Mr. Deacon looks worried and anxious He told the correspondent that he feared he would lose his case in consequence of the persistence of the Abeille family to turn public opinion against him. The Abeilles, he says, have already spent

On the press alone they spent 120,000 francs, and the result has been a newspaper campilgn sgainst him, which paper campaign sgainst him, which caused his imprisonment and is likely to cause the dismissal of the present charge against his wife. Everybody who has shown him kindness, Mr. Deacon says, has been attacked by the editors in the pay of the Abeilles.

The coming trial will be before a bench of judges and without a jury, but, Mr. Deacon says, the judges have been so prejudiced by the misrepresentations of the press that, even with the best inten-tions, they can hardly treat him impartlally

In expectation of prejudice Mr. Descon in expectation of prejudice Mr. Deacon has brought here with him a dozen witnesses from Switzerland, the Riviera and other localities, where Mrs. Deacon and M.
