STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

A Polish Miner Seriously Injured on the Railroad.

Frank Astorsky, a Polish miner residing on West street, was seriously injured this morning by being struck on the Lehigh Valley railroad, at a point about 200 yards east of Shenandoah junction. Astorsky was on his way home at about half past seven o'clock when eastbound passenger train No. 90, drawn by engine No. 575, struck him. His head was badly damaged and the toes of his right foot were cut off. He was taken to the Miners' Hospital and at last was in a critical condition.

Who Said "A Rasher of Bacon?"

It was Peter Familias, and he said it because he was a little overworked, and wanted something appetizing for breakfast next morning. So the good mother sent out that very evening and got some Ferris Boneless Bacon, and when her other half had finished his delicious repast of bacon and eggs in the morning, he felt like a new man, and told her so and kissed her good-by. She always buys Ferris' brand now.

Speaks for Itself.

Under the management of Edwin G. Maytum, general manager of the Pottsville Home M. A. Life Insurance Company, in the past two years 7,000 policies have been issued. In that brief period the company has paid over $,000 in claims. Mr. Maytum's management speaks for itself.

STOVES! STOVES!

Griffiths, of Girardville, Takes the Lead in This Line of Goods.

By reference to an advertisement in another column of to-day's HERALD, Peter Griffiths, of Girardville, announces a big drive in stoves, heaters, ranges and furnaces, new and second-hand, at prices to suit the pocket-books of the workmen. Fifteen cents expended on a round trip ticket on the electric road is all that it will cost you to visit these headquarters for stoves, &c.

Mr. Griffiths is enterprising in making his wants known through the liveliest and best circulated paper in the county.

MINE MISHAPS.

A Miner Turned by an Explosion of Gas.

Harries Moyer, a miner residing on East Coal street, was badly burned about the face and hands by an explosion of gas in Plank Ridge colliery yesterday. He is under the care of Dr. Stein.

Ralph Sharracks, a Polish miner of town, sustained a compound fracture of one of the arms while at work in the Kohinoor colliery on Thursday. As he was standing on a barrel a piece of falling coal struck and knocked him down. He fell with his arm under him.

For all Rheumatic diseases use Dr. Richter's imported "Anchor" Pain Expeller. It quickly allays all pain, at 50 cents a bottle. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirilin, J. M. Hillan and other druggists.

The voters of this district are an intelligent body of citizens, and they want an able representative in the Legislature. In the person of J. J. Coyle they find such a man.

Party at Ellengowan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buchanan celebrated their silver wedding on Wednesday evening. A large number of relatives and friends were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Broughall, Mr. and Mrs. James Broughall, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Amour, Mr. and Mrs. William Coakley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beach, Mrs. Frost and daughter, Miss Maggie, Miss Mary Amour, Messrs. Wal. Wright and Thomas Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Broughall, Mr. and Mrs. Britton, Shenandoah; Mr. and Mrs. James Ratcliff, Mahanoy City. A splendid repast was set out for the visitors to which ample justice was done. The couple received many handsome and useful presents.

Cheaper Beer.

Allentown brewers are furnishing up country towns with beer at $1.50 less per barrel than is being furnished by other brewers and this beer is fast superseding the dearer brands. An effort will be made to introduce it in this county.

Important Notice.

Commencing Sunday, October 16th, water will be supplied only between the hours of 7 and 9 a. m., and from 4 to 6 p. m., until relief comes.

Buried Yesterday.

The young man, Burns, who was killed at Ellengowan on Tuesday, was buried yesterday.
