AN IMPORTANT MEETING

LENGTHY MEETING OF COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

HEALTH ORDINANCE ADOPTED

Physicians Must Report all Contagious Diseases Promptly With Names and Residences of the Victims.

COUNCIL met last evening and after a session lasting four hours and a quarter completed some of the most important business of the year, covering the extension of the P. & R. freight depot, providing for measures to restrict the spread of contagious diseases, received the bond of Quinn and Kerns, who received the contract to construct the borough water works, and awarded the contract for street paving.

Mr. T. J. Davies, for the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, stated that the company wished to extend its freight warehouse about 75 feet and would like to extend it across the upper end of Market alley and that it would be necessary for the company to take about 50 feet of the alley to carry out its plans. He said it was intended to extend the depot to Main street and use the west end for offices. The request was granted.

An ordinance was adopted providing that it shall be the duty of any physician or physicians practicing in the borough to make known to the Chief Burgess of said borough, or the chairman of the sanitary committee, any and all cases of contagious or infective diseases of any epidemic nature within five hours after the same shall come to his or their knowledge together with the name of the patient or patients and the residence of the same. Immediately upon the notification the Chief Burgess and sanitary committee will take steps to quarantine, or otherwise act in the matter as prescribed by the ordinance for the prevention of small pox cases. Physicians will be liable to a fine of at least $25 and not more than $50 for each violation of the ordinance.

Mr. Quinn, of the firm of Quinn and Kerns, contractors for the new water works, presented a bond and proposed collector. They were referred to the Borough Solicitor for investigation. The bond is in the sum of $40,000 and the sureties are John A. Reilly, of town, and E. J. Gaynor. Mr. Quinn said his firm would expect to be paid monthly for the work as it progresses. He said the firm intended to put three gangs of men at work next week, to clear the sites for the pipe line and the reservoir and dam sites. The following amendment was made to the minutes of the last meeting: "That all work done by the contractors will be paid for and if any litigation arises whereby the borough may be prevented from doing any more work, at such time the contractors shall stop all work and the borough shall not be held responsible for damages for breach of contract. If the suits are decided in the borough's favor the work shall be resumed.

On motion, it was decided to grant the request of petitioners to pave the two squares on Main street, between Centre and Cherry streets, and that an ordinance to that effect be drawn. It was also decided that Belgian blocks be used and that the contract be awarded to Thomas Grant, the price being $3 per square yard. Mr. Grant was present and said he would take the street in its present condition and reduce it to the proper grade. Mr. Grant will begin work on Monday morning.

Council decided to hire carriages for the members to participate in the parade to-day.

When Nature Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

POTTSTVILLE LETTER.

Interesting Political Contribution by Our Regular Correspondent.

POTTSTVILLE, Oct. 20.—The campaign on the part of the Republican party was fairly opened last night by a grand parade of the clubs, equipped with new uniforms and torchlights and headed by the Third Brigade Band. All along the route of the procession the enthusiasm, which started at the Central Club house, was kept up by cheering and fireworks and especially on Centre street, where the greatest throngs had assembled, was the pyrotechnic display the finest. Altogether the demonstration was very creditable and the heads of the several organizations which participated are entitled to great praise. After the parade a meeting was organized at Robbins' hall which was addressed by George Gerber, Esq., and Hon. John T. Shoener.

Political matters will be lively from now on you may depend, and that the Republicans will take their share of the glory and reap their proportion of the fruits you may wager.

A NON-PARTISAN JUDICIARY. Meanwhile there is great activity manifested by all parties in all parts of the county. Meetings are nightly held and the lawyers have given up all notion of attending to their clients for the less lucrative business of stump oratory. But by far the most effective work is being done by individual canvassing. The Pershing people are confining themselves to a curb stone campaign here, while their speedmakers are whooping it up in the country districts. Both these on the stump and the curbstone are making a hullabaloo over what they call a non-partisan judiciary. It is only when Judge Pershing is running that his managers get up a howl about an alleged non-partisan judiciary and never have they been known to mention this compound-catch-campaign canard at any other time. Now I have looked carefully over the platforms of both Republican and Democratic conventions which named the two county tickets, and I claim to be anything else but stupid, and I fail to find a single word on the subject which these goody-goody champions of the twenty-year incumbent on the bench call a non-partisan judiciary.

A PRONOUNCED PARTISAN. It is the veriest essence of rot to make this claim in behalf of a man who is such a pronounced partisan, and has seen all his life, not that the charge is made by me or any one who favors the election of the Republican nominee that he is partisan in his judicial capacity, but it should be distinctly understood that he was brought here as a Democrat, endeavored to get a Democratic nomination in 1872, tried it again in 1882, and this year succeeded, after the Republicans had seen fit to serve notice on him that they had another man who they preferred for a position which had been held for twenty years by a judge elected mainly by their aid and a man who could be just as much a non-partisan judge as any one other party could name, and especially the man who was afterwards nominated in a partisan convention.

It might be also mentioned that in 1875 Judge Pershing had the partisan nomination for Governor of the Democratic convention which assembled at Erie. And he placed himself squarely on that convention's partisan platform. All this while he was sitting on the bench in this county as president judge.

Let us hear no more nonsense about a non-partisan judiciary. N.

PARADE OF THE SCHOOLS

THE CHILDREN CELEBRATE COLUMBUS DAY.

FORTY-FOUR SCHOOLS IN LINE

Over Two Thousand Children in Line—They Made an Attractive and Pleasing Appearance—The Exercises.

THE public schools of Shenandoah to-day celebrated the 400th anniversary of the Discovery of America this morning in a most pleasing and interesting manner. There was a street parade and indoor and outdoor exercises as prescribed by the programme issued by the executive committee of the Columbian Public School Celebration Committee. Forty-four schools, embracing upwards of 2,000 pupils took part in the celebration and entered into the work with a spirit that brought excellent results. Promptly at 9 o'clock all the schools were in their respective quarters and commenced their exercises. Each school had a programme as prescribed by the national committee, each school had the national flag at hand, and almost every pupil carried a small flag. The pupils felt their responsibility in the celebration.

The programme of the High school was especially interesting. There were three essays, "Columbus" by John W. Campbell; "Isabella" by Miss Mary M. Pomeroy; and a third, "Growth of our Country" by Henry Czerwinski. There were also two declamations, "Christopher C." by Miss Fanny Davis, and "A Personal Reminiscence of Columbus" by William James. Bernard J. Durkin and Misses Alice Leche and Daisy Hreshead Irving's Description of Columbus. First Voyage. Added to this programme were two songs by the school, "Song of Columbus Day" and "Star Spangled Banner."

Upon the conclusion of the indoor exercises and at 10:15 a. m. the drum corps made up of pupils of the schools marched down Main street to the headquarters of Watkins Waters Post, No. 146, G. A. R. There the veterans were met and headed by the drum corps they marched up to the corner of Line and Main streets to form for the parade.

The line moved at 10:30 o'clock in the following order:

- Drum Corps. Grand Army of the Republic. Pupils of the High School. Teacher. Second Grade Grammar Schools. Teacher. First Grade Grammar Schools. Teacher. Fourth Grade Primary Schools. Teacher. Third Grade Primary Schools. Teacher. Second Grade Primary Schools. Teacher. First Grade Primary Schools.

The line of parade was down Main street from Line to Centre; east to White; south to Oak; west to Jardin; north to Lloyd; east to Main; north on Main to position in front of the High school building for the exercises. The pupils were arranged in classes inside and outside the railing in front of the building. Upon a signal all the pupils joined in singing "Before all Lands." Then the G. A. R. veterans stepped to the front and pulled the flag to the top of the staff. As the flag reached the top of the staff the veterans led the assemblage in "Three Cheers for 'Old Glory.'" Following this was the salute to the flag by the schools. The salute embraced ten motions, the last being the pointing of the index finger of the right hand to the unfurled flag, and the words in chorus "One flag." All the schools then joined in singing "The Red, White and Blue." The song "Columbia Hall" followed and then Guy Keiper, a pupil of the High school, delivered an address on "The Meaning of the Four Centuries." The song of Columbus Day was given by the High school. Following this was the delivery of the ode, "Columbia's Banner" by Miss Hannah Scanlan, and the singing of "America," which closed the exercises.

The High school classes entered the building and the others marched down Main street to Centre, where they separated, going east and west to their respective schools. Arriving at their quarters, the schools were formally dismissed.

Apples Scarce. Of all our winter fruits there are none the scarcity of which is as generally felt as that of the apple. This year they are not only scarce, but it is a rare thing to get hold of one that can be called perfect, or nearly so. The failure of the crop is almost universal. Happily, intelligence from Florida gives assurance of a bountiful yield of oranges, and in the course of a fortnight they will reach our market, but however plentiful oranges may be, they will not fill the void created by the failure of the apple.

Figs or Hemorrhoids. Permanently cured without knife or ligature. No danger or suffering. No delay from business while under treatment. Patients who are responsible need not pay until well. A perfect cure guaranteed. Send for circular. R. REED, M. D., 129 South 12th St., Philadelphia.
