THE FIRE ALARM.

Better Arrangements Should be Made by Council for Test.

At about 7:30 last evening the fire alarm bell sounded the 24 taps and the streets were soon crowded with people, who breathlessly waited to see the engine and hook and ladder teams make their dash for the supposed fire. They were disappointed. The alarm was a test one sent out by Wm. Davis, who was recently appointed to look after the electric system.

There was a general complaint against the method by which the test was made and in answer it was stated that word was sent to all the fire companies that the test would be made. But this answer was not sufficient. The fire apparatus committee had an understanding with Council that a fire would be fixed for testing the system and the public would be notified when that time was decided upon.

Joseph Tompsett, driver for the Columbia Hose Company, complains that although members of his company were notified he received no notice and he was put to inconvenience in getting his team ready.

NO GERMS FOUND.

The Examination of Clothing from the Moravia—No Cholera in New York.

New York, Sep. 3.—In the expert examination to determine the presence of cholera bacilli in the specimens of clothing taken from the Moravia, made by Dr. Byron, the result was negative, as expected, owing to the failure to obtain fresh data to work from.

As to the present care of the Moravia's passengers, rigid measures of disinfection are being carried out daily on board the ship, but passengers will not be taken to Hoffman Island for their ablutions (till after all the ships at Quarantine without sickness have been through the treatment).

Dr. Sanborn reports that no new cases have been developed on board the Moravia. Upward of twenty suspicious vessels are due from now on until the expiration of the next ten days, and the Quarantine Health doctors are preparing to meet them. It seems almost certain that some of them will bring cases of cholera on board.

After the Health Inspector had made a very careful examination of the suspected cholera patient at 35 Orchard street, he made a report to Dr. Roberts at Sanitary Headquarters that it was neither cholera nor cholerae, but simply cramps.

It is said that the steamship companies here will lose $2,000,000 a month, while the twenty days' quarantine regulations are being carried out, $1,000,000 representing the loss arising out of diminished outgoing cabin passengers and loss of freight and other expenses for incidentals.

GILBERT ISLANDS SEIZED.

Great Britain Lays Claim to a Group in the South Seas.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sep. 3.—News comes from the South Seas of a coup by the British Government in its territory grabbing scheme in South Pacific waters. This time it is the seizure of the Gilbert Islands, a small but valuable group down under the equator. The agent of her British Majesty was the warship Royalist, in command of Captain Edward H. M. Davis, also significantly styled "Deputy Commissioner."

The Royalist put into the lagoon that forms the harbor of Butaritari, the principal island of the group on Sunday, June 12. A boat landed Capt. Davis and interpreter and several lieutenants. They proceeded to the palace of King Nauteritao Teheureima.

At an assemblage in the afternoon, at which the American fruit firms (doing business in the group) were represented, Capt. Davis made a detailed explanation to the King as to what Great Britain would require of him.

MANY BODIES WASHED ASHORE.

Victims of the Wreck of the Western Reserve Cast Off.

NEWBERRY, Mich., Sep. 3.—Five bodies have been recovered at the scene of the wreck of the Western Reserve. Capt. Minch and a lady supposed to be his wife and an unknown lady but partially clothed, as though hurried from bed to a yawl boat to escape, were among them.

The Western Reserve went down with her engines going at full speed, so sudden was the hurricane. As the crew pulled away they could see the monster puffing and plunging in the waves until she sank out of sight. There is no way of identifying the place where the steamer went down. It was out of sight of land, and there is no way of locating the wreck. The yawl was capsized at the first shock from the shore by the breakers.

It is not probable that any of the occupants survived the cold and waves long except Stewart, who had on a heavy knit, close-fitting jacket, which he says alone saved him. He was entirely exhausted when he struck shore, and lay almost unconscious for an hour, until rescued by the life-saving station.

The body of Lizzie McMillan, the captain's daughter, was found about seven miles north of here. Parties at Pierpont claim that four persons were seen in a boat about two miles out at 7 o'clock on the evening of the capsizing of the schooner Toledo, but that the waves until she sank so high at the time no assistance could be rendered. The boat afterwards came ashore empty.

THE NEWBRIDGE RIOT.

Several Will Die as the Result of the Laborers' Conflict.

LONDON, Sep. 3.—More trouble is feared at Newbridge, where a strike is in progress at the salt works. The riot was a terrible one, and may result in several fatalities. One hundred and fifty non-unionists were sent from Liverpool to take the places of the strikers.

Unionist scouts in Liverpool telegraphed ahead that the non-unionists were coming, and when the train reached the station several hundred men, led by strikers, had gathered to prevent the new men from leaving the carriages.

Most of the men on the train had armed themselves with knives in expectation of trouble. Despite the warning shouts of the crowd, about half the non-unionists left the train.

They were attacked with stones and clubs, and a hand-to-hand fight followed between them and the front ranks of the strikers. The non-unionists drew their knives and cut right and left among the strikers, injuring some 40 men severely. Strikers in the rear of the crowd meantime bombarded the train.

Will Call a Special Convention.

GENEVA, N. Y., Sep. 3.—At a meeting of the committee of representatives of the Congressional district comprising Wayne, Cayuga, Ontario, Yates and Cortland counties here it was decided to call a special Congressional convention in the near future, eleven delegates to be sent to the convention from each county.

Secretary Foster Coming to New York.

WASHINGTON, Sep. 3.—Secretary of the Treasury John W. Foster has left the city to be gone several days. He will reach New York on Monday, and will remain there until Wednesday.

TIMELY TOPICS.

What People Are Talking About These Times.

—Frost cannot come too soon to relieve the sufferers from hay fever of which there are an unusual number in town this year.

—The home of cholera is Hindoostan and for ages past it has been scattered to the four winds of the earth by the twelve-year pilgrimages to the great Hindoo temples. This is what caused the plague to move in cycles of twelve years each. Half a century ago it took the disease from two to three years to travel from Hindoostan across Europe and the United States to the Pacific coast, beyond which it has not gone on account of the small amount of traffic between this continent and China.

—Now that travel is so much more rapid and trade so general between this continent and the islands of the Pacific, the disease will not only make its tour in half the time, but may visit our western neighbors.

—Some people will not pay their honest debts unless compelled to do so by law, thereby adding interest and costs. To pay before being sued would be to miss all the fun.

—The 3 per cent. above the basis, which the coal companies will pay in this district, will be no higher next month, and in addition full time at the collieries ought to be the rule the balance of the year and through the winter.

—Clean your houses, see that the gutters along your street are leveled so the water runs off freely and does not stand in pools. Scrub brick pavements with a strong solution of some good disinfectant, air your collar, keep it clean and well disinfected. If it will do this the cholera will tarry with us but a short time.

—There is great activity in the electric railway circles. We would like to see several hundred men at work extending the tracks in town. It would mean thousands of dollars to the business men and a convenience to our people who would rather ride the tram through mud and slush this winter.

—Among those of our friends abroad, which the present national quarantine will work a hardship are Henry Widerhold and wife, Dr. J. C. Liddle and wife, J. C. P. well and wife, Max Schmidt and Prof. Zeltz. All, except Mr. Widerhold and wife, are about due at home.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions.

E. J. Hassan's "One of the Finest" will be the attraction at Ferguson's theatre this evening and much is promised and expected in the way of a grand scenic and comedy production. The piece has undergone some decided changes since it left Gus Williams' hands, and is considered now to be much stronger in a dramatic sense. More attention is paid to the plot and action and consequent situations, and less to the stalling of any particular member of the cast. In point of fact, under the new arrangement, the different characters are so evenly balanced, as to work that no one is given prominence over the others, and all harmonize to produce a good impression on the auditor. The specialty business, which is introduced with some regard to consistency, something rather out of the usual run, is all good, and some of the singing especially fine.

"Two Old Cronies"
"Two Old Cronies" is the name of an amusing farce-comedy which began a two-weeks' engagement at the Windsor theatre last evening. Messrs. E. M. Ryan and John Sheehan, two well known light comedians, impersonated The Two Cronies, the former in the make up of an eccentric German professor and the latter in the character of a light hearted and jovial Irishman. Besides these principal actors, there were a number of artists of more than ordinary ability who took part in the performance.—New York World. "Two Old Cronies" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre next Tuesday evening.

GREEN GOODS DUPES.

They Fall Into the Hands of New York Police.

On Wednesday last two men were arrested in New York city. They said they were Alexander Korbowsky, of No. 404 West Point street, Mahanoy City, and Michael O. Laimizak, of Audenroad, Carbon county, Pa. The latter said he was a watchmaker and he acted as spokesman. They admitted that they were after "green goods," and were taken to the station house. There they were searched. Laimizak had in his pocket a wallet stuffed with "green goods" material of the most approved kind. Korbowsky had a pocketful of cayenne pepper. In good money the men had $5. They also had return railroad tickets.

Laimizak said that five months ago George J. Mulesky, of Mount Carmel, had been in New York in response to "green goods" circulars. He returned after a few days and told Laimizak and Korbowsky, with whom he was acquainted, according to the story, that if they would go to New York they could have any money they could take away from the benevolent people, and in addition would receive $500 reward from the municipal government. What the result of Mulesky's visit was they do not say. At any rate Laimizak claimed that he and his friend on Tuesday morning met a man who introduced himself as Charles Ochs, at the Ocean House, Long Branch, where they had been directed by letter to go. Ochs accompanied them to New York and paid for their lodgings.

The next morning, Wednesday, Ochs took the two dupes to a restaurant and left them there, promising to return in ten minutes, and it was while waiting for him that the men were arrested. Laimizak said the plan to best the "green goods" people was to throw red pepper into their eyes the moment they displayed a roll of money. Then Korbowsky, who is a strapping big fellow, was to give them a good punching, while Laimizak was to call in the police and get the $500 reward.
