking of 50,000 bronze medals with appropriate devices and emblems at a cost of $49,000 and 50,000 vellum and impressions for diplomas at a cost of $43,000. These will be entered upon later.

Denial from Archbishop Ireland.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 8.—Archbishop Ireland has made a brief statement touching the report that President Harrison had urged the Pope to bestow the Red Hat upon him. The statement is as follows: "I am much pained by these constant recurring rumors about me. Whether they originate with well-meaning but imprudent friends or with sinister and malicious enemies result in giving deep displeasure and having the cause of religion. I repeat what I have said that for all these rumors those who speak them have no foundation for their words. Matters grow worse when it is sought to implicate persons of prominence. These reports are so evidently false on their face that no serious-minded persons will heed them."

The Lowell Memorial.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Mr. Leslie Stephen writes to the "Times" that the subscription has been opened for the proposed Lowell memorial. He says that the committee having the matter in charge have already received more than sufficient to insure the insertion of the windows, as planned, in the Chapter House of Westminster Abbey. The character of the commemorative tablet to be placed under the windows, he adds, depends upon the amount of the subscriptions.

To Take Off "Tribune" Boycott.

This consists of the formation of chapels, election of a chairman, etc. As soon as this has been done circulars will be sent to all labor organizations and typographical unions informing them of the fact.

The Keersarge Ordered to Honduras.

She has delayed departure in order to permit some of her officers to close up a court-martial case.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 8.—The Treasury train, carrying $2,000,000, is due here at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The greatest effort is being made to prevent the public from receiving the details of the passage of the train for fear of robbery. The train's passage so far has been without accident.

Too Late to Save Kansas Corn.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 8.—The cool winds that are sweeping over the southwest today will not save the corn of Kansas. It will probably keep the corn from burning up any further, but at best the crop cannot well exceed half the estimated yield.

THE COMMISSIONERS NAMED.

Our Representatives at the International Monetary Conference.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The commissioners who are to represent the United States at the coming International Monetary conference are officially announced. They are: Senator William B. Allison, of Iowa; Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada; Congressman James B. McCreary, of Kentucky; Ex-Comptroller Henry W. Cannon of New York, and Gen. Francis A. Walker, of Massachusetts.

With the exception of Mr. McCreary these names have all been among those discussed for the appointment.

Senator Allison, of Iowa, has been nearly 20 years' service in the United States Senate and was eight years a member of the House before his election to the Senate. He is chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, a leading member of the Committee on Finance, and a recognized leader in financial matters. He voted against the Stewart Free Coinage bill when it passed the Senate in July last.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, has been an ardent advocate of free silver. He has not spoken often in the Senate, but whenever he has spoken on finance in that body his remarks have always commanded close and earnest attention. He also is a member of the Senate Committee on Finance.

Mr. McCreary of Kentucky succeeded Mr. Perry Belmont as Chairman on the Committee of Foreign Affairs in the House of Representatives, and has devoted considerable attention to international questions. He introduced the bill which called out the Pan-American Conference in Washington and also the House bill providing for the present monetary conference. He voted in favor of free coinage of silver.

Mr. Cannon succeeded Mr. John Jay Knox as United States Comptroller of the Currency, and resigned to accept the Presidency of the Chase National Bank of New York. He is classed as being opposed to free coinage of silver under existing conditions.

General Walker of Massachusetts is a well-known writer on economic questions. He was Sup. of the Tenth Census and was a member of the International Monetary Conference held at Paris in 1878.

The place of meeting of the conference is not yet definitely decided upon. It will be in one of the capitals of Europe—probably either Brussels or Berlin some time in October.
