What it Means.

You often see it—"State of Pennsylvania, County of Schuylkill, ss." It is to be found at the beginning of acknowledgments and other legal documents, but not one in a dozen can tell you what that cabalistic "ss." is for. To be short and to the point, the abbreviation is a contraction of the Latin word "scilicet," which is also a contraction, having originally been written as "sacra leate," neither of which, you will note, has more than one "s." The word entire or in its abbreviated state is equivalent to the old English "to wit," still widely used, the design of both being simply to call particular attention to what follows.

His weight is 280 lbs.

A new book "Utah, a Peep into a Mountain Walled Treasury of the Gods," is now issued and can be had postpaid by sending 25 cents to J. H. Bennett, Salt Lake City. It is expected that the Knights Templar and others visiting Colorado the coming season will extend their trip to Utah, via the Rio Grande Western Railroad in both directions. That road affords choice of three distinct routes and the most magnificent scenery in the world. Equipment unequalled in the West. Two trains daily across the continent.

VETERANS AT WASHINGTON.

Very Low Fares via Reading Railroad System.

The 26th National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, at Washington, D. C., will undoubtedly witness a greater gathering of the Union soldiers of the civil war than any that has taken place since the grand review of the returning hosts in the capital at the close of the rebellion. It will be an occasion of intense interest, and to facilitate the attendance of the great numbers who will desire to go, the Reading Railroad, in conjunction with the B. & O. R. R., will sell Special Excursion Tickets at the low price of $4.00 for the round trip, from all stations south of and including Shamokin. From Su bury the rate will be $5.12; Lewisburg, $5.70; Milton, $5.72; Danville, $5.71; Muncy, $5.17, and Williamsport, $5.54, with proportionate reductions from the intermediate stations.

These tickets will be on sale at Reading Railroad ticket offices from September 18th to 20th, and will be good to return until October 10th, 1892, inclusive. Not only G. A. R. men, but the general public, as well, may take advantage of this very liberal arrangement to witness the immense procession of the veteran soldiers and see the many interesting sights of Washington.

Mr. V. D. Losses a S.

Councilman Van Dusen last night bet a whole dollar that the HERALD lied when it stated in last night's issue that Councilman Betheridge stated yesterday afternoon that he did not know anything about the electric railway injunction. Mr. Alex. Strouse was present and heard Mr. Betheridge make the statement to the HERALD reporter, so it is now Mr. Van Dusen's place to instruct the stakeholder to hand the stakes over to the winner. For Mr. Van Dusen's sake we hope he will be more careful before he casts the die again.

Notice to Taxpayers.

Notice is hereby given that all delinquent 1891 taxpayers must pay the undesignated amount. The School Board and Borough Council are in need of money and are forcing the undesignated to make his collections and returns, hence it will become necessary to resort to extreme measures against delinquents who fail to respond to this notice. JOHN F. HIGGINS, Receiver of Taxes.

Mr. Dougherty was formerly a resident of this town, but of late years has been a traveling salesman for a large wholesale shoe firm of Philadelphia and was one of the most popular men on the road. He was exceedingly popular throughout this region and the news of his death was received here with deep regret.

Lane's Family Medicine

Origin of a Popular Saying.

According to the historian Hume the prince of Orange, afterward king of England, is responsible for the proverbial expression about "dying in the last ditch." When Holland was so beleaguered by her enemies that the salvation of the country from annihilation seemed impossible the duke of Buckingham remonstrated with William on his course and asked him to change it, alleging that the country was on the verge of ruin. "There is one means," the prince answered, "by which I can be sure not to see my country's ruin. I will die in the last ditch."

A Natural Conclusion.

At the new home for fresh air children at Ridgewood, N. J., the rector of Christ church of that village was addressing the children. He told them how sin tended to mar all that was good, and held before them the illustration of the blossom in its blight and the young fruit in its disfigurement caused by the worm that seized upon them before they matured. "So sin enters the heart and defiles it," he said. Then, after a moment, added: "Now, boys, what is sin?" "Worms!" came back the answer from his juvenile audience.
