AN INTERESTING
POTTSVILLE LETTER

FROM AN INTELLIGENT AND RELIABLE REPORTER.

SOME JOURNALISTIC MISTAKES

The Policy and Professions of a County Seat Paper on the Judgeship Campaign—Getting Ready for Work.

Special Correspondence to the HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 7. HE "mistakes of Moses" is, or was, one of Robert G. Ingersoll's pet lectures. However much we may disagree with the celebrated lawyer and man of independent and free thinking ideas on certain subjects, we must agree he at least suggests to some of us comparisons, odious as they may be to many. After this campaign it may be in order, in view of certain recent published semi-"buds" which have appeared in the Miners' Journal for some lecturer to prepare and deliver himself on

THE MISTAKES OF AN ORGAN.

I recall the fact that the Journal is not for the whole Republican ticket this year and yet it delivered itself the other day of the following pro-ut thought: "The Republicans of Schuylkill county should remember that there are other offices to be filled besides a judgeship. There is a Congressman to be elected, and what is still more important to the people of this county, members of the Legislature. Don't let the right for judge draw attention from the other important offices to be filled, such as District Attorney, Director of the Poor, Coroner and the offices mentioned. Efforts should be made to make the whole ticket victorious, not a section of it."

The italicized sentence is my own. Every Republican knows that the Journal is not for the head of the county Republican ticket. In fact the fact is known to everybody who reads that the morning daily of town is opposed to the election of the Republican candidate for Judge on the county ticket, Richard H. Koch, Esq., and hence our remarks in this behalf and the gratuitous republication of the foregoing semi-editorial. The man who is favored for the position aspired to by Mr. Koch by the paper quoted from my exclamation, "SAVE ME FROM MY FRIENDS!"

if our morning contemporary continues to publish that sort of stuff. The attacks on Hon. W. F. Harry, Secretary of the Commonwealth, for being National Democratic Chairman, is another evidence that the advocate of the election of part of this county's Democratic ticket is making another mistake for which somebody

MAY CALL THEM DOWN.
If Mr. Harry should take a notion to enter into the judge fight in the county this fall, Mr. Harry is very strong with a large class of the very people who are expected to stand by the gentleman who is the Journal's candidate for judge.

It may be a mistake on our part to call attention to the mistakes of the opponents of the Republican county ticket, for the reason that they

MAY DESIST MAKING MISTAKES and that would hurt the ticket, but as a fair journalist your correspondent feels called upon to do so.

There is an analogy in the campaign just now and therefore little to worry anybody. The fight will be on for good in a week or two.

Among the men of prominence in town last week from Philadelphia were two prominent members of the Young Men's Republican Club of the 25th ward of that city, Mr. James McGurk and Mr. Sbalistaly. They were here on Sunday and entertained by John F. Cooney, at his residence and later at Tumbling Run.

Father Thomas Halsey, of Nebraska, was here on Sunday last and met many friends. He was formerly a resident of this town and the courtesies extended to him by his old time friends were generous in the extreme. He is one of the best men in the church which he honors.

The True Laxative Principle
Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Your Teeth.
If they need filling or extracting the best place to have it done is The Philadelphia Dental Rooms, 100 North Centre street, Pottsville, over Foster's shoe store. Gold fillings will cost you from $1.00 up; Silver, Cement, or Gutta Percha, 75 cents; Amalgam, 50 cents. A full set of the best teeth made, $8.00. Teeth extracted 25 cents. Without pain, by the use of Gas, Vapor or Vitalized Air, 50 cents. Our Vitalized Air has no equal; made fresh every day and perfectly harmless. 97-2w

WORK! WORK!

Good Men Wanted on the Electric Railway at Once.

The street railway company want to secure the services of ten or twelve good track foremen Men competent to handle and direct the large gangs of laborers who will be engaged upon the construction of their tracks from Mahanoy Plane to Ashland. Good men will receive good wages. Application may be made to Mr. V. H. Yarnall at Ferguson House Shenandoah, or Mr. W. S. Downey, Union House, Ashland, any evening this week after seven o'clock.

HERE AND THERE.

Interesting Items Concerning Different Sections of the Region.

SUNBURY man sued that borough for damages, alleging that he fell upon an icy pavement and broke his leg. Judge Connelly, of the Sunbury court, dismissed the case, saying that the man was foolish in walking on the pavement when he knew it was icy.

A farmer attending a circus at Shamokin on Friday dropped $155 at the three stall gate.

The Bear Valley School Board has set an example in the beginning of its term by arresting three boys for destroying school property.

One of Shamokin's latest novelties was a deaf mute picnic. An exchange soberly remarks that it was a quiet affair.

The collieries in the vicinity of Shamokin and Mt. Carmel will start on full time next Monday.

The contract for erecting the new Washington hall at Ashland has been awarded. The building will cost $9,480.

Tim Hurst has entered his running horse "Ashland" for the Orwigsburg races next week.

Evans & Co., coal operators at Beaver Meadow, were among the first in that region to adopt the semi-monthly pay system, as required by the law. This month, however, the superintendent, John D. Evans, notified the men that the company would go back to the old method and pay but once a month. This they say, is due to a large number of men who fail to go to work after pay day.

Greater attractions than ever at the Layella Fair. 97-8c

Brennan-Connor.

Miss Maggie Connor, of town, and James J. Brennan, formerly of town but now of Bluefield, West Virginia, were married in the Annunciation church at 6 o'clock last evening by Rev. Father Kane.

Miss Tessie Slattery, of town, and P. J. Kelly, of Bluefield, acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen. A reception was held in Ferguson's front hall during the evening and the couple were made the recipients of many costly and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Brennan left for Bluefield on the 2:08 P. & R. train this morning. Among the out of town people who attended the ceremony and reception were John McGinty and wife, Misses Katie Carroll and Annie and Katie Forber, of Tamaqua; Misses Mamie and Katie Maley, Mary Gorman, and Maggie and Katie McGinty, of Mahanoy City; Miss Belle Fannery, Minersville; Miss Williams, Port Carbon; Michael Crane and wife, Shamokin, and Mr. A. Moore, Philadelphia.

Hearing the Appeals.

The County Commissioners to-day met in Girardville to hear appeals from the triennial assessment. To-morrow they will meet in Ringtown and on Friday they will hold forth in Scheiffly's hotel in town to hear the appeals of property owners of this place and West Mahanoy township. The hearings on Friday promises to be lively. Several people claim they are victims of discrimination and say they will try to devise some means by which they may appeal to the courts in case the County Commissioners do not give them satisfaction.

The Fair of the Season.

The Lavelle fair this year promises to eclipse all former exhibitions. Some of the best trotting and running horses in the country have been entered, and a great deal of interest is being manifested in the races. Trained horses and dogs will give daily exhibitions, which all should see. There are no better fairs in the state than those held by the Mahanoy Valley Association at Lavelle. It opens on September 18th.

Help It Along.

Llanerch Yr Ewig Lodge, No. 41, True American Iovites, of town, is arranging to hold a concert in Ferguson's theatre on the 27th inst. It is hoped the public will be generous in its support of the affair as the receipts will go to the replenishment of the lodge's treasury, which sustained a loss of about $150 by reason of the heavy expenses attending the sixtedford held last Christmas.

Speaks for Itself.

Under the management of Edwin G. Maytum, general manager of the Pottsville Home M. A. Life Insurance Company, in the past two years 7,000 policies have been issued. In that brief period the company has paid over $,000 in claims. Mr. Maytum's management speaks for itself.

ATTENTION TURNED TO COURT

Constable Boland's Returns to Court Sustains the "Herald's" Articles on Town Morals. Electric Changes.

WHEN the HERALD several days ago stated that a publication of some of the reports made to it would make the hair stand upon the heads of some of our unsuspecting people, the SNews attributed the statement to a religious stroke on the part of the editor. Yesterday Constable Boland reported to court at Pottsville five l. and b. cases from the Fifth ward. The particulars of some of the cases would astonish even our irreligious contemporary and the indications are that some startling facts will be brought to light when one of the cases is ventilated in court.

I know of several well known men who are now wishing they had had a religious spell before a woman exposed their little game a few nights ago, and one of the party who chides the HERALD editor for his hints on the immoralities of the town happens to be an important witness in the case.

I see that John Judge, a notorious resident of Lost Creek who was the victim in a shooting case on West Coal street about two years ago, is under the protecting wing of the law again. He pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery preferred by his brother and has been sent to the county jail for 90 days.

Fred V. Henssberger, the hustling manager of Scheider's restaurant at the corner of White and Centre streets, returned from Mahanoy City yesterday. Fred, spent Labor Day in that town, helping his brother-in-law to handle a big refreshment business. "I never in all my life," said he yesterday, when talking of the events of the day, "was kept so busy trying to check dead beats. I had charge of the dining room and it seemed to me that dead beat would put in an appearance about every fifteen minutes. During the afternoon two respectably dressed fellows came in and called for sandwiches and coffee. I filled their order. When my back was turned the men walked out. I followed them. 'Didn't you forget your change?' I asked as I stopped them. 'No,' said one of them. 'Didn't you forget something?' I then asked. 'No,' they said. Seeing they would not take the bait I said, 'You have forgotten to pay for the sandwiches and coffee.' Well, to see those two fellows stand there and for the sake of fifteen cents swear that they paid me was one of the biggest pieces of gall I ever witnessed. But the worse trick of the day was played on me by a young blood. He came in and called for two sandwiches. I got them. Then he asked for a beer. I went into the saloon for it and when I returned the blood and sandwiches had gone. I tell you, Mahanoy City is an old fashioned town."

Harry Hall, who was convicted at the last term of court of having attempted to burn down his photograph gallery in this town, seems destined to serve time in the county jail. The court at Pottsville yesterday denied the motion made by his attorneys for a new trial.

The newspapers of the county are devoting considerable space to speculation on the effect the formation of the new electric railway company will have upon the M. C. S. G. & A. electric railway. Some of the papers have announced that the latter company has been swallowed by the new syndicate and that Judge Sadler has retired from the presidency. Eleven out of every dozen reports on the matter are wide of the mark. Judge Sadler has not retired and the M. C. S. G. & A. railway remains as it was, with all the promoters still interested. The new company is a syndicate of several prominent Philadelphia and Ohio capitalists who propose to furnish capital, material and power for electric railway projects in the county. The railway now in operation is not a part of the syndicate. Of course it is possible that when the syndicate secures its charter and gets in shape for business it will purchase the road now in operation. But that road is to-day in the hands of the Sadler company.

The Place to Go.

Shenandoah people visiting the county seat (surnamed Pottsville) all call in the Academy Restaurant. Either J. F. Cooney, the proprietor, greets you with a smile, or his genial brother, M. A. Cooney, welcomes you. It is the resort for all gentlemen from north of the mountain. 8-24-1f

SHORT AND SHARP.

Items Intended for Those Having Little Leisure to Read.

Flies are as plenty as ever. Full time at the collieries after this week. Shall Shenandoah have a soldiers' monument?

The demand for coal all along the line is strong. Get in plenty of wood and coal before it gets too cold.

Shenandoah is furnishing her share of cases at court.

Farmers are already fattening poultry for Thanksgiving Day.

A hint to Manager Ferguson—give us the "Old Homestead."

The Reading "combine" ought to have better depot facilities in town.

A mild winter is predicted, but then predictions don't always count.

You should read Governor Pattison's proclamation and follow his advice.

If you want to vote this year you will have to get registered to-day. See to it.

TIMELY TOPICS.

What People Are Talking About These Times.

GOV. PATTISON'S timely sanitary proclamation ought, surely, receive prompt attention from the borough authorities. Shenandoah can be made as clean as any town and it only remains for the authorities to make a start. Citizens knowing that nuisances exist in their neighborhood should report the same to the Burgess without delay. Delays are often dangerous.

When one is in a hurry, due, for example, to business of vital importance, death or response to a notification of an unexpected inheritance, the ocean flyers, the time annihilating "monsters of the deep," or whatever else they are called, are a convenience, if not a blessing. But the ordinary traveler for pleasure, or not pressing business, must have found out ere this that slower steamships afford greater comfort, more satisfaction and enjoyment. True, there is not the great excitement, the gambling and the other features incident to "greyhound" experience, but one can cheerfully forego these things for comfort and safety. Some one has said, too—it may have been Haliburton—that "hurry is only admissible in catching flies."

The subject of drainage is uppermost of every practical man's thoughts. Money spent on a good drainage system would be well spent and a movement of this kind would soon become popular. For the health of our people it is necessary, now, more than ever. Perhaps it will be postponed until many deaths occur before some of our old fogies see the necessity.

One of the ailments of town is noteworthy for the extraordinary amount of slops and decayed vegetable matter that covers the road way. Sufficient arguments have been made to convince people of the disease breeding qualities of such filth, but as men people's craniums seem so thick that the arguments could not be driven into them with a sledge hammer.

The next soldiers' monument should be located in Shenandoah. Pottsville, Mahanoy City, Tamaqua, and St. Clair have one each and Shenandoah, the largest town of the county, should be next in line. If it is to be done at all, the sooner the work of raising the money for the purpose is commenced, the better, and when a start is made, let there be no mistake by putting it up in an out-of-the-way place.

It was bad policy to erect the Mahanoy City soldiers' monument in the cemetery away up on the mountain. Such monuments should be erected in the town. This view is concurred in by two prominent gentlemen of town who are willing to contribute liberally to a soldiers' monument fund, providing a site for its erection be selected in town.

"Down in the Coal Mine," a song, very popular in its day, is seldom heard now. It is acted every day, all the same, by those "digging dusky diamonds," who may not see the light of day again, "underneath the ground." City people, who grumble because the price of the "dusky" article has been put up a peg, have no idea of the danger and hard work the poor miner has to contend with to earn the pittance doled out to him every two weeks. Advance in coal rates means better wages for the miner.

It will soon be time for chestnutting. The boys and girls (and many of the older people, too,) are awaiting the arrival of "Jack Frost" before making a charge to the woods. The chestnut crop, it is expected, will be large this year, and consequently the nuts ought to be cheap.

Considerable has been said in town the past two days concerning "The Lion and the Lamb." The talk was precipitated by Superintendent Freeman, who, upon seeing John F. Finney and A. B. Lamb seated in one carriage in the Mahanoy City parade declared that "The Lion and the Lamb" were in one fold again. This explanation is made for the benefit of a number of people who fail to understand why the old fable is being referred to so frequently.

Gun Clubs to Shoot.

A number of marksmen of town have formed an organization to be known as the Shenandoah Gun Club and on Friday next will go to Hamilton to shoot a match with the gun club of that place for a supper. Pigeons will be shot at.

Lane's Family Medicine
