LIVELY COUNCIL MEETING LAST NIGHT
OVER THE PROPOSED ELECTRIC RAILWAY EXTENSION
NOTHING DEFINITE SETTLED

And the Work Still Remains Halted Under the Injunction. To Meet Again Thursday Night—Street Paving.

COUNCILMEN discussed the electric railway question for over two hours last night and finally adjourned without accomplishing anything. The meeting was a special one called for the purpose of taking action on an understanding the street committee had with the railway company, but the point was raised that as the Schuylkill Traction Company had not received its charter an understanding could not be had with it.

All the Councilmen were present and a very lively meeting it proved to be. Messrs. Coakley, McGuire and Gable crossed swords with Messrs. Lamb, Bolderidge and VanDusen on several points and at times it seemed the discussions would continue until midnight.

Mr. VanDusen, of the street committee, was the first to take the floor. He said the committee had consulted with the railway company, or rather the officials of the proposed Schuylkill Traction Company, and they had agreed to extend the railway down Main street to Cherry, putting in stringers and paving, and had also agreed to replace the track now on Main street with stringers and paving.

Mr. Stout said the committee had hard work to get the officials to agree to extend the road two squares. They only wanted to run it to Oak street.

Mr. Coakley said, "We have been having a great deal of trouble right along with this matter. These parties are now in existence and as we have always been anxious to have the representatives of the company before us they ought to be here to night."

Mr. Devers objected to any connection with the old part of the railway which runs to Centre street without first having that part paved. Mr. McGuire thought likewise.

Mr. Holman said he understood the street committee was empowered at the last Council meeting to make an agreement with the railway company so that the road would go ahead and he did not see why it should be brought back to Council.

Answer was made that the officials of the proposed new company would not agree to go down Centre street, as provided by the instructions of the last Council meeting.

Mr. Lamb said Council had no power to stop the railway if the officials were willing to comply with the ordinance.

Mr. Hopkins said the committee had done its work. It had consulted with the company and found it willing to live up to the ordinance.

So the discussion went on until Mr. McGuire made a motion that Council adhere to the resolution passed at its last meeting, i. e., that the company go to the end of the trolley on Main street, go down East Centre street, and pay the injunction costs.

Solicitor Pomeroy said Council had no right to dictate where the road should go, but that the company would forfeit such rights of way which would not be worked by next February.

Mr. McGuire said, "We only ask for what Mr. Lamb and others here have asked for in the past—to hold them where they are until they pave up to Centre street."

Mr. Lamb retorted, "That was never the understanding. We stopped them there until they would pave from that point."

Then Mr. Gable jumped up and said, "Mr. Lamb is wrong. I think I made the motion to serve the injunction until such time as they paved the amount of road already laid in the borough and they have failed to do so."

but the latter insisted that he was ignorant of the proceedings.

A remark by Mr. Coakley intimating that Mr. Lamb was changing his base on the railway question precipitated a discussion that brought both gentlemen to their feet and caused them to exchange dagger glances, but they cooled down.

Several motions and amendments were made, but none seemed to suit until Mr. Coakley got in a motion that when Council adjourn it adjourn to meet on Thursday evening, by which time it is expected the Schuylkill Traction Company will have its charter and be in a position to deal legally with Council. This motion was carried.

The injunction meanwhile will remain in status quo.

STREET PAVING.
The above matter next claimed the attention of Council. Thomas Grant was on hand with a sample of the granite blocks he proposes using if he receives the contracts for street paving.

Ex-Senator Watson said he had been authorized to request Council to co-operate with the property owners on South Main street, between Oak and Cherry, in street paving. He presented a petition bearing signatures representing the ownership of 685 feet of the 600 feet of property on the square. He assured Council that the consent of Mrs. Holden, owner of the remaining 15 feet, would be secured. Only 400 feet, two-thirds, was required to warrant Council in taking action.

T. J. Higgins wanted to know what arrangements would be made for pro rata shares so far as the electric railway is concerned.

Chairman James said he supposed the 8 feet to be paved by the electric railway along its tracks would be first deducted, and that the property owners would stand two-thirds of the balance and Council one-third.

The petition presented by Mr. Watson was referred to the law committee and solicitor with instructions to learn if the signers of the petition are the owners of the properties; and with the instruction that if everything is found correct an ordinance authorizing the paving of the square be prepared.

A petition from property owners on the Main street square between Centre and Oak streets was next presented and Council took the same action in it that it did with the other.

THE PROPOSED NEW STREETS

WHAT PAVING MEANS TO THE PEOPLE

NO MORE FINANCIAL DRAINS
Upon the Borough for Useless Street Work—Description of the Proposed Main Street Paving.

THE present time is suitable to let the people know how the two squares on Main street below Centre are to be paved, in case Council acts favorably upon the petitions presented last night and the investigations regarding the petitions prove likewise.

The specifications for the work are now in the hands of the property owners and Council committee.

The material will consist of New England granite quarried at Cape Ann, Mass. The blocks will be from 5 to 7 inches in depth, 3 to 5 inches in width and 8 to 12 inches in length. The space over which the pavement is to be laid will be excavated to the depth of 12 inches below the top line of the proposed pavement. Any objectionable material below the bed will be removed and the space filled with clean gravel or sand. All holes or inequalities will be filled with sand or gravel, such filling to be thoroughly compacted by rolling or ramming. Upon this foundation is to be laid a bed of broken stone or cinder, which is to be taken from the excavation of the streets to be paved and run over a 7-inch screener, this lying of stone or cinder is to be thoroughly rolled with a five ton roller; upon this will be laid a bed of fine bank gravel, to be screened from all pebbles measuring more than 12 inches in their largest dimensions, or sufficient thickness to serve as a bed for the blocks and being them to the finished grade of the street when rammed. The blocks are to be set vertically on edge and laid at right angles with the line of the street, with such crown as the Borough Surveyor may direct. When the blocks are laid they will be immediately covered with clean, fine sand, entirely free from any loam or earthy matter, and perfectly dry. The blocks will then be carefully rammed, which will be continued until the blocks reach a firm, unyielding bed and present a uniform surface, with proper grade and crown. When the ramming is complete a sufficient amount of fine, dry sand will be spread over the surface and swept or raked into the joints.

Eruption of the Skin Cured.
Ed. Venney, Brockville, Ontario, Canada, says: "I have used Brandt's Pills for the past fifteen years, and think them the best cathartic and anti-bilious remedy known. For some five years I suffered with an eruption of the skin that gave me great pain and annoyance. I tried different blood remedies, but, although gaining strength, the itching was unrelieved. I finally concluded to take a thorough course of Brandt's Pills. I took six each night for four nights, then five, four, three two, lessening each time by one, and then for one month took one every night with the happy result that now my skin is perfectly clear and has been so ever since."

"Under the Lion's Paw."
The heaviest melodrama ever seen here will be presented by George Peck's Company at Ferguson's theatre to-morrow evening "Under the Lion's Paw" is a strictly American play the first act laid at Long Branch. The third and fourth acts are entirely new, taking place in the interior of a mammoth menagerie tent, introducing Col. R. D. Bone and Milli Carlo and their seven Nubian Lions and their steel-ribbed cage 20 feet in diameter 11 feet high and weighing 6,000 pounds. A very pleasing feature is the famous Niagara Quartette in a choice selection of songs, glee and choruses.

THE NOTE BOOK.
Some of the Topics That People are Talking About To-day.

A new arrival in town yesterday was a Hungarian who was one of the passengers on the steamer "Normania" and spent twenty days in quarantine at New York. He carried with him a certificate of good health and looked as neat and clean as a new article from a brico-a-brac shop. His clothing was of American make, but his shoes were of the old country pattern.

Assistant Postmaster Dangler has gone to Pottsville to visit friends. He will be absent until Friday and after fishing for a day or two intends to pay a flying visit to the state of New York to see which way the presidential wind is blowing. His return is anxiously awaited, as he is a wonderful prognosticator.

The Dornisfe case has created many expressions of indignation and some people have said that the accused was mighty lucky in escaping lynching. Dornisfe's "luck" is creditable to the town, for the days of lynching are past in civilized communities. There have been many cases of lynching in which the victims have been shown innocent after they have been placed in their graves. The charges against Dornisfe are most astounding, but only part of the story has been told and when all the facts are told on the trial perhaps the keen edge may be taken off. Notwithstanding the statement of the prosecution that it has more evidence in reserve than has been made public, Dornisfe has some friends in town who have implicit faith in the man and openly declare that they believe him innocent. They claim that he is a victim of a conspiracy and that his prosecution is simply the following of attempted blackmail. Whether Dornisfe is guilty or not guilty he has met the terrible charges with remarkable self-possession. He will talk to no one but his counsel about the case. As one of his friends said, "he is a shrewd man."

The writer met a member of the Humane Fire Company of Pottsville yesterday and found him very much worked up over the report that the company tried to get the Grand Band from the Columbia Hose Company for the parade at Hazelton and did not parade because it could not get it. The gentleman making the denial of the report says that if any request for the Grand Band was made it was not authorized by the Humane company. That the marshal asked the company to parade, but was told that the members would not be in line because they had no band and that their engine and carriage would be taken in the parade by another company. The failure to parade, the informant emphasized, was not because it could not get the Grand Band, but because the band it expected to get in Pottsville would not run the risk of having its uniforms spoiled by the rain. He made the statement to show that no ill-feeling should exist between the Columbia and Humane companies.

It has been suggested that some of our church choirs, or all of them, if practically rehearse "Pinafore" or some other clean, comic opera produce it some time this winter, and turn the proceeds over to the soldiers' monument fund. The suggestion is a good one and should be acted upon. We have plenty talent and ample facilities for staging the opera in Ferguson's theatre.

A town out West no larger than our own recently unveiled a soldiers' monument costing over $200,000. Mahanoy City's monument cost only $1,900. Shenandoah should be able to raise a much larger amount than that.

The presence of our former townsman, Theodore Wiederhold, last week, reminded the writer of the time when it was almost worth one's life to proclaim himself a Republican in this "cock of the woods." That was in the early '70s. Mr. Wiederhold was then, as he always has been, a radical Republican. Colorado, he says, will go Republican this year, without a doubt, there being too many old soldiers in that state who are not taking any Cleveland in their's.

PRINCIPAL POINT.
Electric Railway Change.
Hereafter the electric railway cars will save the corner of Main and Centre streets at 5:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes hereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave.

A Mean Act.
A little boy was observed going along Centre street this morning, crying. He was in working clothes. When asked the cause of his distress he said that while on his way over the mountain to work at Boston Run colliery, this morning, three tramps stopped him and took all but one slice of bread from his can. The tramps returned the can and started the boy off again, and he returned home.
