COUNCIL DISCUSSES THE WATER WORKS

THE GIRARD ESTATE.

FOR SITES AND RIGHTS OF WAY

The Councilmen Are Not Willing to Shoulder all the Responsibility for the Project-Joint Meeting Called.

OUNCIL met last night and after the transaction of considerable routine business spent sometime on the advisability of awarding contracts for the new water works. The subject was brought motion was carried. Mr. Coakley called attention to the fact that Mr. Quinn, of Pottsville, and Mr.

Morris, of Jeanesville, bidders for the water works contracts, were present. Mr. Lamb stated that the water committee passed a resolution at its last meeting foregoing. The HERALD several days ago referring the three lowest bidders to the Borough Council for that body to make any selection it wished. Mr. Lamb said he considered the action a mistake on the part of the committee. He said that when some of the members found they had to take a stand they were not equal to it. It was suggested that the proper action would be for Council to refer the matter back to the joint committee, but Mr. Betteridge said that he had voted to have the matter referred to Council because he knew many of the Councilmen did not ially those in this sale. The know anything about it. He thought it best to have the three bidders present their itemized bills and give any information known to be sold at $10.50 a Council might ask for. We were all getting tired of it. There was too much dillydallying and we thought it was time to come to some conclusion.

Chairman James asked if all the bidders Betteridge answered that they had not, and day." Mr. Van Dusen said that Mr. Quinn had.

THE NOTE BOOK,

some of the Topics That People are Talklug About To-day.

Two incidents very fruitful for reflection have come before my notice recently. They hinge upon publication in the HER-ALD. A few days ago a communication appeared in the paper complaining of by the statement that practices of cruelty to soimals by partie owning Flobert rifles. I understand that caused by the communication. Both Mr. Lamb moved that the borough parties wanted to find the author, and both officers draw up the application and the acknowledged having used Floberts, but, so as I able to learn, neither man was contemplated by the author of the complaint

> A third incident called to mind by a prominent gentleman of town furnishes a moral for the two parties referred to in the stated that a concation was developing or West Lloyd street and that when it would ripen it would be a rich and juley one. The day after the article appeared a woman called upon the afor said prominent gentleman and asked, "Have you ever seen anything wrong with me, or do you know anything wrong of me?"

"No, I have not seen anything, nor do I know of anything."

"Well, here is a piece in the HERALD," said the caller, "and I do not think I deserve snything like that."

The gentleman called upon read the article indicated and then said, "I do not see that this concerns you. It certainly does not mention your name, and, so far a I can see, implicates you in no way."

"That's it," exclaimed the woman im patiently reaching for the paper. "I ve put my foot in it sgain. Don't let on presents I bids to the committee and Mr. shout anything I have told you. Good EVERAL of the Philadelphia and Reading collieries in this district and the Gilberton valley were idle to-day on account of a shortage of cars. In-blacksmith shop, were sent home. It is reported that unless a big demand s made within a few days this region may suffer worse than half time. A large proportion of the company's cars are standing at Port Richmond and other points loaded and the company has had great difficulty in securing enough empty cars to keep the collieries working to date.

The shortage has obliged the company to greatly curtail the supply of cars to individual operators and the complaints from that source are loud. The Park Piace and Logan collieries are working on a wretched
