COUNTER CHARGES.

An Amusing Case Brought Before Justice Last Night.

David Fisher, an old man residing at Wm. Penn, was before Squire Monaghan last evening, charged by Ida Hoffman, of town, with attempted indecent assault.

Fisher is about 55 years of age. His wife died about two weeks ago and he hired Ida as a housekeeper. The woman charges that he repeatedly entered her bedroom and attempted to make indecent assaults upon her.

The hearing had many amusing features. When asked whether he was guilty or not guilty Fisher said all he had to say was that he had a right to go into Ida's room in his own house. He was put under $300 bail for trial at court.

Fisher then went to Squire Shemaker and had a warrant issued for Ida, charging her with stealing from his house a shawl, apron, eye glasses, a pocket knife, breast pin and bed clothing aggregating in value to the sum of about $10.

The woman was arrested. She said Fisher's wife gave her the shawl and apron, but she knew nothing of the other articles. She furnished $300 bail.

The Hoffman woman is married. Her husband's name is Hatch. He was a watchman at a railroad crossing in Reading until he was arrested for stealing coal from Philadelphia and Reading cars. He served a year and nine months in the Reading jail and was then removed to a Reading hospital for treatment as a consumptive. He is still in the hospital. After Hatch went to jail his wife assumed the name of Hoffman.

Tribute.

While it is over thirty years ago since Alcock's Porous Plasters were first introduced to the medical profession and public, the marked success and unprecedented popularity which they have met with not only continues, but steadily increases. No other plasters have been produced which gain so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Alcock's Porous Plasters, and the only motive for these exceptional tributes lies in the fact of their being a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Additional proof of the true value of Alcock's Porous Plasters lies in the fact that they are being largely imitated by unscrupulous persons, who seek to deceive the public by offering plasters which they claim to be "same," "equal," "as good," "better," "best porous plasters," etc., while it is in general appearance only that they resemble Alcock's. Every one of the so-called porous plasters are imitations of Alcock's Porous Plasters. Avoid dealers who attempt to palm off inferior and worthless plasters that are purchased by them at low rates for the purpose of substitution.

COLUMBIAN CELEBRATION

In New York—Take the Royal Reading Railroad.

The 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus will be celebrated in New York next week from October 10th to 14th, and the parades both by land and by sea and all the other events going to make up the Columbian Celebration will be on a scale both extensive and magnificent. There will be thousands of persons who will journey to the metropolis to witness this celebration, and the Reading Railroad will contribute to the success of the event by making a reduction in the regular excursion fare to N. w York. From Oct. 9th to 12th, inclusive, the Reading Railroad will sell excursion tickets to New York from all points on its system, good to return until and including October 15th, at a rate of one and one-third the single trip fare. This will make the round trip cost only a trifle more than the fare one way. The train arrangements via the Reading Route are so arranged as to be particularly convenient to all who will visit New York.

The Hope Broke.

There was an accident in the Turkey Run colliery at 12 o'clock last night that narrowly missed fatal result. When a loaded car was near the top of the new slope the rope broke and the car rushed downward. The car was smashed into fragments at the bottom of the slope and some of the debris struck men at work in the tunnel about fifty yards distant from the foot. George Walehook, Thomas E. Jones and Thomas Wilson, three of the tunnel men, were struck by pieces of the wreck, but their injuries were not serious.
