The highest culm bank in the anthracite region is supposed to be the one at the Comeron colliery, Shamokin. It is 603 feet above the level of the Northern Central R dirond tracks and is still growing in heighth.

Harry, 21-year-old son of Charles Luces, of Ashland, died of typhoid fever on Friday in the Homeopathic hospital of Buffalo, N. Y. He was a printer by trade, but of late had filled a position as time keeper of Contractor A. C. Douglass, at Ningara Falls.

Thos. P. Murrell, a colored blacksmith, had his left hand injured on July 4 h at Backwood, in discharging a carnon, Murrell went to the Miners' Hospital where the band was amputated, and inside of eleven days it was heated. He left the hospital off and on, but has just left it for good. He has sent for an artificial hand to New York and will possibly be able to follow his trade.

The dread diphtheria is creating sad havor among the children at the little mining village of Locust Summit, a mile or two from Locust Gap, and the physicians are at a loss to find a remedy that will check the ravages of this awini disease that is bringing sorrow and sadness to the homes of the people there. There are said to be about fifteen cases there at present, and they are of a most malignant type.

The Sunbury Daily says the County Commissioners of Northumberland county will in future send to the Fountain Springs miners' hospital all injured persons that become charges upon them. The hospital is a state in-titution and, until lately, it was not generally known that patients other than miners could be sent from that county, The Commissioners claim to have discovered that this can be done.

Smith & Lyman, operators, are engaged in extensive preliminary operations wto a view to opening new workings on Locust Mountain, west of Tuscarora, and in the Tuscarora basin. Under the superintendency of John Neison about forty-two feet holes have been sunk at different points, proving valuable veins of coal from 18 to 8 feet in thickness. It is their intention to sink shafts and slopes immediat ly. The company's territory is 205 acres in extent.
