GENTLEMEN:—Allow me to extend my hearty thanks for the prompt payment of $78, the full amount due upon the life of my son, Garfield Brown, who died on Wednesday.

GENTLEMEN:—Please accept the thanks of a grateful father for the prompt manner in which the claim of $100 was paid through your superintendent on my daughter, Anna McAndrews.

GENTLEMEN:—Please accept my sincere thanks for the prompt payment of $21, the full amount due on certificate 09,902 issued upon the life of my daughter, Catharine Mitchell.

It is a plain fact that twenty per cent. of the deaths in our larger cities are caused by consumption and when we reflect that this terrible disease can be forestalled by Dr. Hall's Cough Syrup, shall we condemn the sufferers for their negligence, or pity them for their ignorance.

A Great Treat for the Children. Saturday afternoon there will be a grand children's matinee at the New Orleans Museum and Glassblowers, in Robbins' opera house, when each child will receive a beautiful present made by the glassblowers, and see rare animals, birds and other curiosities they may never see again.

HEAPS O' TROUBLE COMING THE PENDING AND COMING LAW SUITS. WHICH INTEREST THE PEOPLE Ex-Senator Torbett, the Girard Estate and Philadelphia and Reading Company Threaten to Sue.

ASSES for trial at court seem to be heaping upon the borough, and if one-half of them are sustained all the license money that may be received next spring will be required to pay costs and expenses.

It was understood to-day that ex-Senator Torbett, the Girard Estate and P. & R. C. & I. Co. are making arrangements to sue the borough for trespass.

It seems the points are these: It is true that Messrs. Quinn and Kerns have made a contract whereby they will not hold the borough liable for damages for breach of contract, but the borough is no wise shielded against suits for damages for trespass that may be brought against it by the owners of properties upon which Messrs. Quinn and Kerns have commenced work.

Another suit was instituted against the borough yesterday through S. G. M. Hollenpeter and T. K. Beddall, Esqs. Constable Tallies Phillips is the complainant and he wants $5,000 damages. He alleges that the borough wantonly and wilfully allowed dirt, filth, rubbish and excrement to flow down upon the public highway and becoming deposited in front of his residence on North White street, by reason of which his children were rendered grievously sick and one of them died.

GENTLEMEN:—Permit me also to thank you for the prompt manner in which your superintendent, Wm. T. Evans, paid the claim on my little daughter, Martha.

GENTLEMEN:—Please accept my sincere thanks for the prompt payment of $21, the full amount due on certificate 09,902 issued upon the life of my daughter, Catharine Mitchell.

OBES OBSERVATIONS. What He Sees and Hears During His Travels. Chief Burgess Smith says that as soon as the sample ballots are ready for distribution booths will be arranged in every ward in town in order to give the people a chance to learn how the elections are conducted under the Baker ballot law.

Candidate time is fully ripe now and not a night passes but some preliminary of one of the parties is in town "setting 'em up." All the candidates receive cordial welcomes and none are ever lonely. They have plenty company from the time they leave the depot until they return to it to go home.

The Polish and Hungarian miners who were thrown into yesterday by the shutting down of the collieries were by no means at a loss for something to do. Hundreds of them flocked to the coal banks and breakers and filled immense sacks with coal for winter use.

It is stated upon what appears to be excellent authority that the work of paving the streets will begin seriously next Monday. This work will not include the laying of stones, but only the cutting down of the streets to the required grade.

Some people of town seem dissatisfied with the verdict of the coroner's jury in the Temple case. They seem to think that the motor man and railway company should have been censured on general principles, if for nothing else.

People who wish to take an interest in the soldiers' monument movement and who would like to have all views on the selection of a site considered should lose no time in seeing the committee having the matter in hand and making a full breast of all they have to say.

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Miss Mattie Hopkinson and William D. Tyler, of Bramwell, West Virginia, were married at 12 o'clock to-day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Keiser, on East Line street, Rev. Marks, of the Protestant Episcopal church, of St. Clair, officiating at the ceremony.

Best work done at Brennan's Steam Laundry. Everything white and spotless. Lace curtains a specialty. All work guaranteed.

The museum and glassblowers at Robbins' opera house are giving a first class instructive exhibition. The collection of animals is very rare and entertaining. The dancing in the evening is enjoyed by all, so if you want to enjoy yourself this week, go to the glassblowers.

KILLED ON THE RAIL! THE TERRIBLE FATE OF A CONDUCTOR. HIS STRUGGLE AGAINST DEATH A Parting of the Coupling Link Caused his Train to Part and He Fell Beneath the Wheels. Body Mangled.

COAL train conductor on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, named Moore, met with a horrible death on the track near Colorado last night. The train parted owing to the breaking of a coupling link and Moore fell in front of the rear section of the car.

ANOTHER PLEDGE. Another Gift for the Soldiers' Monument Fund.

The HERALD was to-day requested to state that Washington Camp, No. 123, P. O. S. of A., has pledged itself to contribute ten dollars towards the soldiers' monument fund and D. G. Richards has been elected to represent the camp on the general committee.

The pledges were taken and published with the understanding that those making them would not be called upon to turn over the money until a regular organization should be effected and an official treasurer selected.

It is quite likely that the list of pledges published in the HERALD heretofore will be furnished to the treasurer. If all the parties who have pledged themselves come up to time the fund will have the splendid start of $708.

Does Advertising Pay? Last evening the HERALD announced that a gentleman and his wife on their way from Philadelphia to Centralia to visit friends, stopped at the depot in town a few minutes and the gentleman reported that he had lost his railway pass and had requested that the finder be asked to leave it at the HERALD office.

New Photograph Gallery. Just opened in the Robbins' building, 293 West Centre street, Hoffman's old stand, a new photograph gallery, where we make tintypes a specialty. Call and see us.

A Delightful Party. Miss Caroline Steadman last evening entertained a large number of her friends at her residence on West Coal street. A splendid table was spread for the occasion, an orchestra was in attendance, and games of all kinds were played.

AN ADDRESS. Issued to the Voters of Schuylkill County. GENTLEMEN:—A peculiar state of affairs exists in Schuylkill county as far as the contest for President Judge is concerned. At the late Democratic County Convention, Judge Pershing received the nomination for the judgeship, receiving 5,022 votes to 3,422 cast for John W. Ryan, his opponent, a clear majority of 1,620 votes.

In a statement made by Mr. Ryan, and published in some of the newspapers of the county, he claims that the farming districts voted solidly for him, and the mining districts for Judge Pershing. A reference to the official vote in the convention will show that the statement is not correct, and not being correct, the inference is plain that it was made to mislead.

From these figures it can be readily seen that the statement made by Mr. Ryan that the farming districts voted for him, and the mining districts for his opponent, does not agree with the official ballot, which is at all times open for the inspection of any person or persons desiring to examine it.

Mr. Ryan also alleges that the Reading Company influenced the convention so as to defeat him. If the Reading Company was interested in the judgeship contest to the extent that Mr. Ryan would have the public believe, and were disposed to coerce their employees, as he insinuates, does any one suppose that employees of that company would go into the convention and vote for Mr. Ryan, knowing that their votes would be recorded, and that the records of the convention would be open for public inspection?

Of the delegates in the convention, 75 were employed by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Companies. Most of the 75 by the latter company in and about the collieries. Of these 75 delegates, 51 voted for Judge Pershing and 24, or about one-third, voted for Mr. Ryan.

Mr. Ryan also says that bosses in the employ of the Reading Company were on the floor of the convention to see that the employees voted for Judge Pershing. How singular it is that if the bosses referred to were in the convention, for the purpose stated, that so many of the employees voted for Mr. Ryan. The statement is made for the purpose of creating prejudice in the minds of the voters, and not because it is true.

There were no bosses of the Reading Company on the floor of the convention for any purpose whatever, either as delegates or in any other capacity, and no tickets were issued to bosses of the Reading Companies for admission to the floor of the convention, as stated in Mr. Ryan's address.

Mr. Ryan also alleges that delegates were bribed to vote against him. A positive denial is made to this statement. There was no bribery or corruption resorted to by any one in the interests of Judge Pershing, and the charge is made for the purpose of reflecting on the nominee for Judge, and the parties who made it knew that it was unfounded.

There is one remark in Mr. Ryan's address, that is to say the least, very remarkable. Speaking of Judge Pershing the address refers to him as "a man who had defeated the Democratic party for 20 years." This is intended, no doubt, to convey the impression that Judge Pershing has been hostile to the Democratic party. When it is considered that Judge Pershing before he came to this county was elected to the Legislature from Cambria for several terms as a Democrat; that while he was a resident of that county he was the Democratic nominee for Supreme Judge of Pennsylvania...
