THREE HARVEST EXCURSIONS Half Rates via the Illinois Central Aug. 30, Sept. 27 and Oct. 25th, 1892.

The Central Route will sell excursion tickets to the Agricultural Regions of the West, South west and South, at one fare for the round trip from stations on its lines north of Cairo, on August 20th and September 27th. A third excursion will be run to the South and Southwest on October 25th. Your local ticket agent will give you full particulars in regard to these Harvest Excursions; arrangements can also be made in this connection to visit the desirable Railroad Lands for sale by the Illinois Central in Southern Illinois on obtaining special per-mission to do so by addressing the Company's Land Commissioner at Chicago, Mr. E. P. Bisene. In addition, a few weeks before the first excursion date, your local ticket agent will be able to furnish you with a special Polder, issued by the Illinois Central, which will give you particulars of these Harvest Excursions such form as will enable you to plan your journey at home. Should you not be within call of a railroad ticket agent, address A. H. Hanson, G. P. A., Illinois Central R. R., Chien go, Ill. 845

The Distinguished Champion of Protection Addresses a Large Meetident "Jack" Robinson Chats About the Club League's Coming State

[Special Correspondence.]

PHILADELPHIA, September 21. Radical changes having been made in the form of the official ballot under the new election law, as the result of Republican State Chairman Reeder's objections to the ballot originally prepared, the in structions to voters could not be sent fout this week from the state headquarters. A sample ballot has just been received from the office of the secretary of the commonwealth and revised proofs of the instructions have been sent to the printers. Copies will be ready for distribution before the end of the week.

Attorney General Hensel quickly saw the force of General Reeder's criticism of the sample ballot that had been sent out through the state and declared the form to be contrary to the requirements of the Chairman Reeder Satisfied.

"My only purpose in raising a question as to the correctness of the form of the bal-lot first submitted," said Chairman Region this afternoon, "was to avoid possible complications after the election. There was no thought on my part of gaining any par-tisan advantage by a change in the ballot. I desired to know if the form prepared was strictly in accordance with the provisions of the act, and if it was not to get a ballot

"Our party has too much at stake to permit any doubt in this matter. To have an adverse decision in the courts on a question of legality of the ballot after the election might mean serious loss to the Republican party, possibly a doubt as to the election of our electoral ticket."

Maine Teaches a Lesson. The large falling off in comparison with previous years in the total vote in the re-cent election in Maine, where the Austra-lian ballot system was tried for the first time, has impressed the Republican leaders here with the fact that extraordinary ef forts will have to be made in this state at the coming election to get the party vote to the polls.

Many citizens will, it is thought, be loth to show their ignorance of the new method of voting at the first election.
