LAW SUIT OVER LIFE INSURANCE

JOHN HILBERT ALLEGED CONSPIRACY AND FRAUD.

AGAINST ONE OF HIS NEIGHBORS

Charging That She Had His Life Insured Without His Consent or Authority—The Agent Paid the Piper.

THE case of John Hilbert against Mrs. Seltzer was settled yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hilbert's story was that in 1889 Mrs. Seltzer procured an insurance policy on his life without his knowledge or consent. Hilbert did not know of the policy, he says, until recently, when it leaked out in a quarrel. Hilbert then consulted his lawyer, M. M. Burke, Esq., and suit was brought against Mrs. Seltzer and Insurance Agent Heckman for fraud and conspiracy. Mrs. Seltzer set up a defense to the effect that Mrs. Hilbert consented to the insurance in order to secure a grocery bill. Heckman, the agent, claimed that he called upon Mr. Hilbert and had him make his mark on the application for insurance. This Hilbert denied and Mrs. Hilbert denied the claim made by Mrs. Seltzer. All parties met in Mr. Burke's office yesterday and agreed to settle. Mrs. Seltzer surrendered the insurance policy and the agent gave Mr. Hilbert ten dollars and agreed to pay the costs and counsel fees.

A Two Hundred Dollar Prize Offer. Frank Leslie's Weekly, ever entertaining, offers $200 to the subscriber who guesses nearest the plurality which the candidate for the Presidency may receive. This means the plurality of the popular vote, and not the electoral vote. Frank Leslie's Weekly contains nearly every week great front-page cartoons, which quite equal those of its lively contemporary, the Judge. In illustrating the news events of the week in its highest possible artistic manner, and in giving also the latest pictures of foreign events, it fills a want that no other weekly in the country does. Frank Leslie's will be sent for five weeks for 50 cents. This includes the privilege of guessing on the plurality.

The Smart of a Cur. The following clipping is from the Pottsville Republican, showing what the editor of that sheet thinks of the members of the G. A. R. who have the management of the fund in hand. Read it carefully. "Shenandoah's monumental fund now reaches $508. It is some good, responsible citizen who has never been engaged in similar enterprises would take the matter in hand, the fund would rapidly augment."

On Thursday evening last, at Gilberton, Rev. J. Proude united in marriage James Zimmerman and Miss Martha Davis, both of the above place. The ceremonies were performed at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties.

Letter List. The following letters remain uncalled for in the Shenandoah, Schuylkill county, Pa., post office, October 1, 1892: Correll Sadie, Galtier Agie, Elliott Thomas.

Parties calling for advertised letters should please say "advertised." One cent will be charged on all advertised letters.

Important. On the inside page of this EVENING'S HERALD will be found General Reader's instructions regarding the Ballot Law. Read it carefully.

Try Sociable. The Epworth League will hold a Try Sociable to the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday evening. It will be a novel affair.

Fresh Morris River Cove Oysters received daily at Colett's. 9-22-92

For Almost Nothing. Max Reese has just received a large stock of tablets, writing paper, envelopes, etc., purchased at an Assignee's sale and is selling them at 50 per cent. less than regular prices.

MORE GOOD NEWS.

The Basis Takes Another Jump of Three Per Cent.

The miners of this region can have no cause to complain of the Reading "deal" if the basis keeps improving as it has the past two months and the working time continues as favorable as it has been the past two weeks.

The statement below shows the collation drawn to return prices of coal sold in September, 1892, to determine the rate of wages to be paid:

N. Ashland colliery P. & R. C. & I. Co., $2.47
Merriam, " " " " " " 2.667
North Mahanoy, " " " " " " 2.715
Preston, No. 3, " " " " " " 2.806
Oak Hill, " " " " " " 2.767

The average of these rates being $2.65 00 and the rate of wages to be paid for work for last two weeks of September and the first two weeks of October, 1892, is six (6) per cent. above the $2.50 basis.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. Linton, an Old and Well Known Resident.

Mrs. Margaret Linton died last night at her home in Millers company houses on Bowers street. She had been a sufferer of several of the stomach and inflammation of the lungs and had been confined to her bed for three weeks. The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. on Monday. Mrs. Linton was 90 years of age and was the widow of Robert Linton, who was killed by a fall of coal in the Kabinoor colliery nineteen years ago. The deceased was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and became a resident of this town in 1871. She left a large circle of friends who deeply mourn her death.

On Wednesday last Nellie, the eleven-year-old daughter of Evar J. Davis, inside foreman of Beechwood colliery, Minersville, died after a short illness. Mr. Davis was formerly a resident of this town, where he is favorably known. Four others of Mr. Davis' children are seriously sick.

LITTLE LOCALS

That Cover Considerable Ground in This Vicinity.

Too much paper thrown on the streets. The agricultural fairs are on the home run.

We are promised many weddings this winter.

Travel on the electric road continues to be good.

Fall house cleaning has commenced in earnest.

Nice quinces in market yesterday, but dear in price.

Send in your name and amount for the monument fund.

Girls, don't flirt with every stranger. It isn't a bit nice.

There is again some talk of a new opera house and town hall.

It is to be hoped the electric road will soon be extended so that the street can be put in good shape.

An Invitation.

The Tamaqua Manufacturing Company must feel greatly disappointed, judging from the reports I read, and I am sorry that Messrs. Oliver and Corist have fallen into the hands of Tamaqua people. Come to Shenandoah, where you will find money waiting you, ground for the mere asking and labor to abundance. This is the live town of Schuylkill county. We have better rail road facilities, active, courageous business men, money, brains and everything that goes toward giving a town snap and push. Come, gentlemen, climb over the fence and leave that cemetery. The few sections there have a good job, but you are not in the ring.—Shenandoah correspondence in Tamaqua Recorder.

Eruption of the Skin Cured.

Ed. Veinny, Brockville, Ontario, Canada, says: "I have used Brandt's Pills for the past fifteen years, and think them the best catarrhic and anti-bilious remedy known. For some five years I suffered with an eruption of the skin that gave me great pain and annoyance. I tried different blood remedies, but, although gaining strength, the itching was unrelieved. I finally concluded to take a thorough course of Brandt's Pills. I took six each night for four nights, then five, four, three two, lessening each time by one, and then for one month took one every night, with the happy result that now my skin is perfectly clear and has been so ever since."

Thanks to the Police.

EDITOR HERALD.—Allow me, in behalf of the residents of East Oak street, including myself, to extend thanks to Chief of Police Davis and his assistants for their promptness in squelching the hoodlum element in the vicinity of the theatre. On evenings when shows have been in the theatre the hoodlums have taken possession of the street and made themselves intolerable, but last night the services of the police had an effect which the residents of the vicinity feel bound to recognize.

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT FUND

NOW AMOUNTS TO SEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS.

GRAND ARMY HAS TAKEN ACTION

It Has Pledged Itself for a Contribution of One Hundred Dollars and has Appointed a Working Committee.

MEMBERS of Watkin Waters Post No. 145, G. A. R., are now enlisted for active work in connection with the soldiers' monument fund and a committee has been appointed to look after the Post's interest.

Many people have been withholding their pledges of support to see what the Post would do and now that the organization has acted and put itself on record it is hoped that the citizens and other town societies will roll up their sleeves and go into the work with a will.

At its meeting last night the Post pledged itself for $100 and appointed the following committee to act in conjunction with committees that will be selected from the other societies and the citizens: David Morgan, S. A. Reddall, William Maloy, Joseph Daddow and H. C. Boyer.

It is not the intention of the Post to assume all responsibility for the project, or to monopolize credit for what may be accomplished. It has simply started what it hopes to make a popular movement, something to which it hopes all the people and all the societies of town will lend their aid and help make a brilliant success.

Now that the start has been made let all hands move towards an official organization.

The committee appointed by the Post will meet on Monday evening, next, at 7:30 o'clock, in S. A. Reddall's office, to prepare plans. It is proposed to have every society in the town represented on the committee, as well as representative to be appointed by the citizens. A meeting of the general committee will be called in a few days.

The members of the Post were very enthusiastic over the project. The members condemned the Republican's suggestion in regard to the project in unmistakable terms.

The pledges made yesterday were: Watkin Waters Post, $100; John Moore, Mahanoy Place, $100. Total, $200. Previously reported, $0. Grand Total, $200.

Now for the $1,000 mark. The Shenandoah soldiers' monument fund has reached $200 and is fast going toward the $1,000 mark. Very commendable progress.—Chronicle.

Who It Was Stopped.

People are wondering what the big red patch on the east side of the White street school building means. It is easily explained. At its last meeting the School Board decided to have the building painted and painted. A committee advertised for proposals for the work and P. J. Carden understood that he was the successful bidder. The painter commenced work this week, but was stopped, as some members of the board have raised the point that the bids should first go before the School Board.
