Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

Electric Railway Change.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Main and Centre streets at 5:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour last car will leave.

TWO HARVEST EXCURSIONS

Via the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R'y., August 30, and September 27.

Where the grasses are kissed by the wand'ring breeze, And the fields are rich with the golden grain: Where the echoes plough through the prairie seas, To its destined port on the western plain; Where homes may never be sought in vain. And hope is the thriftest plant that grows: Where not may ever his right hand maintain. And land is as free as the wind that blows.

Electric Notes.

The work on the Mahanoy City-Mahonoy Plane branch is being pushed rapidly. The electric road, on its completion to Locust Dale, will be extended to Mt. Carmel and Centralia.

Several magnates of the electric railway were in town this morning on business connected with the running of the road through our town. "We expect to have the entire route between Girardville and Locust Dale surveyed on Monday," said Mr. William F. Sadler, Sup't. of the road, to a Telegram reporter. "All the rules, ties, poles, wires, etc., for this branch have been contracted for," he continued, "and we expect to begin work very shortly."—Ashland Telegram.

A dozen new cars have been ordered and will be ready in time for the opening of the Mahanoy route.

The Chicago Fire.

The near approach of the World's Fair awakens increased interest in Chicago and her wonderful history. To-day Chicago is probably the finest city in the world, architecturally, and all practically built within twenty years. The most thrilling and wonderful chapter in the city's history is the one telling of the great fire and the subsequent rebuilding. It reads like a tale from Fairy Land. The new and magnificent Cyclorama of the Chicago Fire just opened in that city shows in a most surprising manner the city during the great fire, with its thousands of acres of red-hot ruins, thousands more of a surging sea of flame, and countless thousands of panic-stricken people fleeing for their lives, in the most grand, awe-inspiring, and realistic scene ever produced by man. The whole effect is greatly intensified by the introduction of novel mechanical and electrical devices, making the whole situation seem like reality. This remarkable exhibition is located upon Michigan avenue, near Madison street, and will remain as a prominent attraction during the World's Fair. Our readers should make a note of this great work and not fail to visit it.

New York Item.

Said the clerk to his principal: "There is a lady outside who wishes to see you."

"Is she pretty?"

"O, yes."

Principal goes out, and returning after a few moments, says to the clerk: "You are a nice judge of pretty women, you are."

"Well, how could I guess she was your wife," replied the clerk.—Texas Siftings.

Statistical.

Col. Gore (of Louisville)—It costs the people of the United States $250,000,000 a year to be born, and $900,000,000 to get drunk.

Col. Blood (of the same city)—Getting born is very expensive.

Col. Gore—True, but it is a necessary expense. How could we get drunk if we were not born first?—Jury.

Gave Him Away.

Von Blumer—Did Van Winkle's wife tell you that he came home hilarious the other night while you were up in the country?

Mrs. Von Blumer—Yes, she did.

Von Blumer (carelessly)—She didn't say anything else, did she?

"She said he had just left you."—N. Y. Herald.

At the Summer-Resort Hop.

Miss Luvly—Do you know Mr. Stevens by sight? I left the veranda after having a little flirtation with him just a moment ago and now I can't find him anywhere.

Miss Waspish—I saw a man hurrying by with a great pink and white mark on his coat lapel. Maybe that was he.—Chicago News.

A Suspicious Symptom.

A young man recently called on Dr. Perkins, Surgeon, of Harlem:

"Doctor, I am not feeling right. I believe a change of climate would do me good."

"Of what bank are you cashier?" asked the doctor, suspiciously.—Texas Siftings.

True Courtesy.

Lambson—I missed my new tennis belt from my room yesterday, Mrs. Grinder. This morning you had tripe for breakfast.

Mrs. Grinder (the landlady, haughtily)—Well, sir, what of it?

Lambson—Is there anything special that you would like me to get to-day?—Life.

How He Won Her.

"So you have accepted Mr. Whiffet after all?"

"Yes; I said I never would, but he is so thoughtful. He sent me a box of handkerchiefs just as my hay fever was coming on."—Chicago News.

The Man in the Moon.

Mr. Highlife—I wonder why it's a man and not a woman we see in the moon?

Mrs. Highlife (with emphasis)—Because he stays out all night.—Chicago News.

Call It Collie.

Little Johnny ate an apple—That apple it was green. Little Johnny's sleep is peaceful Underneath the turf serene.—Chicago Mail.

Enough.

When a Boston novelist wants to make his hero swear he writes: "A blank expression came into his face," and lets it go at that.—Truth.

"'Cause he didn't ask 'til he knewed I had a new alphonse."—Boston Globe.

HERE AND THERE.

Interesting Items Concerning Different Sections of the Region.

The Wilkes-Barre Record says that William F. Keck, the condemned Lehigh county murderer, objects to being hung on the "Mollie Maguire scaffold," because, he says, he is "Dutch, not Irish." That's a rather peculiar objection. When a man has to be hanged it would seem to be immaterial what kind of gallows he is to be hanged upon, providing it be one that will do its work effectually and without bungling.

Some tramps who were put to work on Scranton's streets, struck and refused to work until they had found by experience that even that alternative is preferable to a dungeon cell. But why shouldn't tramps strike against work. For what else are they tramps?

Defective drainage has produced a diphtheria epidemic in South Chester, Delaware county, of sufficient seriousness to cause the directors to order the closing of the public schools. The news of almost every succeeding day gives some such object lesson of the vast importance of the science of public sanitation.

The coal consumption of the United States has reached a figure of one hundred and fifty millions of tons, within forty millions of the combined output of England and Wales and Scotland, and it may be fairly prophesied that in a few years will even exceed it. The amount of capital invested is enormous and millions of people depend upon it in one way or another as a means of livelihood and a source of wealth. It is exercising the greatest influence upon the country and in its arena some of the knottiest problems affecting capital and labor are working to a solution. Now mines are ever being opened, but the tonnage of the old ones is not appreciably affected, indicating that the demand is keeping a fair pace with the supply and that coal property is increasing its increments as other species of investments, and promises year by year to become increasingly valuable. Whether it be the coal, the coal land owner, the jobber, or the retail dealer, they all have reason to look with confidence towards the future and depend upon it to strengthen and consolidate their interests and augment the profits of their industry.

The Berks County Fair.

To be held in the city of Reading on September 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th, promises to be an unusually grand event this year. In addition to the other attractions there will be a "Wild Western Exhibition" daily on the race-course. The races will be many and exciting. In every department a fine display is assured. Many distinguished visitors will be in attendance. No city in the state offers better opportunities for enjoyment than Reading. Excursion tickets will be sold at all railroad stations at low rates during the fair.

The Synchronized Clock.

The Western Union Telegraph Company is having a dozen or more of the Synchronized self-winding clocks put up in town. There are already a dozen subscribers for the service. By these clocks a uniform time service will be furnished. Once a day Operator Frank McDermott will sound "time" on each of the clocks from the headquarters in the telegraph office. The clocks will be corrected daily by telegraphic time signals from the time service of the United States Naval Observatory at Washington. They will be put up next week.

THE FASHIONS.

Where the Best and Latest Come From.

Fashion is called a "fickle jade"—and yet nearly every style is designated with some special object in view. Often the manufacturer has created some new material which he intends to place before the merchant; to make the best impression possible he has samples of the new material placed with some of the best modists whose special designers will study the goods, its color and texture, and its combinations with other colors and materials. While experimenting with the material they create some new style to attract attention; these designs are reproduced in colored plates and sent to all prominent dealers to give them an idea of the value of the new material. If these styles are liked they become the fashion.

Sometimes a dress made for some leading artist, who has to dress as well as act the character in the play, is often so beautiful or unique as to cause a sensation, and it immediately becomes all the rage.

Most large establishments in Paris have special artists who furnish them each month with a certain number of new styles suitable for the season and the new materials. From these the best are selected and the garment made up accordingly.

The reason La Mode de Paris, Album of Fashion and La Couturiere give the earliest styles and those that are reliable is because they are at the very fountain head of Fashion and know just what is going to be popular. When you get a fashion journal get one upon which you can depend for correct ideas of style and material, for remember that if you wish to show correct and good taste yourself you will need to study those styles which are artistic and reliable. If you wish to keep up to the styles we advise you to subscribe for La Mode de Paris, $3.50 per year, or Paris Album of Fashion, $3.50 per year. These are the most artistic fashion journals published. La Couturiere is a fine home journal for $3.00 per year and La Mode is only $1.50 per year.

You can generally get single copies from your newsdealer, but do not allow him to give you some other journal for one of these. You can get them if you write to the publishers, Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th Street, New York.
