THREE HARVEST EXCURSIONS

Half Rates via the Illinois Central Aug. 30, Sept. 27 and Oct. 23th, 1892.

The Central Route will sell excursion tickets to the Agricultural Regions of the West, Southwest and South, at one fare for the round trip, from stations on its lines north of Cairo, on August 30th and September 27th. A third excursion will be run to the South and Southwest on October 23th. Your local ticket agent will give you full particulars in regard to these Harvest Excursions; arrangements can also be made in this connection to visit the desirable Railroad Lands for sale by the Illinois Central in Southern Illinois on obtaining special permission to do so by addressing the Company's Land Commissioner at Chicago, Mr. E. P. Stone. In addition, a few weeks before the first excursion date, your local ticket agent will be able to furnish you with a special folder, issued by the Illinois Central, which will give you particulars of these Harvest Excursions in such form as will enable you to plan your journey at home. Should you not be within call of a railroad ticket agent, address A. H. Hanson, G. P. A., Illinois Central R. R., Chicago, Ill. 8-4-92

A Sunset.

O Great Salt Lake is but one of the matchless spectacles to be seen in Utah. A new book "Utah, a Peep into a Mountain Walled Treasury of the Gods" is now issued and can be had postpaid by sending 25 cents to J. H. Bennett, Salt Lake City. It is expected that the Knights Templar and others visiting Colorado the coming season will extend their trip to Utah, via the Rio Grande Western Railroad in both directions. That road affords a choice of three distinct routes and the most magnificent scenery in the world. Equipment unequalled in the West. Two trains daily across the continent. 4

FROM GOTHAM.

An Interesting Political Letter From Howard.

New York, Oct. 7.—When the Democratic chorus opened in full cry on "Dave" Martin last week it was evident to any one familiar with Democratic ways that there was some fraudulent scheme afoot from which they wished to draw attention by alleging Republican attempts at fraud. They have attacked Mr. Martin because they were afraid of him. He is a practical politician, and they were terrified lest he might find out their own attempts at fraud and nullify them. Therefore they began to abuse and vilify him. It is an old Democratic dodge.

But Mr. Martin didn't scare; neither did the Republicans generally; and now we see just what it is the Democrats wished to cover up with their cry of "stop thief." Mr. Martin has discovered an extensive and systematic plan for colonization by which the Democrats had hoped to swell their vote on election day. The Bowery lodging houses are filled with repeaters, and every proprietor of a dive or a dance house on Cherry Hill or Water street or in the Mulberry Bend is expected, in return for Tammany police protection, to furnish two or three extra Democratic voters.

The entire details of the nefarious scheme are now in the hands of the Republican National Committee, and no effort will be spared to make it impossible for the Democratic repeaters and tramps to get in their vote where they do not belong.

Meantime we must expect that a greater howl than ever will be raised about that dreadful "Dave" Martin and his schemes. Thieves and robbers always dislike the detectives who expose their wickedness.

THAT BEGGING LETTER.

The pluto Democratic manager of Mr. Cleveland's convention and of his campaign, Mr. William C. Whitney, of this city, has conceived the sly scheme of pretending that the Democratic National Committee is out of funds, and that the Republican Committee has a magnificent surplus of cash. The purpose of this is to ward off demands for money from Democratic workers, and to inspire Republicans with the idea that they can draw on their party managers for unlimited amounts of cash.

The Democratic appeal for funds is signed by Messrs. Harrity and Dickinson, and is a most preposterous thing. It denounces the manufacturers, as all free traders do, but we hardly understand how Mr. Whitney can undertake to denounce "rich men" and "corporation" on the Republican side without striking himself and some other supporters of Grover Cleveland. The letter also has the assurance to denounce the "political intimidation and debauchery" of the Republican party and to protest against crimes affecting the purity of the ballot. This, in the Tammany center, is rich indeed.

Mr. Whitney's begging circular is a fraud and a sham, because at its close it shows that no funds are needed, for it states that "Cleveland's defeat is not possible." Beyond all this, we know that the New York World claims to have raised $32,749 for the Cleveland corruption fund. Surely this has not been used already. The best information at hand shows that the Democratic National Committee, since Mr. Whitney has taken it in charge, has a good deal more money than will meet all honest requirements of a Presidential campaign. If it runs a little short, Mr. Whitney has only to put his hand in his deep pocket to make the deficit good.

SKIES BRIGHT.

The outlook for an old-fashioned Republican victory is indeed bright. Every-day about the Republican headquarters is in good humor and working like beavers. There are no drones among the committee-men—all have their coats off and attending to business.

Senator Quay is expected here next week and will lend his services in unearthing and preventing frauds upon the ballot. With Quay and Martin attending to this part of the campaign, and "Charley" Vooloes assisting, there need be no fears of the result.

HOWARD.

A Mistake in the Century Dictionary is hard to find. Its definition of the word "delicious," however, contains an error of omission. The definition, "Pleasing in the highest degree; most sweet or grateful to the senses, as a delicious viand," would have been much more suggestive and intelligible if it had read "as a delicious Ferris Ham." Nothing like a concrete illustration, you know.

Tribute.

While it is over thirty years ago since Alcock's Porous Plasters were first introduced to the medical profession and public, the marked success and unprecedented popularity which they have met with not only continues, but steadily increases. No other plasters have been produced which gain so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Alcock's Porous Plasters, and the only motive for these exceptional tributes lies in the fact of their being a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Additional proof of the true value of Alcock's Porous Plasters lies in the fact that they are being largely imitated by unscrupulous persons, who seek to deceive the public by offering plasters which they claim to be the "same," "equal," "as good," "better," "best porous plasters," etc., while it is in general appearance only that they resemble Alcock's. Every one of the so-called porous plasters are imitations of Alcock's Porous Plasters. Avoid dealers who attempt to palm off inferior and worthless plasters that are purchased by them at low rates for the purpose of substitution.

Water Notice

OFFICE OF THE
Shenandoah Water and Gas Co.

On account of the long drought the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company give notice to its consumers that there must be no more waste of the water supplied by the company. This notice is especially directed to people who use garden hose and wash show windows, pavements, carriages, etc.

The water will be turned off every evening, beginning on Wednesday, October 13th, at seven o'clock, and remain so until 7 a. m. This rule will remain in force until the next rain. A watchman will be stationed at a stop at Fowler's lumber yard, on East Coal street, to turn on the water at a moment's notice in case the fire alarm is sounded.

By order of the company,
S. D. HESS,
Superintendent.
