THE BATTLE WILL OPEN TUESDAY

GRAND DEMONSTRATION AT ROBBINS' OPERA HOUSE.

PROTECTION AND RECIPROCIITY

General Daniel H. Hastings and Hon. C. N. Brumm Will be Among the Speakers—A Campaign of Education.

THE Republican campaign will be formally opened in town on Tuesday evening next, when a grand demonstration will be held in Robbins' opera house. This meeting will be addressed by Hon. Daniel H. Hastings, Hon. C. N. Brumm and others, and it is proposed to make it one of the most important Republican gatherings ever held in the town.

The meetings thus far held in the county have been of the most enthusiastic and encouraging character and the attendances have been very large. The meetings held at Pottsville and Mahanoy City were particularly successful.

GENL. D. H. HASTINGS. The people of town should not fail to attend the meeting in Robbins' opera house next Tuesday evening. This campaign is one of education and every taxpayer and voter should not let a lesson slip.

Protection and reciprocity is the cry. The people who understand the system of wild cat banks do not want such institutions. People who do not clearly understand what wild cat banks are should not fail to attend the meeting next Tuesday evening.

If any voter is doubtful about the true issues of the present campaign, let him attend this meeting and hear the principles of protection and reciprocity clearly explained.

County Chairman Davis is conducting an excellent campaign and he declares that the outlook is more promising than it has been for many years. This sentiment is confirmed by many other prominent members of the party who keep track of current events and have had enough to judge situations.

During the Republican rally at Mahanoy City Saturday evening and at the close of the meeting, the enthusiastic people joined in the following refrain:

BRUMM'S ALL RIGHT.
Tune—TA-RA-RA-BOOM-DE-A.
Why don't Reilly, stand up plumb
And meet the challenge of our Brumm?
It would make the campaign hum,
But he's afraid he'd be knocked dumb.

TA-RA-RA Brumm ta-ra;
TA-RA-RA Brumm ta-ra;
TA-RA-RA Brumm ta-ra;
TA-RA-RA Brumm ta-ra.
He's afraid that he would bump
Against his silver record plumb,
And that would knock him in the sump
For voting both ways like a chump.

CHORUS.
For his own interest now and then
He cackles like a clucking hen,
But never raised his voice or pen
To help along the workingmen.

CHORUS.
We'll do our duty, honor bright,
And vote for him who makes our fight,
Brumm stands for labor with his might,
Protection's champion—his all right.

Electric Railway Change.
Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Main and Centre streets at 6:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave.

SLOWLY, BUT SURELY.

The Soldiers' Monument Fund Continues to Climb Up.

The interest in the movement to raise funds for a soldiers' monument in town is not limited to the people residing here, as will be seen from the following extract from Charles G. Palmer, now residing at Butte City, Montana, to the editor of the HERALD:

"There are a good sprinkling of Shenandoah boys here and in my next I will name them all and tell the HERALD what they are doing. I might say one word more: All the boys agree with the HERALD that some suitable place in Shenandoah should be selected for a soldiers' monument. And, don't forget it, we shall contribute our share for such a worthy object."

But two dollars more required to raise the fund to the $600 mark.

The contributions yesterday were not numerous, but they were sufficient to demonstrate a desire to help the good work along. The contributors were:

Charles Burchill	$ 5
Epoch Decker	2
Total	7
Previously reported	591
Grand total	$ 598

THE JOINT COMMITTEE

On Water Works Held a Lively Meeting Last Night.

The joint committee on public water works met last evening with the intention of awarding the contract for the construction of the works, but after a lively discussion the members failed to agree and it was decided to allow the matter to go before the Borough Council.

One of the questions that created a lively debate was a proposition to substitute a steel pipe for the one the committee originally intended to use. According to a statement by one of the Councilmen, the discussion was precipitated by a claim that the steel pipe proposed was only the overplus of stock of some bankrupt firm and after the amount on hand would be used no more could be secured.

A Councilman also stated to a HERALD reporter to-day that the lowest bid for the construction of the works is $106,000.

Under the Lion's Paw.

This monster melodramatic spectacle will be produced at Ferguson's theatre this evening, 28th inst., under the management of George Peck, with a strong cast, magnificent scenery, and introducing Col. E. D. Boone, the great lion tamer, and his charming wife, Mill Carlotta, together with their seven giant Nubian lions. All the paraphernalia used in this production is carried in the company's own private baggage car. The lions are exhibited in the third act, which takes place in a circus menagerie, and their performance is given in a massive steel cage, fourteen feet high, thirty feet in diameter and weighing 6,000 pounds. The large African lion, "Commodore," is also in the last act. Their performance is a triumph of the trainer's skill. Seven huge, shaggy lions frolicking in their steel-enclosed cage, like children, playing sea-saw, leaping, riding bicycles, wrestling, forming pyramids, riding obelisks, with all but human intelligence. Colonel Boone is accompanied in the den by two enormous bear hounds, presented to him by Prince Bismarck.

Another Imposter.

A gentleman residing on West Oak street says that a few days ago a man called at the rear door of his residence and sold one of the family a ticket for a raffle to be held in Wm. Penn. Later in the day he called at the same door and sold another member of the family a ticket for a ball to be held in Brownsville. And still later in the day the same man called at the front door of the same residence and appealed for alms, claiming he was unable to secure work. The man was recognized on his third visit and he made a rapid descent down the steps and out upon the cold and uncharitable world.

The Place to Go.

Shenandoah people visiting the county seat (renamed Pottsville) all call in the Academy Restaurant. Either J. F. Cooney, the proprietor, greets you with a smile, or his genial brother, M. A. Cooney welcomes you. It is the resort for all gentlemen from north of the mountain. 8-24-92

A Rededication.

The Presbyterian church of town, which is now undergoing extensive improvements, will be ready by the second Sunday in October, when it is expected the church will be rededicated. The frescoers are doing nice work and the congregation will be pleased when the work is finished.

STRANGE EXPLOIT OF TWO YOUNG MEN

THEY CAUSE THEIR FRIENDS MUCH ANXIETY.

BY MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARING

But They Turn up Again and Fall into the Hands of the Police for not Restoring Borrowed Property.

HERE are two prodigals in town, Anson Hester and Henry Hawley. About two weeks ago they secured a horse and buggy from John Gross, of town, and started off for a drive.

Days passed and nothing was heard or seen of the young men, or the horse and wagon. Gross finally became anxious and offered a reward for his property. On Monday night the missing young men straggled back to town, but without the horse and buggy. Yesterday Gross caused their arrest and they were committed to the lockup in default of $100 bail each, Gross having valued the property at $140. The young men said they drove from town to Hazleton, where they met a friend and left the horse and buggy with him as security for five dollars they borrowed. With the money they bought drink and became dead to the world for several days. Upon recovering from the spell they made their way back to town, sorrowful and penitent.

Yesterday Mr. Gross left for Hazleton and the young men are in the lockup, awaiting their return. One of their friends stated to-day that he believed that Gross would find his property in good condition and upon his return the accused would be released.

A Brilliant Affair.

The concert held in Ferguson's theatre last night under the auspices of the Iovites of town was a brilliant artistic and very satisfactory financial affair. It was really one of the best concerts given in this town for some time. Squire T. T. Williams was chairman for the evening. The programme consisted of singing by Miss Gwendolyn Reese, of town, Prof. Wm. Edwards, of G. Herberton, Misses Jenkins and Annie Wynne, of Mahanoy City, Misses Edith Morgan and Lizzie Reese, of town, Messrs. Benjamin Huskey, Jesse Hughes and J. J. Price and the Shenandoah mixed party under the leadership of Mr. J. J. Price. Miss Helen Price, of town, played piano solos, and Master Richard Jones, of Wm. Penn, played a violin solo to the piano accompaniment of his brother, Evan L. Jones. Mr. H. P. Mellet contributed a recitation. All the selections were heartily applauded and in some instances the audience was very enthusiastic.

During the evening there was a request from the audience that Walter Jones play the violin solo, "Blue Bells of Scotland," but owing to the length of the programme the committee was unable to comply with the request. The programme was not carried out as it was printed on account of Prof. Philip T. Evans and the Wm. Penn party backing out at the last moment and disappointing the committee.

Let Him Step Forward.

Yesterday the HERALD contained an account given by a boy of town of treatment he received at the hands of tramps while he was crossing the mountain on his way to work at Boston Run colliery. The boy claimed that the tramps stopped him and emptied his dinner pail. The borough police last night arrested a bum and after closely questioning, concluded he was one of the tramps who robbed the boy of his meal. The bum has been committed to the lockup on a charge of vagrancy. As the complaint made by the boy yesterday was not the first of the kind the police are anxious of making an example of the bum if he can be identified as one of the guilty parties. If the boy or his parents will apply to Chief of Police Davis they will have an opportunity to see the tramp.

An Ugly Weapon.

Last night Policeman McGrail arrested a Polish fellow of the First ward for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, indecent exposure of his person, and carrying concealed deadly weapons. The latter charge was based upon the discovery of the man's person of a six pointed bolt, about which was wrapped quite a length of wire, making a most handy and deadly looking billy. The fellow's name was Bulawick. He was "salted" with fines by the Chief Burgess this morning.

Bertolletti Succeeds Lawler.

It is announced that Mr. Wallington Bertolletti, present superintendent of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, with headquarters at Mahanoy Plains, will succeed Mr. C. M. Lawler as superintendent of the Williamsport division of the road, with headquarters at Williamsport. Mr. Lawler has been promoted to the headquarters at Philadelphia.

THE NOTE BOOK.

Some of the Topics That People are Talking About To-day.

The deliberate thinker must come to the conclusion that Shenandoah is in position to command the attention of outside capitalists who are on the lookout for live towns in which to establish industries. We have a large population, plenty of floating labor, an inexhaustible supply of cheap fuel, three railroads connecting us with all sections of the country, an abundant water supply, gas, incandescent and arc electric lights, an electric railway which is a great boon for local traffic and which will be a still greater one shortly, when it is extended, an electric fire alarm system, a splendid fire department, and a free delivery system. To them will soon be added Belgian block street paving, a public system of sewerage and, eventually, a city charter.

The largest and best collieries in this valley are in the immediate vicinity of Shenandoah and if the places would be worked full time for a few months the town would soon be made again one of the most lively in the state.

West Lloyd street has a sensation that is rapidly budding and when the facts come to the surface there will be quite a stir. The case is somewhat similar to one alleged to have occurred on Jardin street recently.

Political campaigns are not conducted as they were thirty or forty years ago. Then, every fall, the boys used to steal oil and tar barrels and stack them high above a fire. The blaze that would shoot through the opening of the top barrel would entice the old as well as the young, and would draw immense crowds upon the ground. Meantime the boys would be hurrying all over the place for more oil and tar barrels. Sometimes tall trees would be trimmed bare and receive a covering of barrels to its very height. The tree and barrels would present a magnificent sight until they would at last topple over, and burn to ashes. These bonfires served in place of fireworks, in use to-day, but the speakers and attentive audiences were upon the grounds, as in modern times. Those good (?) old days have gone. This reminiscence is not an encouragement for their revival. There would be too much work for the police and firemen if such demonstrations were indulged in now.

It makes considerable difference whose ox is gored. When the HERALD attempts to show up the meanness of some people of a neighboring town to its local scribble goss "on his ear" and begins to tell tales out of school. This is especially true when the truth hurts. We have no objections to the contemporary showing up the shortcomings of our people if they find any and we are not disposed to quarrel. We admit we have as mean people as some towns, but we draw the line at Pottsville.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. William Wade, of Audenried, is visiting friends in town.

J. J. McGuire and J. J. McCormick, of Girardville, were visitors to the HERALD sanctum this afternoon.

John P. Roberts to-day took leave of his relatives and friends here to resume his studies at the College for Physicians and Surgeons at Baltimore, Md.

Miss Ruth Williams, who recently moved from town to Mt. Carmel with her parents, was unable to take part in the Iovite concert last evening on account of having sustained a slight injury at her new home. The injury is not a very serious one, we are pleased to note.

Football Tourney.

W. H. Sadler, Jr., son of Judge Sadler, one of the financial backers of the new electric road, is a football enthusiast and he has enlisted the Traction company's interest in a scheme that will doubtless be the means of furnishing much outdoor sport during the fall and winter. Mr. Sadler's project is the formation of a northeastern Pennsylvania football league to embrace clubs from all the towns of prominence in this section, and to stimulate the general interest the company will offer a handsome trophy for competition. Olyphant, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton already have teams. Grounds will be fitted up at once and an effort made to get college teams to play during the season.—Jersey Press.

The True Laxative Principle.

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Speaks for Itself.

Under the management of Edwin G. Maytum, general manager of the Pottsville Home M. A. Life Insurance Company, in the past two years 7,000 policies have been issued. In that brief period the company has paid over 8,000 in claims. Mr. Maytum's management speaks for itself.

For Almost Nothing.

Max Reese has just received a large stock of labels, writing paper, envelopes, etc., purchased at an Assignee's sale and is selling them at 50 per cent. less than regular prices.
