Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. G. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

Electric Railway Change.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Main and Centre streets at 5:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave.

WON'T BE DRIVEN OUT.

Rev. David Chambers Determined to Stay in Harwich, Mass.

HARWICH, Mass., Aug. 26.—Rev. David Chambers, the pastor of the Methodist Church who was assaulted with a large stone and who had been warned in an anonymous note to leave town, says he can see no reason for any personal attack on him. He has anticipated it to bring the two factions of the church together and thought he was succeeding. "I hope and expect," he said, "that the law will have in its grasp the one who assaulted me, but if it fails and I know the would-be assassin is abroad, it will not drive me out of town. I am here to do good and I shall remain."

B. & O. Operators Demand More Pay.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 26.—Telegraph operators employed by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in Baltimore, and who are members of Division 17 of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers of the United States, have submitted a schedule to the company for an advance in wages. It is stated that the company is willing to compromise on half the asked for advance but the operators are not satisfied. It is claimed by the operators of Division 17 that if they strike a general strike of railroad operators will follow.

The Bridge Gave Way.
ERIE, Pa., Aug. 26.—A construction train was out yesterday inspecting the bridges on the P. S. & L. E. Road, in consequence of the heavy rains. When half a mile south of Conneautville a bridge gave way under the engine and it was precipitated into the bottom of the ravine, causing the instant death of Bridge Boss Edward Fisher and probably fatally injuring Conductor Milton Dieffenderfer, both of Shenandoah.

Blair Willing to Go to Congress.
CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 26.—Ex-Senator Blair said to a reporter yesterday: "If the common acceptance of the term I am not a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the First district. If, however, the party shall nominate me, I shall accept the honor and will do the best I can to redeem the district."

Both Sisters Missing Now.
NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Aimee, the "human fly," and her sister, Rose Austin, are missing. Rose left her home at Bensonhurst, L. I., on Monday, and Aimee disappeared yesterday. Mr. A. Austin, the husband of Rose, reported the case to Superintendent Byrnes and a general alarm has been sent out.

NEWS OF THE DAY.
—The session of the American Bar Association opened yesterday at Saratoga, N. Y., by the delivery of the annual address by John Randolph Tucker of Virginia.

—Mrs. A. Davis, 92 years old, was found dead near Little Falls, N. Y., Wednesday in a water trough containing a foot of water. It is thought she accidentally fell in the trough.

—Charles Johnson and James Wakely, John L. Sullivan's backers, deposited the final $2,500 of his $10,000 stakes with the sporting editor of the New York "World" yesterday. Corbett's money is already posted with Stakeholder Phil Dwyer, so the whole $20,000 is now up.

Weather Forecast.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26.—For Eastern New York, Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey: Showers, clearing, cooler, winds shifting to westerly.

—For Western New York and Western Pennsylvania: Local showers, cooler, winds shifting to northwesterly.

—For New England: Showers followed by clearing; stationary temperature, cooler.

Art Note.

Artist—The public makes me sick. Critic—Why, what's the matter with the public?

"Nobody will give even as much as ten dollars for my last picture. I've a notion to throw my brushes out of the window."

"Don't do that. Keep the big ones at least."

"Why should I keep the big ones?"

"You may need them some of these days in painting fences."—Texas Siftings.

The Kind of a Client to Have.
"My client Burker is the kind of a man I admire," said Brief. "He told me he was willing to spend ten thousand dollars to recover one hundred dollars he had been defrauded of."

"What advice did you give him?"

"I told him to go ahead—that I was with him in all matters involving a principle of that sort."—Puck.

How It Sometimes Happens.
"Who is that coarse looking, fat man crossing the street?"

"That's the Hobson, the author of 'Songs of the Heart and Other Verses.'"

"And is the high-browed, pale-faced man behind him another poet?"

"Oh, no; that's Lardoyle, the packing house prince."—Chicago News.

A Tough Boy.
Judge Duffy—Your son has been arrested for throwing stones at a passing railroad train. As he is not sixteen years old, I shall send him home to be thrashed.

Father—We at home are only too glad if he doesn't thrash us. You don't know that boy.—Texas Siftings.

A Unique Example.
Superintendent of Lunatic Asylum—That, ladies, is a summer hotel clerk recently thrown out of employment.

The Ladies—Why was he brought here?

Superintendent—He got to thinking he was no better than the guests of the hotel.—Life.

It Happened to Come to Her.
Young Wife (at midnight)—Wake up! Wake up!

Husband—What is it, dear? Robbers? Young Wife—Mercy, no! You asked me at supper what ailed the cake. It just happened to come to me this minute. I forgot to put any sugar in it.—Truth.

Always Angry.
Jack—What are you feeling so blue about?

Tom—I got in the habit of kissing Imogen whenever she got angry at me. Jack—Yes.

Tom—And now her temper is completely ruined.—N. Y. Herald.

His Weak Point.
Bronson—I suppose that Henry M. Stanley is the greatest explorer and discoverer of the nineteenth century.

Johnson—Undoubtedly he is. Bronson—Then isn't it very strange that it took him so many years to find a wife?—Household Monthly.

Quite the Reverse.
Goggin—Do you mean to say you got that suit of clothes for only $18? That's what I should call a regular pick-me-up.

Maygor—It isn't though. It's a regular hand-me-down.—Chicago Tribune.

Womans.
She'll ride if only for a block. Think exercise is vital! But she'll go into a drugstore and walk at least a mile.—Judge.

FROM THE SUBLIME.
Mr. Jennings—I could jes' ride on fo'ebber wif yo', Miss Edif.

Miss Edif—Deed yo' couldn't. Yo'd have dat bicycle-bazaz man affah us fo' rent wif a gum; sho' nough we would.—Judge.

A Good Omen.
She—Why—er—really, Mr. Champ-lain, the idea of my marrying you, is very unexpected.

He—I am so glad! She—So glad?

He—Yes; because the unexpected always happens.—Puck.

A Slave to Duty.
Mrs. S. Burbs—John, dear, can't you run away from home for a week or two this summer and get a little rest?

Mr. S. Burbs—Who would run the lawn-mower while I was gone?—Chicago News.

Even if She Can't Vote.
Brother Tom—Ah, well, there's one thing every woman can have a finger in.

Bessy—What, Tom? Brother Tom—An engagement ring.—Lippincott's Magazine.

The Safest Way.
"I suppose," said Miss Bleeker to her friend from Cincinnati, "that you boil your river water before using it?"

"Well, no," replied Miss Buckeye. "Our usual custom is to slice it thin and fry it."—Life.

Accommodating.
"Ethel, will you marry me?" "Yes, if it will be an accommodation."—Chicago News.

The Place to Go.
Shenandoah people visiting the county seat (surnamed Pottsville) all call in the Academy Restaurant. Either J. F. Cooney, the proprietor, greets you with a smile, or his genial brother, M. A. Cooney, welcomes you. It is the resort for all gentlemen from north of the mountain. 8-24-17

The President at Malone.

He Leaves Loon Lake for a Few Hours—Other Engagements.

LOON LAKE HOUSE, N. Y., Aug. 26.—If President Harrison goes everywhere that he is wanted in this Adirondack region he will have his hands full of engagements for a fortnight yet, but he will not go to all. He will go to Malone, has half promised to visit Saranac Lake, and will consider Ogdensburg on his way to the Thousand Islands.

Plattsburgh is among the towns that wish to do him honor, but it is doubtful if that "burgh" will have the opportunity.

Mr. Harrison will arrive at Malone about 2 p. m. to-day. He will take dinner, make a brief address, shake hands and return to Loon Lake in the afternoon; making the length of his stay at Malone about two hours.

It is understood that he will go to Washington in a few days, remain a day or so, and then return to the mountains.

Growing More Liberal

That's what the human race is doing—particularly the American part of it.

There are a few left who are satisfied with ancient history. But most people are ready to apply modern progress and common sense to the treatment of the human stomach—an organ that demands its rights whether or no; that resents the insults of worn-out methods. All this is to emphasize the facts about

COTTOLENE

There was once a prejudice against Cottolene oil. But people who are alive, who investigate, who have no bigotry in their composition, have found that pure, refined cottolene oil combined with selected beef suet is a better article in every conceivable way than hog's lard. And so they wisely use it for cooking—and are correspondingly healthy and happy. The sales of COTTOLENE are enormous and constantly increasing; a proof that it is appreciated by appreciative persons.

Ask your grocer for it.
