

P. J. MONAGHAN 28 South Main St. HEADQUARTERS FOR DRY GOODS! COATS Carpets and Oil Cloth

Everything a Decided Bargain. GENTS' Natural Wool Suits, worth $2.00, sold now for $1.50.

Free Lunch. Free Lunch. FREE LUNCH EVERY EVENING

SCHEIDER'S, Baker's Old Stand. JOHN F. PLOPPERT'S Bakery: and Confectionery.

Platt's Popular Saloon, 19 and 21 West Oak Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

Fishing Creek Buckwheat Flour THE TIME Is now at hand for cleaning house and putting up stoves.

OIL CLOTH AND LINOLEUM. Our two-yard wide Floor Oil Cloth at 50 cents is extra quality for the price.

AT KEITER'S

Read! And be convinced that Dives, POMEROY Stewart Have laid in the supply of Comforts AND Blankets

A Ten-day Sale will close out this lot: 100 pairs 10-4 Gray Blankets, at 75c a pair.

White Blankets: 500 pairs, ranging in price from 75c to $1.25 a pair.

Headquarters for Blankets, Comforts and Woolen Goods. DIVES, POMEROY & STEWART

25 CTS. PER YARD FOR OIL CLOTH. Others for 35, 45, 50c and upwards.

REV. O'REILLY HONORED SILVER ANNIVERSARY OF HIS ORDINATION.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS A PRIEST. The Reverend Gentleman Gloriously Surprised by his Parishioners Who Presented Him a Handsome Purse.

THE event that took place in the hall of the Annunciation T. A. B. Society will always be remembered as one of the most brilliant and effective incidents in connection with the Annunciation church, and Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, who yesterday reached the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, will always look upon the event as one of the happiest of his life.

For several days past the parishioners of the Annunciation church had been industriously but quietly engineering some plan, but so well did they cover their movements and plans none but those entrusted with the secret had the slightest idea of what was to happen.

Upwards of four hundred of the parishioners gathered in the hall of the Annunciation church last evening and patiently awaited the report of a committee of fifty that had been sent to the residence of Rev. O'Reilly to request him to go to the hall and make a few remarks upon the eventful day of his life.

Rev. O'Reilly walked to the hall, accompanied by Mr. P. J. Ferguson. The visiting clergy, the committee of fifty and the three bands followed. As the honored one of the evening entered the hall he was cheered lustily.

When the bands on the streets concluded their serenade Mr. J. J. Franey was called to the front of the platform by Mr. Ferguson and in a most able address made known the real object of the gathering.

"Through this (the Catholic) church your lot was cast here in this inhospitable piece of Columbia's land; the scenes, surroundings, discouragements and discomforts you had to contend with I need not recount.

Just opened in the Robbins' building, 291 West Centre street, Hoffman's old stand, a new photograph gallery, where we make tintypes a specialty. Call and see us.

spared to us is the ardent desire of your affectionate and grateful people.

Mr. Franey handed Rev. O'Reilly a bag containing about $625 in coin and at the same time called attention to a ten-dollar bill attached to the neck of the bag with a slip of paper bearing the words: "The compliments of Mrs. Grant, as a token of Scotch friendship."

Several minutes elapsed before Rev. O'Reilly could respond. He was evidently deeply affected, but he spoke in a deliberate, conversational tone and made an exceedingly graceful acknowledgement of the gift.

When Rev. O'Reilly concluded his remarks he was invited to the old T. A. B. hall, where a banquet was prepared. As he crossed the floor to leave the room, followed by the guests of the evening and the parishioners.

The banquet hall presented a gorgeous appearance. Three great, long tables were elaborately spread for two hundred people, but before the close of the evening eight hundred must have partook of the hospitality of the committee.

The committee that had charge of the arrangements for the presentation comprised the following gentlemen: P. J. Ferguson, John A. Reilly, M. Mellet, J. J. Franey, B. J. Monaghan, M. D. Malone, H. J. Muldoon and C. J. Quinn.

"The Fairies' Well." The Philadelphia Item in speaking of "Fairies' Well," which is to appear in Ferguson's theatre, to-morrow evening, October 20th, says: George Timmons as Teddy O'Neil won all hearts by his simple, natural style of acting.

New Photograph Gallery. Just opened in the Robbins' building, 291 West Centre street, Hoffman's old stand, a new photograph gallery, where we make tintypes a specialty.

Miss Ollie Morgan and Robert Durham were married last evening by Rev. J. Proude, at the residence of the bride's parents, 294 North Chestnut street.

A LAW SUIT MAY FOLLOW

THE RECENT KILLING OF ANTHONY MCGUIRE.

AN INQUEST HELD LAST NIGHT To Fix the Responsibility for the Circumstances That Led to the Accident at Kohinoor Colliery.

IT is quite likely that a law suit will grow out of the accident that resulted in the death of Anthony McGuire on the highway near Kohinoor colliery about ten days ago.

The people residing at the east end of Centre street are complaining that the sanitary condition of that section of the town is miserable. Their cellars are flooded with stagnant water and a deep ditch filled with rubbish of all kinds is a source of great annoyance.

Files or Hemorrhoids. Permanently cured without knife or ligature. No danger or suffering. No delay from business while under treatment.

Truck Laying Completed. The work of laying the tracks of the Schuylkill Traction Company is about completed on Centre street, and on Monday the main body of the men will be put to work on the extension of the tracks between the power house and Ashland.

Electric Railway Change. Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Main and Centre streets at 5:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave.

Broken the Plank. It is reported that Mrs. Bradley of the First ward will have a bill of damages to present against the borough for injuries one of her horses sustained a few days ago by breaking through the planking of the bridge at the east end of Centre street.

Fresh Morris River Cove Oysters received daily at Coslett's. 9-22-92

Lost Articles. While in the crowd at the jubilee celebration last evening Policeman Tempest lost his valuable watch chain. He made known the loss and later in the evening the chain was returned by a gentleman Mr. Tempest does not know.

ANDERSON.—On the 19th inst. at Shenandoah, Pa., Thomas, son of Robert and Mary J. Anderson, aged 7 years and 7 months. Funeral will take place on Friday, 21st inst., at 12:30 p. m., from the family residence, 119 East Coal street.

REPORTORIAL REFLECTIONS.

Themes Upon Which They Find Time to Comment. Yesterday several people complained to Chief Burgess Smith that a woman was walking about the streets with a sick baby in her arms and the appearance of the child indicated that it had scarlet fever.

I am informed that the contract for the new water works will be ready for the Borough Council to pass upon on Thursday evening and that Quinn & Kerns propose to start work under it next week.

The electric railway cars were run down Main street over the extension as far as Oak street yesterday and to-morrow will probably be running down no Cherry. The street presents a far better appearance than was expected.

It is expected that the ground work of the electric railway will be completed this evening. The overhead work from Gilberton to St. Nicholas is finished and work has begun on the trestle at the latter place.

The Grant Band has decided that the present condition of its treasury will not allow it to re-engage Prof. Zeitz as its instructor for this season and Mr. John M. Schoppe, one of the Schoppe family who figure prominently in the band and as members of the orchestra bearing the name, has been engaged as instructor.

The sports who went to Ashland Monday night to see the Gibson-McHale "scrap" were few in numbers and the home attendance was equally as poor. In short, the "scrap" was a failure.

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Two Grand Balls. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will hold a grand ball in Robbins' opera house to-morrow evening. The Schoppe orchestra has been engaged and railroad men from all sections of the region and their ladies will be present.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once. Type For Sale. We have 300 pounds minimum, more or less, which we will sell cheap for cash, having no further use for the same. Apply at HERALD office. Carpet Beaters, all kinds, at C. D. Fricke's Carpet Store. Patronize the Trainmen's ball, Thursday evening. 10-17-92