THE WAR IN VENEZUELA

Not Known Whether Our Consul Was Fired On.

CRESPITAS VICTORY CONFIRMED.

Admiral Walker's Despatch to the Navy Department in regard to the Battle-Crespo has Entered Caracas—United States Vessels Near at Hand.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—A despatch from Admiral Walker to the Navy Department confirms the reported victory of Gen. Crespo in Venezuela, and announces that the present Government has fallen and that Gen. Crespo will soon be at the head of the new Government.

The despatch of Admiral Walker said in substance:

"Revolutionists successful. Crespo victorious. President and Ministry have abandoned Venezuela. Crespo takes possession of Caracas to-day."

From this despatch it will be seen that the next probable step will be the announcement of a new Government for Venezuela with Gen. Crespo at the head of affairs.

It will be noticed that this despatch does not contain any mention of the report that the United States Consul, Mr. Hanna, was fired on by a Venezuelan war ship while in the harbor of Macuto in his sloop launch, and because of this omission and from the fact that neither Consul Hanna nor Minister Sprague has sent a statement of such an occurrence to the State Department, it is believed in official circles that the report is not true.

An official of the Navy Department, whose position entitles him to speak authoritatively, said this morning in reference to the matter, that had any assault been made on Mr. Hanna, Admiral Walker would undoubtedly have notified the Navy Department of the fact.

"I can hardly believe the report is true," he said, "for with two United States vessels near-by, the Venezuelans would not have dared to fire on our flag. They could not hope to cope with our vessels, and if an engagement had taken place, the small guns of the Chicago would have been sufficient to quickly silence the Venezuelan craft."

No message of any sort from either Minister Sprague or Consul Hanna has been received at the State Department. The only official information in the possession of Acting Secretary Adee is contained in the despatch from Admiral Walker. The message was laid before the Cabinet at its meeting, and the report that Consul Hanna had been attacked was also discussed, but in view of the fact that no official information concerning the reported outrage against him and the flag has been received, the subject has been passed over without action.

The United States vessels, the Chicago and Kearsarge, are in the harbor of La Guayra, and another vessel, the Concord, is within a day's sailing distance. The Chicago and the Concord are two of the new vessels and are thoroughly equipped for warfare, so there is no fear felt in official circles that the interests of this country will not be well protected. Germany and Italy are each represented by one war ship at La Guayra.

POSTOFFICE DEFICIT.

Expenditures and Revenues of the Department for the Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The annual report of the Sixth Auditor of the Treasury, who has charge of the accounts of the Postal Service, shows that during the year ended June 30, 1893, the net revenues of the Postoffice Department were 170,890,478 and the expenditures 176,938,782, making a deficit for the year of 6,048,304, as compared with $5,730,677 for the year ended June 30, 1891.

The amount paid to railroads during the last fiscal year for transporting the mails was $27,190,814, which is an increase for the year of $1,463,681.

Four hundred and thirty-eight thousand, seven hundred and fifty-three dollars was paid for steamboat service, $5,440,326 on account of Star route service and $790,756 for coast mail service.

The amount paid out on account of service of previous years was $657,083. During the year 240 fourth class post offices were raised to the Presidential class and twenty-two third class offices were relegated to the fourth class, making a net increase of $18 during the year.

COMMISSIONER PECK'S CASE.

The Hearing of the Criminal Charges to Take Place Oct. 30.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Another postponement in the Peck case has taken place. The hearing in the matter of criminal charge of burning public documents was to have taken place in Police Court yesterday.

Justice Gutman was ready at that time but counsel for Mr. Peck sent word that he had been called to New York and asked a postponement.

Mr. Chase, counsel for the prosecution, did not object, and the case was adjourned until October 20th, two days after the matter is heard in the Court of Sessions.

Horses Burned at Fall River.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 7.—A fire last night in Eugene Winward's stable on Fox street, burned the building and thirteen horses owned by Winward, also damaged adjoining buildings owned by Boren & Remington and American Printing Company. Winward's loss is $8,500; insurance $1,800; Boren & Remington's $2,500; insurance $1,000; American Printing Company's $800; fully insured, James Sunderland's loss $400; not insured.

Grace Did Not Give $100,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The report that ex-Mayor W. R. Grace had handed in a check to the Democratic National Committee for $100,000 is denied at headquarters as a silly fabrication. It was stated that Mr. Grace, since the campaign opened, had contributed and caused friends to contribute, but that he did not send in anything yesterday.

Forty Lakes in Mass.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A special from Valparaiso says: Professor Pickering, of the Harvard Branch Observatory at Arequipa, says that he has discovered forty small lakes in Mars. He also confirms Professor Holden's observations on the limits and measured altitudes of the planet.

STRIKERS MAKE DENIAL.

Protest They Had Nothing to Do With Yesterday's Explosion at Homestead.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 8.—The striking steel workers strenuously deny that they had any hand in the attempt to blow up the non-union boarding-house here with a bomb early yesterday morning. They say it was done for the purpose of keeping the soldiers here and to change public opinion in favor of the Carnegies.

Mrs. Maroon keeps the boarding house. She used to live in this city but went to Homestead some time ago. All her boarders were non-union workers in the Homestead mill and there were thirty-five of them.

The dining room was on the first floor and the sleeping rooms on the second. In the front of the house, in fact, of the dining room, were large show windows, for the first floor had been built for a store.

One of the side windows had been broken for some time, and it was through this that the perpetrator of the deed worked.

The cartridge was thrown through the window into the dining-room. It struck the floor and a terrific explosion followed. All the windows were broken and a large hole torn in the floor through which many things were hurled into the cellar below.

The beds on the second floor were thrown six feet up in the air and the occupants tumbled to the floor. No one was hurt, but most intense excitement followed.

The boarding house, known as the Mansion House, was soon surrounded by officers, and the military was called on. In the excitement and darkness the perpetrators escaped.

THE PLAGUE AT TONAWANDA.

Two New Cases Reported—Excitement at Fever Heat.

TONAWANDA, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Two new cases of cholera are reported in the house at Ironton, where the Kalmas, father and son died, and the excitement here is intense.

Ironton is one and a half miles from here and takes its name from the Iron works there.

In a little four room frame house there live nine people who came to this country three months ago and are employed at the Iron works. It was here the disease first appeared.

Frank Kalma died nine hours after he was attacked and his son died from the same disease after an illness of even shorter duration.

It is now reported that Kalma's wife and an Austrian named Kalich are down with the disease but in a milder form.

The health authorities are greatly disturbed, and have asked for instructions from the State Board of Health.

The house is quarantined and the bedding and furniture in the rooms occupied by the Kalmas have been burned. A lot of mail from Europe was found in the house and this was also destroyed.

Dr. Jayne says that the disease has every appearance of genuine cholera, but thinks it may likely be sporadic cholera. The people in the house, he says, have been eating tainted meats and rotten vegetables and their surroundings were of a generally uncleanly character.

AN IMPOSING FUNERAL.

Ernest Renan, the French Philosopher, Laid at Rest.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—The funeral of Ernest Renan was of an imposing character. The ceremonies began at the College of France in the presence of a distinguished assembly.

The Republican Guard was drawn up on the courtyard and at 10 o'clock a. m. its band played a funeral march.

After eulogistic addresses had been delivered by M. Bourgeois, Minister of Instruction, and other prominent men, the coffin was placed in the hearse.

The hearse was completely hidden from sight by flowers and wreaths.

At 11:15 a. m. the procession, headed by a detachment of lancers, started for Montmartre. The cortege was a mile in length and included people in all walks of life, prominent among them being numerous Radical Deputies and Senators, journalists and literary and professional celebrities.

M. Floquet, President of the Chamber of Deputies, and M. L. Royer, President of the Senate, were present, also Gen. Galliffet and Admiral Gervais.

NEW YORK FILLING UP

The Rush to Attend the Celebration Commences.

EXERCISES INAUGURATED TO-DAY.

Services Held This Morning in All the Jewish Places of Worship—The Metropolitan Gorgeously Decorated—Estimated That 700,000 Visitors Will be Present Next Week—Ample Facilities For Entertaining All.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Nearly everything is in readiness for the week of celebration in honor of the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus. The coming week promises to be one of the greatest in metropolitan history.

It is hard to say which feature of the various exercises next week will be the most interesting, so much is there of importance to be crowded into each 24 hours. So well has the work of the Committee of One Hundred progressed, however, that even the arrangements for the banquet are about completed, and those who are fortunate enough to be present will hear some good speeches.

The hotels of the city are already crowded with strangers and the decoration of buildings in all parts of the big town is progressing with amazing quickness.

The work of erecting the stands and adjusting the decorations along the line of the parade is progressing rapidly, and it is now thought by sunset to-night the sound of the hammer and buzz of the saw will not be heard on Broadway until after the monster celebration. Business men and householders in all parts of the city are decorating their houses, and by Monday morning New York will present a gorgeous sight.

The Battery to Central Park, and in fact up to the Columbus monument, a long line of color will be seen. Suspended across Fifth avenue, from Madison square to Thirty-fourth street, will be huge streamers, flags and lanterns. The national emblem will be seen floating from nearly every house-top.

Gen. MacMahon, who has charge of the details of the parade, estimates the number of soldiers belonging to out-of-town organizations who will be in line of march at 10,000 men.

The Columbus celebration began this morning, so far as the Hebrew population of New York is concerned. This is the season of the Feast of the Tabernacle, and to-day is set apart in all the synagogues for special commemorative services in honor of Columbus.

Rabbi Gotthard is at the Hotel Savoy, slowly recovering from typhoid fever, but the services at Temple Emanuel, at 251 Fifth avenue, were especially interesting. The synagogue was decorated with flowers and American flags inside and out. Rev. Dr. Joseph Silbermann preached on "America, the Promised Land." There will be other services at 11 o'clock to-morrow.

In all synagogues services were held this morning. To-morrow, the Christian churches will observe the occasion.

Mr. Charles G. Wable, Secretary of the Committee of One Hundred which has charge of the celebration, estimates the number of visitors who will be here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at between 650,000 and 700,000.

He says that the city is at this time probably better prepared for the reception of this multitude than any other city in the world.

Should Mr. Wable's estimate prove correct, it will be far the largest crowd of visitors which has ever been in New York. The city can care for them easily, however, as it could a larger number.

Although the accommodations of most of the hotels are already engaged, as was, of course, to be expected, and many have been obliged to turn away guests, there is no reason for any one to be disappointed.

In every case where the hotels are filled the applicants have been referred to the Committee on Transportation and Accommodation, whose office is in the Morton House, with the assurance of finding rooms in private houses.

Of private lodging houses there is a vast supply. So far, the number of rooms to let is far in excess of the demand. As almost every instance the rates are moderate, ranging from $1 to $5 a day for individuals.

Notwithstanding the great number of people who have already engaged rooms at the hotels, boarding houses, private houses and through the committee, there are ample facilities for entertaining many thousands more. Mr. F. L. Adams, secretary of the committee, said yesterday that at least 200,000 more people could be accommodated without any great trouble.

The crowds of visitors from near-by cities, towns and villages keep up a continual commotion at the depots. Hundreds of residents congregate at train time to meet acquaintances and relatives and escort them away.

All the railroad companies which bring passengers to New York have prepared themselves for an unprecedented passenger traffic. Companies that will not run special trains have arranged to divide their regular trains into sections.

A single schedule will in this way sometimes carry a dozen trains of eight or ten cars each. Freight trains have been ordered to give way entirely to the passenger traffic.

The flood gates of the railroads were raised to-day, and the people with their cheap-rate excursion tickets have been allowed to come. The family relatives, country cousins and friends came in multitudes, pouring out of the incoming trains and packing the ferryboats of those lines which terminate in Jersey City.

The railroad officials and employes have their hands full in taking care of the big crowds. At all points along some of the main lines trains will be made up and started as the travel demands.

MILDRED BROWN HANGED.

Execution of the Young Colored Girl—Other Negroes Suffer the Death Penalty.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 8.—John Williams, colored, and Mildred Brown, a 18-year-old colored girl, were hanged at Spartanburg at fifteen minutes before noon yesterday.

Religious services were held in the jail by a colored preacher.

Both of the condemned criminals professed faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

At 11:35 they were led to the scaffold in the rear of the jail, which is inclosed by a high plank wall.

There the final services were held. The ropes were adjusted and the girl cried "I'm going home to die" and showed every little feeling. William said "Good-bye everybody."

At this point he protested against his hanging.

At 11:45 the trap fell, killing both instantly. Both necks were broken and there was not a twitch of the body afterward.

They were cut down at 12:15. The crime for which Williams suffered death was the killing of Mayor Heuneman of Spartanburg, and Mildred Brown, who is only 18 years old, for the cruel murder of a baby because its father upbraided her for a small offence.

William Wilson was hanged at Anderson at 11:15 for cruelly murdering his wife.

He came out of the jail yard at 11 o'clock and prayed continuously till the drop fell at 11:15. His neck was broken and he was pronounced dead in twenty-three minutes.

He was cut down in thirty minutes. Strong efforts were made to save the life of the negro girl, and numerous appeals were made to the Governor to commute her sentence to life imprisonment, but the Governor was firm in his position not to interfere with the death sentence.

Thursday evening the Governor answered the last appeal, as he had all previous, that the law must take its course. The Governor then left for New York and telegrams praying that the girl's life be spared were sent to him, but they were not answered, and so the girl paid the extreme penalty for her crime.

ON CRAWFORD'S TRACK.

The New York Absconder Has Been Living in San Francisco.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Frederick M. Crawford, clerk of the Endicott Hotel, this city, who absconded with about $15,000, has been seen in San Francisco. Several well-to-do gentlemen who were stopping at the hotel made up a purse for Crawford to go to New Orleans with, in recognition of his many favors to them, and he was handed a check for $5,000, which he was to cash on bets for them on the Sullivan-Corbett fight.

He left for New Orleans September 8, but did not tell the proprietor that he was going. Shortly after his departure it was found that he had not only been borrowing heavily, but pilfering and forging the name of the proprietor of the hotel.

Crawford left New Orleans shortly after the fight, going to San Francisco, where he changed his name to "Sert." He was recognized, however, by two gentlemen who were at the Endicott when his stealings were discovered. While these gentlemen assert that the San Francisco police were notified over a week ago, the local police deny any knowledge of the case.
