LL arrangements are made for the celebration of Columbus Day town to-morrow The line and route of the joint parade have been decided upon by the committee and is given in full below.

The parade will move compily at 2 o'clock. It is hoped all the embers of all societies, together with all the borough officials and citizens, will be on hand promptly, so that there may be no delay In starting and no hitch in carrying out the

There will be two parades to-morrow and key should not be confused.

The public school parade will take place in he morning and will move promptly at 10:30 'elock.

The joint parade of societies, School Board, Borough Council, other borough offidals, fire companies and citizens will take place in the afternoon, moving promptly at 2

Superintendent Freeman and all the chool officials hope that all the school children will be in line and special attention is called to the fact that children will be expected to appear in their ordinary school attire. This parade will be the feature of the day and will undoubtedly attract a large number of visitors to town.

The programme given below for the joint sarade embraces nearly all the societies in the town, but there are a few who have not had time to act upon the invitations yet and the parade will probably show more in line than is shown by the list. It is estimated that the marching numbers will run about four thousand,

THE MONUMENT FUND.

Figures Gradually Increasing-Next Week

The Pottsville Republican last night asked "What about the soldiers' monument?" We would say that it is all right. Some very effective work is going on and before the close of next we k we expect to see the $1,000 mark reached.

But to answer the question in a more subciantial manner we append the following list of pledges handed in this morning;

M. Michoel, Pottsville. John C. Fox, Pottsville...... Ctrist Scielly, Pottsville.....

Previously reported.

Grand total.

The monument committee will meet or the 25th inst., and by that time some verencouraging reports will be ready.

SPEAKERS IN ROBBINS' HALL LAST NIGHT

THERE WAS LITTLE ENTHUSIASM

The Voters in Attendance Were Evidently Divided on the Judgeship Candidacy-Nash Speaks for Pershing.

semperate of town didn't enthuse very enthusiastically In at in Robbins' opera house had a respectable attendance, but there was Democrat. room for the great many who did not attend. The old time rally ring was absent. There were only two occasions when the spectators seemed to realize that they were at a Democratic mass meeting and they were when Lawyer Wadlinger took up help manage the Almshouse the next three "Davy" Hill's elogan "I am still a Democrat" and when Frank Spiese finished an anecdote

Hand bills advocating the cause of Ryon; the independent candidate for Judge, wer liberally distributed about the hall and pasted up on the walls and seemed to keep lown the spirit of the regulars when Pershing's name was mentioned. There was an unmistakable coolness when either Ryon or Pershing were named. The sentiment was divided and the spectators in the gallery could easily distinguish the supporten of the respective candidates when their names were mentioned. The applause came out in spots, Of course when candidate Kock's name was nentioned there was no applicase, neither was their any opposite expression of feeling. compliment as could be paid him on a Republican platform.

It was half past eight before the Annunciation band appeared at the hall and set the ball rolling by rendering some of its selections. Then H. J. Muldoon called the meeting to order. 'Squire Monaghan was made chairman and Henry Knevels and Frank Hanns secretaries. The chairman left for Philadelphia to-day, where she will read a long list of Vice Presidents, among them being John A. Reilly, George Folmer, M. H. Master, F. J. Portz, Charles Radzlewicz, John J. Bobbin, Christ Schmidt and John A. Nash, Esq., was the first speaker He said he was not feeling well and this was probably the case, as at no time did he get worked up to his subject. Mr. Nash devoted most of his remarks to Judge Pershing and urged that he be supported by the Democrats in preference to Ryon. He declared that Pershing is not a corporation Judge or that he wears the collar of the Philadelphia and Reading Company.

George J. Wadlinger, Esq., was next in troduced. He praised the Democrats who William E., three-year-old son of Edward stood by him when he was a candidate for Judge last year, but emptied the vials of wrath upon the heads of those who deserted him. Though he fell outside the breastworks, wounded and bleeding, "I am still a Democrat." Mr. Wadlinger spoke for some minutes on the tariff issues, but only medals awarded to the manufacturers of this touched upon the wild cat bank issue by valuable preparation. For sale at C. Frank Spiese, of Tamaqua, was the next cave the corner of Main and Centre streets and last speaker. He directed his remarks at 5:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes to the tariff issues. He denounced the McKinley bill and declared that the free trade arguments made by the Republican party are unworthy of notice. He also declared the claim that the Republican party saved the Union was a false one and that it should not be considered. It was senr 11 o'clock when Mr. Spiese concluded his remarks and the meeting adjourned.
