THE GIRARD ESTATE PEOPLE GIVEN A RAP.

AUTHORITY THAT DIDN'T WORK

A Pottsville Official Pretended he Was Insulted and Showed his Authority—Tried to Make Amends.

HE clowns who are gloating over the end put to the existence of Pastime Park and are using the matter as an opportunity to lie about the people who established the pleasure resort should not fall to read what I have incorporated below. It is a statement of facts and successfully refutes the allegations of these clowns that the park projectors took possession of the site without authority, and therefore were justly dealt with.

The method of obtaining leases from the Girard Estate is to first get permission to occupy the land from the parties who lease the ground for colliery purposes. The next step is to secure permission from E. C. Wagner, the assistant superintendent for the Girard Estate, and he refers the application to the Board of City Trusts.

In the case of Pastime Park, the projectors fulfilled all these arrangements. Application was made to Mr. E. C. Wagner and he said there would be no doubt about the granting of the lease and he could see no objection to the park projectors going ahead with their work and making arrangements for picnics. If there was any likelihood of anything to the contrary developing, he said, he would telephone the park management.

On the strength of this work on the park commenced. Monday came and no telephone or other message was received and the management took it for granted that everything was all right. The ground was cleared, the dancing platform, refreshment and other stands about the grounds were erected, and a branch of the electric railway about three-quarters of a mile was laid.

Everything went lovely until just before the opening day—the day on which the Grant Band held its picnic—when Major Heber S. Thompson, engineer for the Girard Estate, put in his appearance on the ground and declared, "It is an outrage to take possession of my property without my consent." Thompson then notified the Board of City Trusts that the park people had taken charge of the grounds without his consent. Under this report the Board ordered the park people to vacate the grounds and decided not to grant a lease.

Then Thompson reflected and he told the park people to go ahead again; that he would have the Board of City Trusts reconsider the matter. The park people did go ahead again, but soon learned that Major Thompson could not get the Board to reconsider the matter, as he thought he could easily, and there was no other course left open but to vacate the grounds.

Now such battledoor and shuttlecock treatment of the park management cannot be endorsed by any sensible and intelligent person. But the worse feature of the affair is the miserable position the Girard Estate people have taken. They have discriminated against the park management. The land of the estate is thickly dotted with people who are genuine "squatters," and who not only pay no rent, but also run liquor shops. Another part of the land is a common scene of Sunday baseball games, yet the estate officials fail to raise a voice.

But Pastime Park had to go because there was a power behind the throne that had a prejudice against the management.

What is the Girard Estate doing for the people? "We support and educate our orphans" is their reply. Well, yes, they do—to some extent. They support twelve Schuylkill county orphans in return for—well, I don't know how much exactly, but one colliery north of the Broad Mountain turns into the Estate's treasury one hundred thousand dollars every year.

What else does the Girard Estate do for our people? Nothing good. They took from us the only summer pleasure grounds in this valley under the pretence that the ground was needed as a place for dumping rock, when there was other ample territory near at hand. Efforts to make up for the loss of the old Columbia Park by establishing grounds on other parts of the Estate have failed twice and now it seems that there is nothing that can be done until the Girard Estate become really philanthropic.

Will the Girard Estate deal fair with the people and give them something in return for the Columbia and Pastime parks they have taken from them? Or will they pursue the Vanderbiltian people-be-damned policy and let the public look for pleasure at miserable excuses for dancing platforms

RICHARD H. KOCH. The Candidate for Judge on the Republican County Ticket.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR THE JUDGESHIP.

BRIEF SKETCH OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY KOCH.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE!

His Career at the Bar and in the District Attorney's Office as Deputy and the Chief Official.

RICHARD H. KOCH, Esq., present District Attorney and Republican nominee for Judge, whose portrait we present to day, was born in Middleport, this county, on the second day of April, 1852. He lived and worked on a farm up to the age of fourteen years. After receiving a common school education, he entered the State Normal School at Kutztown and was graduated in 1871, with the first honors of his class. He taught school in Lehigh and Schuylkill counties till he was called to the chair of Mathematics at his Alma Mater. For six years he filled that responsible position with great credit. He then registered with Hon. F. W. Hughes, at that time the Nestor of the Schuylkill county bar, and was admitted in 1881. He at once entered upon the active practice of law and very soon became conspicuous in the profession. In the campaign of 1880 he took an active part as a Republican stump speaker. As delegate to the Republican state convention and chairman of the county committee he did still further service to his party. Mr. Koch took an active part in organizing the Central Republican club of Pottsville, one of the leading political-social organizations of the state. For five years he was its president.

After serving a term of three years, by appointment, as first deputy in the District Attorney's office, he was elected District Attorney in 1889, running 1200 ahead of the ticket. Mr. Koch has a pleasant home on West Market street, Pottsville. A wife and three children constitute his family. In fraternal matters he is one of the best known gentlemen in this section.

Mr. Koch disposes of from 1,000 to 1,200 criminal cases per year. He has, it is stated, taken part in more homicide cases than any other man of his age in legal practice in the state, his first case which he tried with excellent skill being a homicide case. He is a scholar and a fine lawyer. His personal popularity is great, and although usually crowded with business he will stop on the street to shake hands with some poor miner or to speak a pleasant word to a school boy. He was for five years trustee on the part of the state of the Keystone State Normal School, and for seven years has been one of the directors of the Valley Forge Centennial and Memorial Association.

It is worthy of mention and we think a remarkable coincidence, that during the late war when the father of Mr. Koch, who is still living at the age of 76 years, (and a wonderfully preserved gentleman he is at his time of life) resided with his family on a farm at Abburn in 1853, when the war of the Rebellion was at its height, Richard, then only eleven years old, was the oldest person on the farm—his father, filled with the spirit of patriotism, three brothers and three uncles of the subject of our sketch, all equally patriotic, had responded to the call of their country, and joined the Union army.

Our state had been invaded by an armed foe who threatened its desolation and ruin, and many instances of bravery are recorded in the annals of Pennsylvania history, where all the members of families who were able to bear arms rushed to the defense, but we doubt whether any Pennsylvania family can produce a better record than that of Mr. Koch's. Not only were the seven only able bodied members of this family in the ranks, bearing muskets and braving the dangers and hardships of the conflict, but the elder Mr. Koch was instrumental in enlisting in the cause upwards of twenty five stalwart yeomen, all alike in their military zeal and equally self-sacrificing and brave in the defence of the right. History records no better incident of devotion to a good cause. There may be parallel cases, but none superior, in those days when men were wanted for a country's defence and to sustain a country's glory. It reminds us of the time when the minute men of the Revolutionary war, sturdy farmers like the Kochs, left their plows and firesides—their homes, wives and little ones—and rushed to the defence of our soil and battled against an invading army which threatened annihilation, when obedience to unjust laws was impossible without dishonor. Their glorious example was here emulated by this patriotic family, of which the gentleman, who is a nominee for the office of Judge this fall, is a noble son.

that are scattered on their land and are advertised as "picnic" grounds.

We cannot expect that they will do the former. Such action cannot be expected of people who are blinded by prejudices, a condition in which I never expected to find such intelligent men as the Girard Estate are represented to be.

Well, Pastime Park is a thing of the past. "What are you going to do about it?"
