NO MORE IMPOSITIONS

Uncle Sam Will Not be Trifled With By Canada.

THE ST. LAWRENCE MAY BE CLOSED.

Likelihood That the Cauadians Will Prevent American Vessels from Using It-A Dominion Journal Clamoring for s World's Pair Boyests.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—One thing demonstrated beyond a doubt by the latest Canadian correspondence is that this country does not intend to be trifled with by Canada, The goneral comment on the letter written by Secretary Foster is that it is strong and to the point, and is a suitable response to the extremely arrogant and impudent communication from the British representative on behalf of the Canadian Government. The policy of this Government from this time forward in dealing with Canada is well defined. The minimum measure of retaliation only has as yet been resorted to. What has been done does not fear more aggressive and damaging retaliation if there is a necessity for it. It may be accepted by Canada as settled that this country will derate no more impositions without full and proper resentment.

There is no intention to enter into jingolam; there is no purpose to interfere with the domestic affairs of Canada or Great Britain, but it is proposed to stand strictly on our rights and to compel them

States, and there is a very clear under-standing that this will result in cutting off all privileges Canadians enjoy by the generosity of this country.

The St. Lawrence may be closed against American vessels, and any bur-den that is possible may be imposed upon American commerce with Canadia by Canadian action, but the injury that can be done us in this way is regarded at Washington as slight compared to the re-taliatory measures which may be adopted taliatory measures which may be adopted by the State Department.

It is probable that not at a very remote period the retaliation by this country will extend to the transportation of goods in bond across this country if Canada maintains her present attitude.

ing to an end, as has been reported one way and the other lately, troubles in Venezuela are getting more and more complicated and aggravated.

The is the substance of the news which the Red "D" line steamer Caracas brings from the South American Republic.

The passengers say that a new element of danger has made its appearance in the political codition of the country. It is the ambition of General Urdaneta, who, finding that his own interests have very materially suffered by the flight of Palacio, in support of whom he had fought manfully from the very breaking out of the revolution, determined to strike audacious blow to recoup his lost for-
