Prevailing Disease.

Between cholera infantum in the summer and diphtheria in the fall and winter months, the little ones have a hard time of it, as is palpably shown by the mortality records. Surely there ought to be some means whereby diphtheria's almost undisputed sway could be checked. Neither money nor labor should be spared in order to bring about such a result.

Innocent Daughter—"Oh, Papa! may I? It is just what he wanted, but was too bashful to ask you!"

She—"I should think he might be. It is only too evident that you are my full brother."

NEW WAGNER BUFFET SLEEPING CARS

A reason for the faith that is in him—A responsive citizen of the South writes: From observation covering a great number of cases I unhesitatingly pronounce Salivation Oil to be the most wonderful remedy for burns I have ever tried.
