DON'T DESPATE.

THE following timely article "Don't Despair of American Liberty," taken from the Puiladelphia Times, is worth

As usual when any local disturbance breaks out on this side of the water, the English Tories are indulging in a series of we told-you-so shakes of the head over the recent labor disturbances in the United States. They did. this when the South seceded, declaring with an air of cocksureness that was exasperating in the extreme that a republican form of government was a failure. They are doing the same thing now because a few foreign-born demagogues have led a lot of misguided workmen into strikes and rioting.

The croaking with the Tories is a matter with which we need give ourselves no concern. They are prophets of evil by nature. But those who in their hearts believe in free government should wait for a full knowledge of all the facts before yielding to despair. The facts are that 65,000,000 of peop'e was found dead beneath a hay chute in are governed with a standing army of less than 30,000 men, most of whom are required to man the Indian frontier. The United States troops have been called on to suppress a labor riot once in fifteen years, and was recently in the State of Idaho, which is sparsely settled and has been a state too short a time to permit the organization of an effective militia force. Is there any other country in the world with an equal population which manages to keep the peace with so small a military force?

The recent labor outbreaks in Tennessee, Pennsylvania and New York were simply extreme manifestations of the educational process a portion of our foreign immigrants have to go through in order to become Americanized. They have been so used to the repressive influence of standing armies and a drilled constabulary in the Old World that when they come here and fail to see the soldiers at every turn they come to the conclusion that there is neither civil nor military power they need fear. The men who exploded the bomb in the Haymarket at Chicago all but one bore foreign names. The man who shot Frick was a foreigner; the men who have led all the strikes in which rioting occured were of foreign birth or extraction.

But when the Homestead rioters took to shooting, an army, fully equipped for service, sprang into existence at the call of Jovernor Pattison. It was composed chiefly of workingmen, who, like the rioters, earned their bread by the sweat of their brows. They restored order at Homestead without firing a shot, and the most of them have returned to their work and pu are again earning their own bread. So in New York the strikers began to burn cars and throw switches, and the Governor of the state called into service an army of citizens, who, without shooting any one, restored order and set the wheels of business in motion again. In a few days they will return to their homes and work, and the disorderly elements which engaged in the Buffalo riots have taken a lesson in American respect for law and order which they will not forget in a long while. Our English friends need not despair of free government in America yetawhile. It is a pretty big job to Americanize yearly a half million of foreigners without experience in or knowledge of self-government. It is very natural that some of these shall conclude that the word liberty means liberty for themselves and no one else and that they will have to come in collision with the agencies for enforcing American law to be taught that it has a wider application.

Outrage on Our Representative at Madrid.

A PROMPT APOLOGY TENDERED

Mr. MacNutt Was Confined in a Filthy Cell for Two Hours-The Police Officers Dismissed.-One Reinstated at the Represen tative's Request.

LONDON, Aug. 25.-The Madrid corres pondent of the "Central News" sends as account of the arrest of Francis MacNutt. United States Secretary of Legation un der Minister Grubb, and, since the lat-ter's departure, United States Charge d'Affaires. The correspondent tried te send the account by telegraph on Satur day, but the censors, both in Madrid and San Sebastian, refused to pass it.

On Friday, while out walking in San Sebastian, Mr. MacNutt entered a public room, but found it so offensive that he retired from it at once. As he stood out-side a detective in plain clothes came up and reproved him for his conduct. MacNutt excused himself on the plea that the room was unbearably filthy. The detective replied impudently, and demanded Mr. MacNutt's name and address. Think-ing the man a swindler, Mr. MacNutt refused to give either.

The detective then approached him nenacingly as if to strike him. Mr. Mac-Nutt then struck out, knocked the detec-tive down and then drew his revolver. The detective shouted for help, several policemen responded, and Mr. MacNutt was arrested, making no resistance. At was arrested, making no resistance. At the police station he presented his card, explained who he was and demanded that the keeper of the hotel where he stopped be summoned. The police jeered at him and refused to consider his request.

The warden then led him to a large cull, full of thieves, tramps and drunkards and locked him in it. On the way to the cell the warden struck him three times and after getting him inside, clubbed him severely. After two hours' confinement Mr. MacNutt was released. The warden refused to apologize and gave Mr. Mac-Nutt to understand that he might consider himself lucky to get away so soon.

As soon as news of the affair reached the As soon as news of the affair reached the Foreign Office the Minister called upon Mr. MacNutt and offered full satisfaction. The detective the warden and two policemen were dismissed. Mr. MacNutt, upon learning that one of the soldiers had a large family, requested that he be reinstated, and this was done.

Among the persons who have heard of the affair there is only praise for the good sense and moderation shown by Mr. MacNutt. Every effort is made by the au-

Nutt. Every effort is made by the au-thorities and the members of the United States Legation to hush the matter up. Mr. MacNutt refuses to talk on the SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

A Bookkeeper for Street & Smith, New York, Embezzies $30,000,

New York, Aug. 26 .- A heavy defalcation is alleged to have occurred in the office of Street & Smith, publishers of the "New York Weekly," and if the hasty examination of the books was cor-rect, the shortage amounts to nearly $20,-000. Of this amount nearly $7,000 is directly traceable to Alfred J. Price, book keeper and one light who was arrested bookkeeper and cashier, who was arrested and arraigned in the Tombe Police Court Yesterday afternoon.

The books of the concern were receiving an overhanding when the shortage was

Mr. Price made a confession, it is said, to Mr. Orrin G. Smith, of the peculation of the sum specified in the warrant, and it is supposed he is responsible for the whole shortage. Price was very reticent in court, as were his employers. Price is

THE HOME RULE BILL. Its Principal Features Sald to be Decid

Upon. Loxpon, Aug. 25 .- The "Chronicle" says that the main lines of Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule bill have been decided upon.

The features of the bill are said to be No disturbance of land legislation for five years; police judiciary to be in the hands Dublin Parliament; the Irish church fund to be at the disposal of Ireland, and the English Receiver-General to be retired; Irish representation at Westminster to consist of thirty members; ex ercise of the royal veto upon the advice of the English Ministry; witholding of the power to collect customs duties.

Three Swindlers Arrested.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 .- William H. Rob-NEW 10F8, Aug. 20.—Whilm H. Rob-erts, Neil McCallum and Frederick Spritz, all interested in the Financial Trading Company, at 10 Wall street, are locked up in the Jefferson Market prison on the oherge of being wholesale swindlers. Through some trickery the Trading Company had secured a first class rating at Bradstreet's and Dun's ageories, and carried on business through begus branch offices. Most of the swindled concerns are in the Scath. Their Marion, North Carolina, branch office was sold out by the sheet of records. the sheriff recently.

Middletown Episcopalians Indignant. Middlerown, Cona., Aug. 25. - The Episcopalium of this place are up in arms over statements made from his pulpit by Mr. Jernergan, pastor of the Baptist church.
