AN OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT. Three Jewish Gentlemen Roughly Handled

by St. Clair Men.
Last evening's Pottsville Chronicle pub lished the following concerning an assault made on three Jewish gentlemen; The Reading train which arrived here from Frackville last evening at 8:17 o'clock was the scene of an outrageous and unprovoked assault on three Jewish gentlemen by men who were said to be members of he Perseverance Band, of St. Clair.

On the arrival of the train in Pottsville ready in the hands of the P. & R. C. & I. the three gentlemen came into the Chronicle office. M. Katchrinski and W. Refowich, two well-known citizens of town, were of the party. The other gentleman was J. Lorenz Katchrinski, a wealthy merchant of Shreveport, Louisiana, and a brother of our townsman.

All three men were very much excited and blood was streaming from a deep wound in the back of M. Katchrinski's head. His silk hat was ruined and his clothes were in a state of disorder. His brother's clother were in the same condition, while the wearer was so nervous that he could hardly stand.

HE directors of the Mahanoy City, Shenandosh, Girardville and Ashland Railway Company met here recently and discussed suggestions looking to the completion of the electric belt line between Girardville and Mahanoy City, whereby all the towns in the two valleys between the points will be put in direct communication with each other, and ultimately make an electric railway connection of the two valleys with Ashland and Locust Dale.

The directors were not willing to make known their plans in detail, but they have given assurance that they have plenty m ney for the work and that it will be pushed without delay. The branch between Mahanoy Plane and Mahanoy City will be finished first.

Immediately upon the completion of work on that section the road from Girardville to Ashland and Locust. Dale will be taken in hand and pushed as fast as workmen can make it go. The iron for the bridge is at Girardville. This bridge will be the connecting link between Girardville and Ashland.
