THE COMING TRIALS.

It is quite probable that the cases of the County Commissioners and others connected with the indictments recently handed down by the Grand Jury will be ready for trial in November. The cases are exciting much interest and we are sorry to see that some people have taken the indictments as the result of a trial and conviction of the accused. People who are laboring under this impression should rid their minds of it. The proceedings before a grand jury are of an ex parte character. The indictments are not based upon a hearing of both sides of the story, but upon a state of facts as presented by the Commonwealth, hence the County Commissioners should not be adjudged guilty at the present time. When the cases are tried, both sides are heard, and all the facts are laid before a jury the Commissioners may succeed in showing the people of the county that they are not as black as painted. We hope they will. Messrs. Bowes, De-Turk, Reed and Meyer have heretofore enjoyed reputations which have been considered above reproach and we have reason to believe that to-day, notwithstanding the indictments, the people who believe that any mistakes they may have made were preceded by illegal money transactions are very few. There is a general hope that the Commissioners, for their own sake and for the preservation of Schuykill's honored name, will be able to show that they were not guilty of any crime or misdemeanor. At all event, wait until the trials of the accused are ended before passing judgment.

COLORED HELP.

The New York Sun has the following article on the dear city of foreign help: We are informed that, since the supply of domestic help from Europe has been stopped, an unusual number of colored domestics are coming here from the Southern states, especially from Virginia and the Carolinas. If our ports are closed against immigrants for a good while, and if immigration be hereafter restricted, we may expect here thousands of colored young women ready for household service as cooks, chambermaids, laundresses, nursery maids, waitresses, and maids of all work. They can make bigger wages in New York and other places up North than they have been in the habit of getting down South, and there are other things here which are fully as attractive to colored folks as to white folks. Some of our intelligence offices have already sent agents south of the Potomac.

In old times the wealthy families of Virginia, South Carolina and other

Southern states got first-class service from their colored servants, who were then slaves. The cooking in or near Richmond, and of many others in or near Columbia or Charleston, used to be tip-top and tempting, different from the French, but possessed of virtues not known in the cafes of Paris, not in the Cafe Bignon, or Cafe Vefour, or Cafe Riche, or even the old time Cafe Voltaire and other notables used to enjoy the succulent and piquant dishes from the cuisine. The Columbia banquets that used to be served every day in the mansions of the Hamiltons and the Prestons—why, the antique gods, now silent in limbo, would, in the days of their glory, have smiled at the sight of them, smiled again at the smoke of them, and smiled steadily all over the frontispiece, cheek by jowl while taking them in. A gastronome who does not know the best Carolina and Virginia cookery has something to learn.

Then the colored housemaids in the South used to be well-mannered, cleanly, tidy, careful and faithful. We hope they are so yet. The colored nurses knew how to tend a baby, and the colored laundresses knew how to wash things. We trust they have not lost any of their competence in these lines.

The people of New York and other places who need domestic help are seeking for colored help, now that the supply of white help from Europe is cut off. The news has reached the Southern states.

THE CELESTIALS OBJECT.

A Circular to the Public Denouncing the Geary Law. New York, Sep. 26.—The Chinese Civil Rights League, which has offices in the Bible House in this city, has issued an address to the American public in regard to the Geary registration law, which is declared cruel and degrading to the Chinese in America. The address states that there are more than 100,000 Chinese now living in this country, having come here precisely as other foreigners have come, in accordance with the laws of the United States. They believed this was a land of freedom and came here and were admitted. They have made their homes here and most of them desire to live here, and the majority are sober, industrious, law-abiding peaceful men. The circular says: "America says that no more Chinese laborers shall come here. We do not quarrel with that. You have the right to say who shall come. But we have lived with you for years and have obeyed your laws. Now you say to us to obey a new law which applies to none of the hundreds of thousands of other aliens here. We do not think this is right." Support is asked in the effort of the League to have the Geary law repealed. It is stated that the Chinese do not wish to defy it; neither do they wish to submit to a law that every American would call degrading if applied to him.

Growing More Liberal

That's what the human race is doing—particularly the American part of it. There are a few left who are satisfied with ancient history. But most people are ready to apply modern progress and common-sense to the treatment of the human stomach—an organ that demands its rights whether or no; that resents the insults of worn-out methods. All this is to emphasize the facts about

COTTOLENE

There was once a prejudice against Cottonseed oil. But people who are alive, who investigate, who have no bigotry in their composition, have found that pure, refined cottonseed oil combined with selected beef suet is a better article in every conceivable way than hog's lard. And so they wisely use it for cooking—and are correspondingly healthy and happy. The sales of COTTOLENE are enormous and constantly increasing; a proof that it is appreciated by appreciative persons.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

Approaching Meeting of the U. S. Supreme Court. MRS. HARRISON ABOUT THE SAME

There Seems to Be Little Change in Her Condition—Removal of Consul Johnson From His Post at Kiel—Judge Lamar Not Stricken With Paralysis.

WASHINGTON, Sep. 26.—There will be a quorum of the Supreme Court present at its approaching meeting on the 10th of October, although there are now only four of the nine judges in the city—Justices Field, Lamar, Brewer and Brown. Chief Justice Fuller is expected back this week, Justice Gray also, and Justice Harlan will try to get here before the court settles down to serious business, unless he seems before him a hopeless prospect of being quarantined.

Judge Harlan himself, according to letters received here, was to have arrived in Paris yesterday, and if he can see his way clear to getting across the ocean without running too much risk of detention, will try and be in Washington soon to ensure a full meeting of the court when the important case of the Chicago Lake Front comes up under special assignment for hearing Oct. 17. Two of the other judges will be disqualified from passing upon this case, which is one of immense importance, involving many millions of dollars.

The parties in interest are the city of Chicago, the State of Illinois and the Illinois Central Railroad Company, and they are contending for the title to the lake front in Chicago.

Chief Justice Fuller is expected, because of his having been of counsel in the case before his appointment to the Supreme Court. Justice Blatchford is also disqualified because he owns stock either in the Illinois Central or some other interest affected by the litigation.

This case will really be the first business of importance to come before the court.

Justice Shiras, appointed to succeed Justice Bradley, deceased, and who has just taken the oath of office, has intimated that he will appear and do so at the first meeting of the court.

MRS. HARRISON NO WORSE.

The Possible Complications Which Keep Her Family Anxious. WASHINGTON, Sep. 26.—Reports from the White House say that Mrs. Harrison passed a somewhat restless night, but is apparently no worse this morning.

Practically there has been little change in her condition since she came here, and what there is would seem to imply rather favorable symptoms than otherwise. So far as can be learned no serious change is anticipated just at present. So long as she takes as much nourishment as at present she can withstand the progress of the ordinary advance of the disease. It is the complications likely to arise at any moment that now keep her family anxious.

Disquieting rumors as to Mrs. Harrison's condition get about every day and at once manifest themselves by the mess sages of inquiry at the White House. Yesterday to all comers the family gave encouraging statements. Dr. Gardner makes an early morning and a late evening call now. He had reassuring answers to give those who asked about his patient this morning.

Mrs. Harrison has shown a decided craving for food the last two days and has been permitted to eat just about anything she called for. She has had, also, up to last night, a great deal of sleep.

REMOVAL OF CONSUL JOHNSON.

He Was Guilty of Fraudulent Practices as Our Representative at Kiel. WASHINGTON, Sep. 26.—Edward Johnson has been removed from the Consulate at Kiel, Germany, for false representation as to his military services and for fraudulent practices as Consul. The case has been under investigation by Secretary of State Foster for the past month, and definite action has at last been taken.

Mr. Johnson was first appointed to the consular service in 1872, has at various times undergone investigation, and was once removed, but soon afterwards re-entered the service and has maintained his position upon the representation that he was repeatedly wounded at various battles during the civil war and was thereby greatly impaired in health.

Recent charges as to his accounts and official conduct led to an investigation of his military record, which showed that his army record was bad, that he was not in the service at the time and did not participate in the battles as alleged, and that the claim made as to his wounds was unfounded.

Postmaster Conklin Feels Bound to Protect Himself. NEWARK, N. J., Sep. 26.—Postmaster E. Conklin is interested in a suit in the Circuit Court before Judge Dupue against the bondsmen of Casper Soer last May.

Soer was the registry clerk in the post-office and stole $4,400 from the department. He is now serving a term in the penitentiary for that offense. His bondsmen were Thomas Atchinson, the Central avenue pork packer, and John Tobin, an expressman. The bond was $5,000.

Judge Dupue appointed H. C. Adams as a referee to consider whether the bondsmen should be released or not. Referee Adams decided in favor of Postmaster Conklin to continue the bond. Soer's attorney took exception to the referee's report, and the case will be tried in the Circuit Court before a jury to-day.

Sullivan's New Comic Opera. LONDON, Sep. 26.—Grundy and Sullivan's comic opera, "Haddon Hall," was produced Saturday evening for the first time. It is a capital piece of work and was received with enthusiastic approval.

Sir Arthur Sullivan was called out and he made a short speech of acknowledgment. The Duke of Edinburgh and a crowd from the smart set of London society were present.

Had No Work, So Killed Himself. AVONDALE, N. Y., Sep. 26.—John Patty committed suicide last evening by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. The deceased was a scythe maker, 40 years of age, and in comfortable circumstances. He had been out of work a long time and it is believed that the constant brooding over that fact caused the rash act.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Princes von Puttkamer, Prince Bismarck's nephew, has joined the Salvation Army.

A terrific thunder storm did much damage in and about Wilmington, Del., yesterday.

The time and place of meeting of the International Monetary Conference are yet uncertain.

Hill & Wood's morocco factory at Mascher & Jefferson streets, Philadelphia, was gutted by fire yesterday. Loss, $50,000.

Because the naturalizations in Philadelphia have become too rigorous hundreds of foreigners are going to adjacent counties to secure their papers.

R. H. Treat of Jersey City committed suicide in New York yesterday because he had been accused of assault upon little girls. He was 65 years old.

Judge A. Pratt Adams, one of Georgia's most eminent jurists and public men, is dead at Savannah. He was the special counsel for the Central Railroad.

The Board of Health has spread consternation in the old section of Philadelphia by ordering that every well must be filled up and abandoned. Some of the famous old pumps will have to go.

The health authorities of Philadelphia have been notified from New York that ten of the immigrants from the steamer Normannia have arrived in that city and will keep a sharp eye on them.

The quarantine for the suppression of pleuro-pneumonia among the cattle in Kings and Queens counties, N. Y., and Essex and Hudson counties, N. J., will be removed to-day by Special Risk.

John Cavanaugh of Main street, Bridgeport Conn., was descending a stairway yesterday morning carrying a lighted lamp, when he slipped and fell. The oil lamp and he were terribly burned. His wife went to his rescue and met the same fate. It is thought both will die.

JUSTICE LAMAR NOT ILL. WASHINGTON, Sep. 26.—An unfounded rumor sent from Lebanon, N. H., that Judge Lamar of the Supreme Court, had been stricken with paralysis at the Highland House there, has caused a painful sensation among the judge's friends in Washington.

Apparently the rumor had its rise in a dispatch sent to Mrs. Lamar at Lebanon on Wednesday last stating that the judge was ill in Washington. Judge Lamar was seen by a reporter this morning seated in his library at his residence and was found to be without symptoms of paralysis and anticipating no difficulty in taking his seat on the Supreme Bench when the court resumes its session.
