TO SMOKE THE MINES.

How Hiding in a Mine Will be Unearthed.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 24.—Quiet prevails at Coal Creek, but it has been determined to hold the troops there for a while so that any movement on the part of the miners may be met with sufficient force. Yesterday the officials of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company held a consultation with the State Board of Prison Inspectors in reference to the order served upon the company to remove the convicts from the main prison.

It is known how the confederate resulted. It is believed, however, that the convicts will be returned speedily to the mines, and that the State will furnish proper protection.

Over 500 miners, suspects and citizens have been arrested at Coal Creek. About 150 are still held prisoners in a little church. The prison is close, hot and uncomfortable in every way.

A sensation is created here by the statement that the authorities have determined to smoke the mines, and thus drive out miners who are believed to be hiding in them.

It has been suspected for some time that several of the much wanted leaders of the rioters had found shelter in the mines, where they have been comparatively safe from pursuit.

Squire Kincaid held court at Coal Creek yesterday and several miners have been held to court while others have been discharged. All obstacles to civil process have been removed by appointing Gen. Carnes Deputy Sheriff of Anderson county.

State Attorney Pickle is conducting the prosecution with plenty of assistance.

IMPORTANT RAILROAD DECISION.

Companies Cannot Be Forced to Do Business at a Loss.

New York, Aug. 24.—What is probably the most important decision handed down by a Federal Judge in many years has just been handed down by Judge McCormick of the United States Court, at Dallas, Tex. The decision is a great victory for railroads operating throughout the country as well as those in the State of Texas.

It is practically to the effect that State legislation in regard to railroads which compels them to do business on such a basis that it is impossible for them to pay the interest on their bonds impairs the contract with the holders of such bonds, and is consequently in violation of the Constitution of the United States.

The principal roads interested are the Texas and Pacific, the International & Great Northern, the St. Louis Southwestern and the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe, a branch of the Atchafalaya. Judge McCormick's decision grants the prayers of the complainants in full. In effect it holds the entire act unconstitutional.

The decision gives immediate relief to the railroads and blocks the State Commission pending appeal to the Supreme Court, when the railroads are confident of winning the case.

The effect of the decision on the stock market was apparent to-day. Southwestern stocks were active and buoyant.

CROP CONDITIONS.

Synopsis of Reports Issued by the Bureau of the United States Weather Bureau issues the following synopsis of telegraphic reports of the condition of crops:

New York—Rainfall below and temperature above average; corn making rapid advances; buckwheat, tobacco and grapes in excellent condition.

New Jersey—High temperature and total absence of rain very injurious to all crops in southern counties. Light rains of previous week have badly scalded corn and cranberries.

Pennsylvania—Very little rainfall; corn, grass and vegetables suffering from drought; ground too dry to plow; tobacco cutting continues, crop very good; some grain thrashing; wheat above the average yield; fruit poor, except pears and grapes.

Lizzie Borden Uneasy.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 24.—Lizzie Borden passed an uneasy night in the prison room at the Central Station. She did not sleep well, although her bedding and food were brought from her own home. She is in a much happier and more contented frame of mind, however, than when she was here a week ago, but the excitement of Monday has had a visible effect upon her. The heirs of Mrs. Borden have hired counsel to look after the interests of the Borden estate when it reaches the Probate Court.

A Pugilist Saves a Chinaman.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 24.—James Russell entered the laundry Lee Wing, in Harrison, during the morning, and returned the Chinaman's money. The laundry keeper howled with fear when Russell thrust a pistol under Wing's nose and the cries attracted "Paddy" McGuigan, the champion lightweight of New Jersey, who rushed into the store and knocked the robber out in one round. The robber was arrested. The pistol was fully charged.

They Will Defend the Homesteaders.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 24.—G. W. Argo of St. Paul, Minn., and W. W. Erwin of St. Paul, Minn., two eminent lawyers, are now enroute for this place. They will act as representatives of the labor assemblies of the Northwest to defend the strikers in the Pennsylvania courts. Their services are donated, their necessary expenses being all they ask for, and they will try to see that the Amalgamated Association men secure justice.

The Dreaded Diphtheria Making Inroads Upon Gordon Families

The people of Gordon are alarmed over the ravages of diphtheria. The family of Daniel Boyer, section foreman on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at that place, is sorely afflicted. A thirteen-year-old son succumbed to the disease Monday morning and was buried in the afternoon. Yesterday morning the eighteen-year-old daughter of the family fell a victim to the disease and was laid in her grave yesterday afternoon. Another daughter is now a victim and she is not expected to recover. The Boyer family is supposed to have contracted the disease from children of Leona Sommit, where it has been epidemic. When the epidemic broke out these children were sent to the care of friends residing next to the Boyer family.
