FINE GROCERIES THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR. Delegates From All Parts of the County Here.

The fall convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of this county is new being held in this town. Up to this morning one hundred and twenty delegates had reported, but many more were enrolled during the day.

The convention opened in the Presbyterian church yesterday, at 4:30 p. m., by praise service under the direction of Rev. J. C. Kranse, of Pottsville. The balance of the cesion was taken up by routine business.

The evening session opened at 2:30 o'clock with praise service by Prof. E. D. Beddall, of Ray, William McNally then delivered an ddress of welcome to the delegates. He spoke in his usual cordial and witty manner and made the visitors feel at home. The address was gracefully responded to by Mr. C. Silliman, Jr., of Pottsville.

After singing by the united choirs the resident of the convention, Mr. Brown, of Mahanoy City, read the scriptures and Rev. Zimmerman, of Mahanoy City, led in prayer. you have never seen before.

The principal feature of the evening's programme was an address by Rev. R. M. Buchanan, pastor of the Mauch Chunk Presbyteriau church, on "Faith and Facts." He said that we can have faith only as we have facts. The facts are found in the Word. We must appeal to them and accept their veracity in order to have genuine faith. An appeal to the facts of scripture will upheld us in the hour when tempted to deabt the vital truths of our religion. The speaker further sseried timt an appeal to experience was sential to strengthen faith. The address was eloquent and pointed throughout. It was a most interesting and profitable address a great blessing to the work or the Christian

At the close of Rev. Buchanan's address : scial hour was spent in the reception of delegates. The Primitive Methodist, Presby erian and Evangelical choirs and several members of the societies entertained the large andience. The church was crowded to its utmost especity.

MORNING SESSION.

The first service in connection with the The worst are imported from convention to-day was a morning prayer Germany. The best are Macneeting at 7 o'clock. More than one hun- beth's "Pearl-top" & "Pearl-glass." dred persons attended this early meeting,

At 9 a. m. the first session was held. After senson of praise and prayer conducted by Rev. Mr. Marguardt, of Tomaqua, the first address was by Rev. J. P. Zimmerman, of Embrace Christian Endeavor Work?" The draft; they smoke.

Short reports from each society in the ounty were then given and some good pecial features in Christian Endeaver work vere reported. The entire Union of Schuyl! kill number over 2,000 members and the work is progressing all along the line.

Many societies have organized junior Christian Endeavor societies and report that this new feature is doing more good for Christ and the church than any other feature of the society.

Special work was also reported on mission

Mr. W. K. Woodbury, of Pettsville, gave an address on "Relation of the Christian Endeavor Society to the Conversion of the World." The necessity of the hand to hand stormy weather? It brings slop work was first emphasized. The needs of and mud; and this is time of China and India were dwelt upon and the ery from these countries for more help year that you want good and was pictured. The speaker then dwelt on substantial Shoes to stand the the foreign element within our own borders and aboved the need of foreign such shoes for both old and prehensiveness or area of the work; second, Home M. A series of diagrams used by the speaker were useful. In enforcing the truths enunciated. The fulfillment of the proenergetic work for Christ and his church in the field of missions. The good work among the freedmen of the South enthused every heart. Twenty-seven years ago a negro was forbidden by law to learn to read. What have we now? 2,500,000 can read! 20,000 teachers, 66 academies, 1,000 college-bred ministers, 750 doctors, 250 in universities of Europe and the negroes of this country own $264,000,000 of property.

Miss Eather Newlin, of Port Carbon, rend an interesting paper on "How to maintain an interest in the work of our societies." We regret that space forbids an extended report of this paper. It was well prepared, well read and well received by the convention Miss Newlin is an intelligent, practical young lady, and will be gladly heard again.
