CITIZENS MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

It is Now the Duty of the School Board and Borough Council Authorities to do Their Share.

THE street pavements are now receiving the attention of our people and in all sections of the town property owners are replacing dilapidated old wood-walks, with the better looking and more substantial flagstones. These improvements are especially noticeable on White street, in front of the Watson and O'Hara properties, and on Jardin street, between Centre and Oak streets.

And now that the individual property owners are bestirring themselves in the matter of street improvements let us call the School Board to order, in pursuance of a request by a prominent White street resident. The wooden pavement in front of the White street school building is in a horrible condition. Some of the planks are high, others are low, many are so badly worn that immense splinters threaten to drive themselves into the shoes of pedestrians, and the spikes in all of them project above the level, in some cases an inch, threatening to either tear the dresses or shoes of passers-by, or cause people to trip and have ugly falls. The School Board has done excellent pavement work at the Coal street building. Now let attention be turned to the White street property.

And when the School Board turns its attention to the latter property let it cast its eyes upon the grey-haired iron railing in front of the building. It is tottering and looks as if a breeze would blow it down. This railing should be braced and painted. With this improvement and the painting of the building the structure will be some thing to which the people may point with pride.

And now that I am calling the School Board to order let me also say to the Borough Council, the Chief Burgess and the Sanitary committee, that it is very essential that their attention be directed to the condition of two particular parts of the town. Complaint is made that an unbearable stench arises from certain properties on White street, south of Oak. But the case which demands immediate and effectual action presents itself at the south end of West street. There filth is flowing over the rocks and presents what one of the residents says, is a disease breeding Niagara.

Chief Burgess Smith and Chief of Police Davis have not succeeded in establishing the identity of the boy who is stopping at the latter's house and who was arrested on Monday night as a vagrant. They have established one thing, however, and that is the boy, although evidently well bred and well educated, is liable to lie a little. Those who read the account of the case in yesterday's HERALD will remember that the boy was credited with saying that he knew the Roman Catholic priest and a school teacher in Mahanoy City. He also stated that he lived in that town, at No. 12 Pine street, about a year ago. Burgess Smith visited Mahanoy City yesterday and learned that neither the priest or school teacher knew the boy. Smith also found that there is no building at No. 12 Pine street. A vacant lot is there. No clue to a boy of "O'Rourke's" name or description is missing from Mahanoy City and the latter carriers of the town, who have more than once succeeded in returning stray boys to their homes, know nothing of the boy here. There are O'Rourke families residing in Buck Mountain and New Boston, but these places have not been visited yet. Chief Burgess Smith and Chief of Police Davis now incline to the theory that the boy is a fugitive from St. Vincent's Home, Philadelphia, and that during a brief visit to Mahanoy City he gleaned fibe facts upon which he based his story to our police. The investigation is still going on.

THE STATE CAMP.

What the P. O. S. of A. Delegates Are Doing at Shamokin.

In his valedictory address to the State Camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America now in session at Shamokin, State President F. P. Spiese, of Tamaqua, said, "The obnoxious word 'white' still remains in the constitution as one of the qualifications of membership, and our present ritualistic work is far from satisfactory to a majority of the camps; we are, however, now promised that an elaboration and perfection of the one degree ideal will be adopted and enacted by the National Camp at their meeting to be held at Lebanon on the 20th of next month. The simplification of the ritualistic work and the introduction of the one degree system seems to meet with general favor, and so far as I am able to judge there is very little opposition to the change."

President Spiese also said, "The manner of selecting District Presidents should be changed. The present method may seem to be very simple but to the anxious State President, I beg to assure you, it is very difficult and the source of no little annoyance. As so much depends upon the character and fitness of the person chosen to act for the State Camp in this capacity, I would recommend that each district hold a District Convention and elect the District President for the ensuing year, or that where no District Conventions are held, then each Subordinate Camp express its choice for some brother who is qualified and send in the name with the annual report on the 30th of June."

The state secretary's report is most flattering and shows a large increase in membership, the total number being 50,000, eighty camps being added within the year, making this the banner one in the camp's history.

A proposition to loan the money of the State Camp to subordinate camps was not approved.

The State Camp expected to adjourn sine die at noon to-day.

INTERESTING SCHOOL
BOARD SESSION

DISCUSSION OVER PROMOTION
OF TEACHERS.

MOTIONS HEAPED UPON MOTIONS

A Committee Recommends School
Teacher Conroy and an Attempt to Substitute Miss Brennan
Causes Discussions.

SCHOOL Board met last evening for general business, but especially to provide for the transfer of certain school teachers. It appears that Miss McFadden, who taught in the Coal street building last term, is to be transferred to a school more centrally located in town and it therefore became necessary to make an appointment to fill her place.

All the directors of the board were present and it was quite evident that a fight of some kind was on foot. The indications were not false ones, for before the board adjourned there was a very lively scene.

When the board was ready for business Secretary Hanna read the applications of James R. Lewis, M. F. Conroy and Miss Mary A. Stack for promotion to first grade grammar schools.

Upon President Conroy's instructions the committee on teachers and salaries withdrew from the meeting to consider the applications. The committee remained in session for some time and evidently had a lively time of it, Messrs. Williams and Bachman eventually leaving Messrs. Gallagher, Burke and O'Hearn, the majority of the committee, to do as they pleased.

Finally all members of the committee returned to the room and Mr. Gallagher made the following report: "We recommend that M. F. Conroy be appointed to the first grade grammar school made vacant by the resignation of Miss Lessig; that the salary of the first grade primary school in the Coal street building be raised to $45 per month and that Mr. Burke be appointed teacher of the fourth grade primary school in the Union street building."

After some discussion over the report, during which Messrs. Bachman and Williams said they did not concur in it, Mr. Davenport moved that the matter of appointing teachers to fill vacancies be left in the hands of the superintendent.

Mr. Lynch amended that the assignments be made as recommended by the committee.

Mr. Davenport then kindled the fire by stating that the assignment business seemed to him as a family affair. He did not think it right to raise Mr. Burke over the heads of teachers older in service and who had gone to the expense of passing through the Normal schools.

Messrs. Gallagher and O'Hearn retorted warmly. The former said that when Mr. Davenport's side had a majority of the board they seemed to think everything they did was all right, but now that the other side had a majority Mr. Davenport did not take his medicine very well.

Mr. Beddall moved as an amendment to the amendment that Miss Maggie Brennan be appointed to the school for which Mr. Conroy was recommended by the committee.

A vote was taken. Mr. Trezise retained his seat while Mr. Brennan half arose. President Conroy declared the amendment to the amendment lost by a vote of 7 to 6.

Mr. Beddall claimed that Mr. Brennan had voted for the amendment, but President Conroy ruled that Mr. Brennan had not raised from his seat so as to be counted as voting.

A vote on the amendment to the motion was then taken. The amendment was declared lost by a vote of 8 to 7.

Then the motion to refer the matter to Superintendent Freeman was taken up and carried unanimously.

Mr. Beddall moved that the fixing of salaries for teachers be reconsidered and the motion was carried.

Mr. Beddall then moved that the salary for the school in the Coal street building be fixed at $45, and this motion was also carried.

Mr. Davenport then moved that Miss Brennan be appointed to the place for which Mr. Conroy was recommended and President Conroy declared the motion out of order on the ground that the board had voted to leave the matter in the hands of the superintendent.

Mr. Beddall then moved that the motion leaving the matter in the hands of the superintendent be reconsidered.

President Conroy: "I declare the motion out of order."

Beddall: "Why?"
Conroy: "Because you are out of order."
Beddall: "We have a majority now (meaning that Director Brennan would vote for anything that would lead to the substitution of Miss Brennan, his sister, for Conroy) and I would like to know how I am out of order."

Conroy: "Well, you are out of order."
Beddall: "Why? In what way?"
Conroy: "Because you have come here to mix up things. You are out of order. I declare this board adjourned."

The gavel fell and all the directors filed out of the room.

Unless the complexion affairs change considerably in the meantime there will be a lively session at the next meeting of the School Board.

The rules of the School Board provide that the superintendent has "sole power to place and transfer teachers, to suspend them and to make temporary appointments in cases of vacancies occurring from sickness or other circumstances; but such action shall be reported to the Board for its final decision at its next regular meeting."

It is plain, then, that should Superintendent Freeman place Messrs. Conroy and Burke in the schools recommended by the committee, at the next meeting of the board, if Director Brennan continues to stand by the seven citizen members of the board, the superintendent's appointments may be rejected and Miss Brennan may be substituted for Conroy.

At all events, the next meeting promises to be a lively one.

Superintendent Freeman said last night that he would perhaps make no appointments, but leave the whole matter in the hands of the board.

RESPONSIBLE BONDSMEN.

A Scheme by Which Legal Costs May be Collected.

The county commissioners of Luzerne are working out a scheme by which they expect to recover many thousands of dollars to the county treasury. At every term of court many litigants on whom the costs are imposed have heretofore escaped payment of these costs by sheltering themselves under the insolvent law, in such a way that they are never called on, but, instead, the costs are saddled on the county and, of course, paid.

Under the present condition of affairs the man who has had costs imposed on him, who either cannot pay or doesn't want to and has to go to jail, has his attorney draw up a petition asking for his discharge from jail on the ground that he is insolvent. A bondsman must then be secured in order that the alleged insolvent may not fall to appear at court and have the matter of his insolvency officially determined. This bondsman obligates himself to see that the alleged insolvent does thus appear at court, but the fact is the matter goes no further, the insolvent goes cost free, the county pays the expenses and the bondsman is never bothered as to his bond.

The Luzerne county commissioners have decided to issue the following notice to all bondsmen of such alleged insolvent debtors:

DEAR SIR: In No. ——— Term 18— you became bail for the appearance of ——— to the next term of Common Pleas Court, for the purpose of presenting his petition asking for the benefit of the insolvent law. The conditions of this bond have not been complied with, and unless the amount due thereon is paid within ten days from the date hereof, suit will be brought on it.

While it may not be possible to collect a great deal in the present move, the commissioners are sanguine that their attempt will have a tendency to prevent a large number of trivial criminal cases being sent to court that should never be sent, and thus save the county many thousands of dollars of unnecessary expense.

THE HOME CLUB BEATEN.

The North End Club, of Philadelphia, won Yesterday.

A home club of base ball players organized by Squire Monaghan crossed bats with the North End club, an amateur team of Philadelphia, at the trotting park yesterday afternoon and suffered defeat by a score of 8 to 6.

The home players were Salmon, c; Reilly, c; McCarthy, ss; Cleary, 2b; Scanlan, 3b; Sanger, 1b; and Glover, rf. They did great slugging with the bat and made 11 hits, while the visitors only made 5 Salmon, Reilly, Scanlan and Sanger did most of the slugging and Sanger scored two of the runs. Salmon and McCarthy distinguished themselves as base stealers.

The home team scored all its runs before the close of the fourth inning and had the game pretty well in hand up to that time. The visitors then settled down to solid playing and not only prevented the home boys from scoring any more, but added five runs to their score of three in the sixth inning and held the lead to the end.

The score by innings was:
North End..... 3 0 0 0 5 0 0 0 8
Shenandoah..... 0 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 6

Married.

Philip E. Stauffer and Miss Estella S. Gates were married on Tuesday at the residence of the bride's parents in Wilkes-Barre by Rev. H. E. Hayden, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal church at that place. Many costly presents were received by the couple and fifty guests were present at the wedding reception, at the conclusion of which Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer left Wilkes-Barre for a bridal tour which includes visits to Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and other leading cities. Mr. Stauffer has prepared a nicely furnished home at No. 13 Hanover street, Wilkes-Barre. The groom, who formerly resided in town, has sent the HERALD a piece of the wedding cake, as a memento of the union.
