MAHANOID CITY'S NEXT GREAT DAY

PREPARING TO UNVEIL THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.
GREAT INTEREST IN THE EVENT

A Description of the Beautiful Monument—Funds for its Payment are Already in Hand.
Labor Day the Date.

CELEBRATION that promises to eclipse anything the town has yet boasted of will take place at Mahanoy City on Labor Day, September 5th. The day has been selected for the unveiling of the soldiers' monument and interest in the event has been aroused in all parts of the state. The committee in charge of the arrangements has issued invitations to be present to many of the dignitaries of the state and national government departments and most of them have been accepted.

In the arrangements for this occasion the people of Mahanoy City have exhibited a commendable patriotic feeling and success should crown their work.

The Councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. are especially active in helping the work along and have issued appeals urging the Councils throughout the state to participate in the ceremony. Many of the appeals have been responded to favorably.

The monument to be unveiled is a splendid piece of work. The accompanying cut is an excellent representation of it. It was originally designed by M. H. Master, of town. The statue was made in Quincy, Mass., by a first class artist. The statue is expected at Mahanoy City to-day, so it will arrive in ample time for the demonstration.

The monument will have a bottom base six feet square. Its total height will be about 25 feet. It is being made of the finest Barre granite. It will be ornamented by several inscriptions. On polished plates of appropriate designs, sketches of the battles of Gettysburg, Antietam, Vicksburg and Chickamauga will be cut; and among the inscriptions on the four sides will be the following: "Erected under the auspices of Severn Post, G. A. R., September 5th, 1892." "A tribute to the patriotic citizens of Mahanoy City." "In memory of our dead comrades." "To the heroes of the war of 1860-65."

FROM THE FOURTH WARD.
Interesting Letter From a Resident of That Section.

EDITOR HERALD:—It is high time that we citizens should look out. In last Tuesday's paper you all read the substance of the solicitor and his Dandy Councilmen. We may ask them what is their motive for holding this contest so long. Right well they must know, and right well we citizens know, they are holding it up to benefit themselves, and make us pay the piper. It is an old proverb "the hands that money get true it will stick to them." We say that is the Councilmen's idea. Mr. Pomeroy was pretty quick in borrowing money. It is strange to us what he needed this money for. Nothing going ahead. That does not hurt him. If the money was raised it would benefit smart men and hurt simple citizens. Lamb was quick in making a motion. Gable lost no time in seconding his motion. We count these men smart men. Now Mr. McGuire spoke as an upright man. It is such men we ought to hold in office. May I ask my brother citizens if Lamb, Gable and others were put to their oaths they would say it is for the benefit of the citizens they are holding this contest so long? That is a full stop. We citizens, if we were called to Pottsville, can take an honest oath it is to benefit our smart Councilmen. Let every ward send in a few lines to the HERALD. It may put a stop to our smart men who are looking first for relief. It would be the citizens' wish and the Reading Company's interest if Gable had to quit the Council. We are sure it does not belong to Gable, or any other boss to look for such an office. They hold one office under the company. That is plenty. We wonder why Mr. Bradigan don't stop this work. It is a sure five that if the Council will get ahead there will be plenty property men who will have to sell out. How can some of them pay their tax? They cannot. Let us citizens put our heads together and uphold the old water company. And let the same company call on us when they are called to Pottsville. Myself, for one, can tell more of our Council than what is mentioned in the HERALD. We have to pay for the new court house at present and pay $85,000 for water which we do not need. Lamb and Gable say we want water. We have any amount of water.

ONE MAN STABBED
And Three Others Badly Beaten in a General Fight.

The residents of North Jardin street were greatly excited Saturday night on account of a fight that occurred in front and at the rear of the Harkins residence, which is next to the Phoenix hose house. As a result of the fight Richard Gaughan, of Brownsville, received a stab wound, from a knife in the hands of Thomas McHale, and Peter Dougherty opposite the Harkins residence, were badly cut and bruised about the head and face by fist blows and what appeared to be blows from stones. Gaughan is being attended by Dr. Stein. The stab wound he received was in the back, just under the left shoulder blade. Dr. Stein does not think any vital organ was touched and no serious result is apprehended.

Dougherty's head and face show vivid effects of the fight, and McHale carries striking emblems on his head, face and neck. Sweeney's head and face was covered with gore and numerous bruises.

There are suits and cross suits in all directions. To describe them would only entangle the tale.

From what a HERALD reporter could learn the trouble arose out of an old grudge. The facts seem to be that Dougherty was sitting on the fire plug in front of the Phoenix hose house when McHale crossed over from the Sweeney house on the opposite side of the street. McHale, it is alleged, stated that he could whip Dougherty and knocked him off the fire plug to show that he could do it. It was then hammer and tongs and finally McHale went down. Gaughan, the man stabbed, then ran out of the hose house to help Dougherty. Then Sweeney ran over from his house to help McHale, then the fight became general.

McHale, Gaughan and others eventually worked themselves back through a narrow alley to the rear of the Harkins house. A red hot fight continued in the rear yard for several minutes. Then, Mrs. Harkins says, Gaughan broke away and ran into her kitchen, and McHale followed and stabbed him.

There are numerous stories about the affair, but the above version seems to be the most correct. A gentleman who took an interest in the matter says he believes the fight was prompted by an old sore left by a fight between some Phoenix firemen in Brownsville some time ago.

COMMENTS ON EVENTS LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.
THE SUMMER SEASON PRODIGALS
Some Pleased and Others Disappointed With Their Trips.
Other Paragraphs That Will Interest Readers.

THEY are coming home gradually. I mean the sea shore and mountain excursionists. Some are sorry and some are not. The basis of complaint by those who do complain is that the money expended for short trips does not bring a sufficient return in rest and health. Those who went away for fun got plenty of it and do not complain. They think they are repaid many times over. They returned in good health and buoyant spirits. Those who complain of not getting rest and quietness should consult guides in the future. Atlantic City—overcrowded, noisy, and with indifferent accommodations—is not a place for such people.

A New York paper suggests a $1 fare for Chicago next year to enable the workingman to see the fair as well as people who can afford to pay $10. If everything else was equal it would be just the thing. But their workingmen expect on a $1 fare trains would have to give the ride to all others and the workingmen of getting to Chicago in 48 hours, on the road a week. The expense of the train in the meantime would soon run up to the regular figure.

Shenandoah has had its share of summer pleasures, but what is the sequel? A regular breaking up of the bon ton; threats of law suits for slander; young women indignant at the false charges made about them. On the whole the pleasure season is ending badly.

"Riding on the electric car," would be a good song for our friend, Charley Gibson, to sing. It would soon be quite as popular as the cars are at present.

Our friends, the enemy, have an idea that we, Republicans, have no rights that they are obliged to respect. Who gave these people the right to preempt the whole town and all there is in it? Isn't there room for all? If not, let them go elsewhere, where they can have more room. The time is coming and rapidly, too, when the American citizen, irrespective of party, will rise and rebuke these fresh young men to where they belong—in the rear. The name "Democrat," covers a multitude of sins. Under it one nationality is seeking to secure everything. Now and then a soap is thrown at some other nationality. It is generally a very small one, and it helps to keep them on the string for a while longer. They are already getting tired of this play and are beginning to get their eyes open. In the fifth ward the signs of a big break are strong. Let these people who think they are owners in fee simple of the town and county continue their way awhile longer and they will hear something drop.

Camp Meeting.
The Evangelical camp meeting at Zion's Grove, yesterday, was largely attended. The preaching and singing was most excellent. The meetings will be continued to-day and to-morrow. Among the Shenandoah people present were David Panst and family, J. K. Kehler, O-car Kehler, K. Stocker and wife, Dr. Straup and wife and Elmer Wasley.

Lakeside To-day.
Advices from Lakeside states that the outdried is a grand success and the attendance several thousands larger than last year. The long special trains that left here this morning were all crowded after leaving Brownsville junction. Full particulars of this great event will be given in tomorrow's issue.

More Queries.
EDITOR HERALD:—Why is it that our Councilmen are so quick in hiring outside counsel, paying them well and promptly and making their solicitor do all the work and get an insignificant salary? Is it treating our solicitor right; is it justice? SAMMY.

A Qualification.
Shenandoah Council is going to borrow $95,000 to build new water works. The old company still refuse to sell out.—Mahanoy City Tribune. The above is not correct. The latter part is too general. The old company has refused to sell out at the joint committee's figures.
