A NEEDLE TRAVELED THROUGH HER BODY

STRANGE SOLUTION OF MRS. NOLL'S TROUBLES.

HER CASE PUZZLED DOCTORS
And for Two Years She Suffered Severe Pains—The Mischief Maker Made His Appearance and Was Caught.

ABOUT two months ago Mrs. Jacob Noll, wife of the North Main street saloon keeper, suffered from a severe pain in her chest. The pain became so severe that she was obliged to secure medical attendance, but then she did not obtain relief for some time. Then she experienced pains in the right side of her body and for two years her case puzzled the physicians who attended her. Last Monday evening the mystery was solved. As Mrs. Noll was preparing to retire she felt a sharp pricking on her right leg, just above the knee. On inspecting the painful part Mrs. Noll saw a piece of pointed steel protruding through the skin. She took hold of it and pulled it out. It proved to be a needle. Since its extraction Mrs. Noll has suffered none of the pains or inconveniences of the two years past, and it is now believed that her complaint was due solely to the needle passing through her body to the point of extraction. Mrs. Noll cannot account for the needle entering her chest, unless it was forced through her dress, where she might have placed it when she suddenly stopped sewing some day.

Of Interest to Athletes.
James Robinson, the athletic trainer at Princeton College, Princeton, N. J., says "I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruises, strains, sprains, colds, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after entering upon my profession, I discovered such a remedy in Dr. Alcock's Porous Plasters. I tried other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. Alcock's Porous Plasters give almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In cases of weak back put two plasters on the small of the back and in a short time you will be capable of quite severe exercise in "sprint" and "distance" races and jumping, the muscles or tendons in the legs and feet sometimes weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in narrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected."

FELL IN A FIT.

A Passenger Train Engineer Becomes Suddently Ill.

Frank Brown, engineer of Lehigh Valley engine No. 185, was seized by a sudden illness yesterday afternoon while on duty and just after he backed his passenger train up to the depot at 4 o'clock to receive passengers for Pottsville. As the train stopped at the depot Brown was seen to fall in the cab of his engine. The fireman and other members of the crew hastened to the spot. Brown was unconscious and was written in spasms. He was picked up and carried into the depot. The convulsive motion of his muscles were so severe that the united efforts of seven men were hardly sufficient to hold the victim upon a stretcher.
Dr. Straup was called and he said Brown was suffering from an epileptic fit. The doctor administered a drug by injection in the left arm to quiet the man, but Brown kept several men busy holding him down for some time after. In about half an hour he quieted down and he was sent to his home in Delano on the 5:20 passenger train. He was then in a semi-conscious condition. Today Brown was reported as recovered, but not in condition to go on duty. Friends say that the attack was brought on by the man partaking of watermelon and ice water.

The Immorality Question.
EDITOR HERALD.—Since the publication of the article referring to the complaints of certain persons about the immorality existing in our midst, quite a few people have availed themselves of the opportunity of the Herald to take in this matter, and it is half the reports which I have heard are true there is certainly just cause for complaint, and heroic measures are needed to rid the town of this class of people. I am well aware that it is a subject hard to handle in the columns of a newspaper, but there are other means that could be used to put a stop to this business. I would suggest that mothers make it a rule to know where their daughters spent their evenings. And it would not be out of place if some married people would look around and see where their husbands and wives spend some of their time, and who their associates are. I may have more to say on this subject later on.

Resolutions of Condolence.
The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Society of Christian Endeavor, held in the Presbyterian church, Shenandoah:
WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well, and after the earnest wish of His own will, to remove from our midst our lamented and much beloved friend and sister, Agnes Johnson; and
WHEREAS, This society has thereby lost a valuable and consistent member; therefore,
Resolved, That, while we devoutly bow in submission to our Father's will and say, "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy sight," we also desire to express our sorrow at her removal, and hereby extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved father, sister, brother and other relatives of our deceased sister, commending them to God and to the word of His grace, feeling assured that their loss is her greatest gain.
WM. MCNALLY, Pastor, for Committee.
August 9, 1892.

Attention is called to the church notice of the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Messiah Mesopian is a student in Jefferson Medical College, preparing himself for a medical missionary. All who desire to hear something fresh, are invited to the Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow.
He will also lecture in the Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening on the manners and customs of the Turks. It is expected the attendance will be large.

PETER'S PUNGENT PENCIL PUSHING

THE RIGHT OF FRANCHISE TO ILLITERATE VOTERS.

WHAT IS DONE IN THE SOUTH
An Anecdote of Railway Travel With a Number of Trunks.
The State P. O. S. of A. Camp.

THE registration of the state of Mississippi, one county (Smith) omitted, shows only 76,742 voters registered and entitled to take part in the Presidential and Congressional elections this fall. Of these 68,127 are whites and 8,615 negroes, or barely six per cent of the latter. The negroes have not a majority in any county in the state. The Constitution grants the franchise to all who can read and write and to those illiterate who can understand and explain a section of the Constitution read to them. Only 2,072 illiterate voters, about equally divided between whites and negroes, took advantage of this clause, passed in the interest of the illiterate whites. A law of this kind should be enacted in Pennsylvania, and in fact every state of the Union. It would give the educators lots of work, but we would then have an intelligent exercise of the right of franchise.
I know several districts in Shenandoah where such a law is badly needed.

An exchange says that one man with twenty-seven trunks surprised the baggage master of Pittsburg. They weighed over 6,000 pounds. He was a drummer for a ready made clothing house.
The reading of the above reminded me of our friend M., who was on the road some years ago as a drummer for a similar concern. He did not have 27 trunks, but they were large and numerous. Pat Finnegan used to call them street cars. One day M., wishing to go to Altoona, borrowed an annual pass from a member of the Legislature. To travel with so many trunks without exciting remarks could hardly be expected, but such little things never bother M. When the conductor went around for tickets M. showed his annual. The conductor looked at it and walked off, but he did not appear quite satisfied. Shortly after the conductor left the car he making inquiries of each passenger and braced himself for a test. If he made a slip the annual would be taken up and he would be obliged to pay fare and also pay for the trunks. When the baggage master reached M's seat he asked M. if he had any baggage on the train and where he was bound for. M. said "No" to the first question and said he was going to Tyrone. This satisfied the baggage master and, presumably, the conductor. M. got off at Tyrone, but followed the trunks on the next train. He played this game many a time and always landed on top.

Let those people who whine about the weather day after day take notice of the Italians who work on the new section of the Pennsylvania Railroad from morning till night in the sun without making themselves miserable by thinking all the time of the heat, the humidity, the high pressure and other such things.

Again I am reminded of the utter want of feeling for an unfortunate Galician as manifested by his countrymen in the case of Afion Seich, who was killed on the L. V. R. R. yesterday. These people seem utterly devoid of any human sympathy, and if it had not been for others who insisted that his boarding "boss" take him in, the poor fellow would have been left lying on the pavement to die. This is the class of foreigners the emigrant inspectors should keep their eyes on.

In making my usual every day rounds I noticed that our hills are again beginning to look as they did some years ago. Young trees are growing up and are long, we are destined to have some fine groves. Would it not be a good idea to lease some of these grounds and fence them in, so that when these trees have matured Shenandoah may have what she so badly needs—a miniature Fairmount.

The delegates from this place to the annual convention of the P. O. S. of A., which is to be held at Shamokin on the 23rd, 24th and 26th insts., should make a bid for holding the next session in this place. Hazleton and Pottsville have also been favored with this convention, and the largest town in the coal region should not allow herself to be shut out.

THE LAKESIDE FESTIVAL.

Interesting Notes Concerning Monday's Great Musical Event.

The festival committee met last night and decided to select Prof. Miles, of Minersville, as adjudicator for the preliminary competitions, which will be held Monday morning in cases where the entries are numerous.
The preliminary competitions will be held in the Both residence at Lakeside, next to the dancing pavilion. Prof. Miles will be on hand at 8:30 a. m.
Dr. H. S. Clarke, of Philadelphia, who will adjudicate the public contests, will be in town tomorrow afternoon and will remain here until Monday morning.
Rev. Fred Evans, of Philadelphia, who has been engaged as conductor for the day, is also expected in town on Sunday.
People who heard Prof. Evans' choir practice at Wm. Penn last night say that the choir sings "Let God Arise" and "Ye Brethren of Morning" in grand style. At roll call last night 128 members responded to their names.
James Wynn, of Mahanoy City, was in town last evening. He said the choir and male troupes of his town are practicing day and night and the choir looks upon the $250 prize as almost as good as already in their pockets.
Information from Shamokin is to the effect that Dan Thomas' choir and male troupe is doing quiet, but very effective, work.
Pottsville and St. Clair will send to Lakeside on Monday the largest crowds they have sent to a musical festival. Hazleton, Audenried and Freeland will also be well represented.
A platform 45x25 feet has been erected in front of the grand stand, and yesterday a canvas covering to protect the singers from the sun was put up.
There will be dancing in the large pavilion all day. The Shoppa orchestra of ten pieces will furnish the music.
The combined choir of Wm. Penn, Lost Creek and Girardville promises to take at least 400 friends to the festival.
Mahanoy City promises to send at least 1,200 people.
Centuria has sent word, "You can put us down for at least 150 tickets."
Prof. D. W. Herbert has written the secretary, "Let me know the hour for commencing the morning session. A large crowd will follow our Y. M. C. A. glee club." 10 a. m., Professor, bring the whole town to Lakeside. Those who stay away will miss a treat.
Station Agent Davis says the 55-cent tickets will be good on all trains. The special train will leave town at 2:15 a. m.
The refreshment arrangements this year are such that all will be able to secure an abundance should it run up to 15,000.
Special notice is called to the fact that tickets for admission to the festival will be sold only on the grounds. Let every purchaser scrutinize his ticket and beware of counterfeits.

SHAFT SPECIALS.
Pennellings From a Watchful Correspondent Down the Valley.
Miss Lillie Russell, of Lewellyn, is visiting friends here.
W. J. Lewis returned home yesterday from Lewisburg. When there he made arrangements to enter the Bucknell University as a student on the opening of the fall term.
The Hayden Choral Union practiced last evening. Prof. Evans was much pleased with their singing. The choir numbers 121, composed of singers from Girardville, Lost Creek, Shenandoah and Wm. Penn. George Goodman, of Mahanoy City, was an attentive listener of the singing last evening.
The crowd to Lakeside from this place on Monday will be very great.
Eph. Boddall is visiting friends in Philadelphia.
The Misses Leckie, of Shenandoah, called on friends here last evening.
It is rumored that Lakeside Park will be purchased by a Philadelphia capitalist, who will make the grounds finer than any in this part of the state. The present owners—stock company—do not seem to work hard enough to make the place more attractive. The natural features are great and with more vim and an expenditure of an additional $5,000, the park would be a jewel of a place. This season it has been visited by thousands of Shamokinites.—Shamokin Dispatch.

The Seich Funeral.
Deputy Coroner Brennan is making arrangements to hold an inquest on the body of Afion Seich, the Galician who died after having his legs cut off on the Lehigh Valley railroad yesterday morning. The inquest will be on Tuesday evening. Seich's body will be buried by the county.
