SULL FOR STATE OF A LUSS Materially Improved by the Testimony Yesterday.

ARGUMENTS OF COUNSEL TO-DAY.

Close of the Defense-Criticisms on the Government's Case-Medical Testimon in Rebuttal of the Prosecution's Theor les -- Sympathy for the Accused Growing

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sep. f.—There is no abatement in the size of the crowd which has daily attended the hearing of Lizzie Borden. The court room was crowded as usual this morning, long before the prosecution started to sum up

The defence in the case has shown its line of argument, and there are a great many people in this city who believe that it is balled on fairly sound reasoning. There are many more persons talking about the weakness of the government's case than have been heard for some

It has been shown by reputable wit nesses, such as Mrs. Chagnon and her daughter, that a strange noise was heard in their yard at 11 o'clock the night pre-ceding the day of the murder, that might have been made by a man climbing the fence and moving about the buildings in the rear of their house. They were frightened by unusual sounds to such an extent that alse Martha, the dauguter, declined to go into the cellar even to leak our.

Other witnesses, among them Dr. Handy, testified to having seen strange looking men in the neighborhood, while a man of sound common sense, like Alfred Clarkson, the steam fitter, says the hay in the barn had been stepped in, and looked as if it had been lain in.

Jerome C. Borden showed how easy it was to enter the Borden house by the front door, and the testimony of Mrs. Brigham shows that it is possible to en-ter the door provided one of the inmates does not slip the bolt or turn the key, without depending on the spring lock which does not spring.

Yesterday's record of the butchery as given by Dr. Draper, has given rise to grave doubts whether the terrible wounds could have been inflicted by a woman, more perticularly by a woman, more particularly by a woman who, since and before the tragedy, has shown not the slightest symptoms of insanity.

As sympathy turns to the defendant there is heard more criticism of the way she was treated at the inquest. It is charged that the report of the inquest shows to have been a direct examination, followed by as severe cross-examination as ever seen in a criminal trial, the whole effort appearing to be to force Miss Liz-zie to convict herself, and that after the government was satisfied that she had gone far enough to do this the arrest was

The inquest came to an abrupt ending, The inquest came to an abrupt ending, and has never come to a formal end so far as the public have been able to learn. As the evidence at the inquest has come to light these critics of the prosecution do not see how the arrest was warranted by it. The general impression seems to be that Miss Lizzie should be kept on the rack there.

There is also commented upon that at three different times she was called be-fore the inquest, and each time was compelied to go unattended by counsel to meet officials who were suspicious of her guilt, and whose whole effort seemed to be to secure damaging testimony from the witness against herself.

The first witness called was Marshal Rufus B. Hilliard, who said that his attention was called to the murder at 11:15, Aug. 4. He sent Officer George W. Al-len to the house, and did not go to the house himself until 2:30 or 3 in the afternoon.

The next officer sent was Doharty, then

Reilly is not in town now, but has been sent to look after evidence that Rev. Mr. Buck placed in his hands, following out some supposed clue in connection with some supposed clue in connection with this murder, but witness declined to state

When he arrived there he went to the back of the yard and made a thorough search and then went into the house. The other witnesses examined were Dr. Frank Winthrop Draper, Dr. Benjamin J. Handy, Mrs. Delia Smalley, Mrs. D. Chagnon, Miss Martna Chagnon, John Donnelly, Arthur Clarkson, John Morse and Mrs. Dr. Eowen, and then the defense rested. fense rested.

OLD HANDS APPLY FOR WORK. Strikers Want to Be Taken Back into a

Carnegle Mill at Pittsburg. PITTERURO, Sep. 1.—That the strike at the Carnegie Thirty-third street mill is broken is firmly believed. Yesterday twenty of the old employes appeared at Jes' get your Barlow ready an' prepare to make the mill office and applied for work. They were heaters, helpers and roughers. They were promised work on Monday of next week if there are any vacancies for them at that time.
Supt. Scott said, however, that their applications would do them but little, if any, good, as nearly every place was filled and the company had no intention of dis-charging any of the new workmen to make places for the old.

HARRISON IS AROUSED

Abandons His Trip and Returns to Washington.

ALARMED AT CHOLERA'S APPROACH

A Cabiner Meeting to be Held Immediately to Devise Measures for Repelling the Threntened Invasion-The President Believes the Situation is Serious.

WASHINGTON, Sep. 1 .- President Harrison is again an occupant of the White House, having abundoned his proposed trip through Northern New York, and having come post haste to the capital to consult with his Cabinet regarding measures advisable to repel the threatened invasion of cholera.

The President was the guest of Hon Whitelaw Reid yesterday at Ophir Farm, near White Plains, N. Y.

When the guests invited by Mr. Reid to meet the President at dinner last evening arrived at the mansion of the Vice-Presidential candidate they were informed that Mr. Harrison had decided to return at once to Washington. He arrived at this decision shortly after 6 o'clock, and within half an hour after he received messages from Secretary Foster of the Treasury Department and Attorney-General Miller, informing him of the arrival of cholera at Quarantine, New York, and asking that means should be taken to prevent the spread of the scourge.

The President first heard the news in regard to the Moravia through a tele phone message received by Mr. Reid at Ophir Farm. Quickly following this came the dispatches from the Cabinet

The President and Mr. Reid held a con sultation immmediately, and it was decided that the President could best consult with his subordinates in the matter by going to Washington. Accordingly he left Ophir Farm at 9:80 o'clock and took a special train over the Harlem di-vision of the New York Central at White Plains, reaching the Grand Central station in New York at 10 o'clock.

At midnight a regular Pennsylvania Railroad train bearing the President, Pri-vate Secretary Halford and Executive Clerk Tibbott, left Jersey City for Wash-ington, arriving here shortly before

The President has not abandoned his proposed transcrively. If he is not de-tained in Wassington for more than a week he will return to Loon Lake, via New York city, and the route he in-tended to take. The arrangements of this journey are in the hands of the New York State Campaign Committee and the engagements already made will simply be postponed, unless the invasion of the scourge grows very serious.

GUESTS OF MR. REID. The President and His Party Spend a Day

as Ophir Farm. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sep. 1.—After deciding to return to Washington last evening. President Harrison sat down to dinner at Ophir Farm with a party of 15. It included besides the host and the members of his family, Chairman T. H. Carter, of the Republican National Committee; General J. S. Clarkson, ex-Chairman of the Republican National Committee; Russell Harrison and S. V. R. Cruger.

The dinner was purely informal, and at its conclusion the purty proceeded to the front of the Reid mansion, where friends, neighbors and people from White Flains to the number of 300, with two brass bands and the local G. A. R. post, had assembled.

The President, Mr. Reid and others She (reading)-Joe, this paper says made brief speeches.

Private Secretary Halford said to a re-porter that he saw Mrs. Harrison yesterday, and then she seemed to be recovering her health after her recent ill-

President would never have undertaken this journey and left her."

Soon after the arrival of President Harrison ex Senstor Platt came in with Mr. J. E. Milholland. They were taken at once to Ophir Farm, where they were received by Whitelaw Reid and D. O. Mills.

Mr. Platt was ushered into the presence of President Harrison, who gave him a very cordial greeting. Mr. Piatt remained several hours.

Charged With Killing an Infant.

Poundererste, N. Y., Sep. 1.—Mrs. R. A. V. Hoffman, of Rock City, town of Milan, Dutchess county, is under arrest, charged by the coroner's jury with being responsible for the death of a female infant, whose headless remains were found in a creek in Milan last Thursday. Coroner Carroli held an inquest and the woman was arrested soon after the verilist was announced. Mrs. Hoffman is 26 years of age and her husband is 62. The couple have lived four years at Rock City, and a case similar to this one was thought to be chargeable to them two years ago.

New Hallroad Line Opened.

PHILADELPHIA, Sep. I.—The first train over the Reading Railroad's new line to Rochester, Fuffato and Ningara Falls, left Philadelphia at 8:30 o'clock last night. There was no formal opening of the road, but, beginning with the train named, all trains in both directions will use the same routs. The building of this extention makes the distance four miles shorter between Philadelphia uni Buffalo than by any other route and gives the Reading its own line the entire distance to Rochester and Buffalo.
