Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

THEY QUELLED THE MOB.

Prompt Action of Soldiers Averts Another Riot at Homestead. HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 17.-It has again been demonstrated that the presence of soldiers is absolutely necessary here to preserve peace and order. The proceedings of yesterday point their own moral, no matter what the strikers may say to the contrary. Frank Tracey, a laborer in the mill, was arrested on a charge of larceny, preferred by a non-unionist. Four non-union men were subpoenaed as witnesses.

The Alderman decided to hold Tracey and ordered him to jail. The constable took his prisoner out the back way. The four witnesses went out on Eighth avenue in charge of one or two deputy sheriffs, and were at once surrounded by a howling mob.

The non-unionists walked along maintaining silence. Cries of "Lynch the scabs," "Kill the black sheep," "Take them to the river," were heard. By this time about 100 women had joined the ranks of the strikers and urged the crowd to make short work of the "scabs."

Major Crawford learning of the situation soon had thirty men with bayonets fixed going toward the crowd, which was now armed with stones and clubs, closing in upon the non-unionists. The militia drew up in company front across the street with guns at half cock.

Major Crawford and a deputy sheriff ordered the crowd to disperse but the order was disregarded. Then a signal was given and a company of about fifteen men came down the hill on a double quick and was also drawn up across the street.

Ex-Sheriff Gray, with an additional force of deputies, then arrived. Turning to Mr. Gray, Major Crawford, after striking a striker across the back with sword, asked: "Do you want us to disperse the crowd?" "I do," was the reply, whereupon Major Crawford turned to his men and was about to give the command to charge when Policeman Gessner with a squad of officers, came up and ordered the street cleared.

The crowd with sullen faces and profane remarks began to fall back. For half an hour the uneasy feeling prevailed. Finally the policemen and deputy sheriffs succeeded in restoring order and the militia returned to camp. The non-union workmen were escorted to the mill.

JUDGE BLAISDELL CRITICIZED. Lizzie Borden's Pastor Scores Him For His Action in the Case. FALL RIVER, MASS., Aug. 17.-Rev. J. Walter Jubb, pastor of the Central Congregational Church of which Miss Lizzie Borden is a member, characterizes Judge Blaisdell's action in sitting on the bench while presiding at the longest and most indecent, outrageous and not to be tolerated in any civilized community. He proposes to use every means to have another judge on the bench at the preliminary hearing.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Young Women's Union, at a special meeting, passed a resolution of sympathy for an unshaken faith in Miss Lizzie A. Borden, who is treasurer of the Young Women's Union and has been prominent in union work.

MAY EXTEND TO OTHER LINES. Action of Fall Brook and Central Roads May Precipitate a General Strike. LYONS, N. Y., Aug. 17.-A large amount of perishable freight is coming in here from Buffalo, and is being transferred to the Fall Brook route down to Corning, thence to destination over the Erie road. Last evening a train of thirty cars of meat went through. As there are only a few switchmen here who belong to the Union, no trouble is feared. The action of the Fall Brook and N. Y. Central in accepting freight from the Lehigh and Erie it is believed will result in a general strike. It is probable that switchmen will be ordered out all along the Central and West Shore in sympathy with the Buffalo strikers.

NO STRIKE AT HAZLETON, PA. How the Report of One Originated-No Trouble Expected. HAZLETON, Pa., Aug. 17.-There is no strike at the mines here. The operators of the Humboldt Colliery shut down Wednesday for repairs. The month's pay day was set for Monday, Aug. 15, but in order to pay the employes in full it was postponed until to-day, the 17th, so that the July and August wages can be paid together.

Some Hungarians failing to understand this, came to town, and asked that suit be brought against the mine owners. The matter was explained, and the majority were satisfied. There has been no sign or fear of a strike or lawlessness, as reported, and the men are satisfied with their wages.

National Catholic Union Convention. ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 17.-The Eighteenth annual convention of the National Catholic Union is in session in this city, there being present at least 400 delegates. The union was organized about eighteen years ago mainly through the efforts of a Catholic association in Newark, N. J., and now there are 156 societies in the union with a membership approaching 25,000, extending all over the United States. Each association in the union is entitled to select three delegates and nearly all the societies in the union are represented.

Duke of Devonshire Married. LONDON, Aug. 17.-The Duke of Devonshire was married at Christ Church at noon to the Dowager Duchess of Manchester, with whom his name has so long been associated. The ceremony was extremely quiet, and only a few intimate friends were aware that the marriage was to take place. Sir Henry Calcraft acted as best man.

Another Big Iron Strike Threatened. PITTSBURG, Aug. 17.-The firm of Jones & Laughlin, iron and steel manufacturers, have not as yet signed the scale of the Amalgamated Association, and their 3,500 employes threaten to strike. Numerous conferences have been held between the firm and the men, but it has been impossible to reach an agreement.

Queer Freak of an Old Man. JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 17.-Jerome L. Hoyt, a married man with grandchildren, eloped Sunday morning with Anna Christenson, a young girl with whom he became infatuated. The girl was engaged to marry a worthy young man named Fairbury.
