AN ADDRESS.

sylvania—that since he has been a resident of this county he was honored with the nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania on the Democratic ticket, and that as a resident of Shenoykill county he has always been a Democrat, the charge that he defeated the Democratic Party in the county for 20 years, is certainly doing him a great injustice.

The Ryan movement is for the sole and avowed purpose of defeating Judge Pershing. John W. Ryan can have no hope of being elected. All he expects to do is to demoralize the Democrats, as to bring about the defeat of the regular nominee, whose record on the bench in Shenoykill county has been such that the people of the county, irrespective of party, point to it with pride.

It is not a new thing for John W. Ryan to bolt the nominees of the Democratic party. He opposed James B. Reilly for Congress in 1874, after being a candidate himself in the convention that nominated Mr. Reilly. He opposed him over his own signature, and by hand bills, and in the newspapers, and his opposition was such that Mr. Reilly's majority that year was cut down to about 500, or less.

Again in 1882, John W. Ryan opposed Mr. Reilly, and endorsed Judge Pershing as a proper person to be elected Judge as against Mr. Reilly. Why is not Judge Pershing a proper person to be elected Judge as against John W. Ryan?

This year it is reported on good authority that the Ryan people are not only against Judge Pershing, but that they are also against others on the Democratic ticket, and it is known that they tried to induce certain parties to run independent for Congress and District Attorney to oppose the Democratic nominees, and not succeeding in that, they are quietly working up a sentiment to defeat them as well as Judge Pershing.

As Chairman of the Democratic party, I was in and about the late Democratic convention, and the denials and statements herein are based on personal knowledge and reliable information.

WILLIAM A. MAER, Chairman Democratic Committee.

The comic opera, "Mascot," at Ferguson's theatre to-night. Over thirty people in the cast. Do not miss this treat.

NEW SERVICE.

Squire Shoemaker has gone to Buck Horn, Columbia county, to attend the funeral of Hiram Reese, an old friend.

Misses Mame and Laura Boly, of Girardville, spent Tuesday afternoon in town as the guests of the Misses Stein, of West Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Girvin have occupied a cozy, furnished home at the corner of Oak street and Market alley. Mr. Girvin is senior member of the firm of Girvin, Duncan and Waddley.

Joseph Townsend, who left town last July for Small Point, Me., to work for the Diamond Drill Company, has returned to town. After spending two or three weeks with his parents he will again leave for Small Point. "Joe" has a good position under the Diamond company and his many friends are pleased to hear of it.

Season of Opera.

The Boston Comic Opera Company will to-night open a three-night and matinee engagement at Ferguson's theatre. The engagement will be opened with the production of "Mascot." The opera is replete with novelties, dances and marches, songs, catchy music, sparkling choruses, brilliant costumes and a whirlwind of wit, grotesque fun and laughable comedy, then there are fair girls and dark girls, there are short girls and tall girls, there are plump, rosy, piquant girls, there are little languid willowy girls in the "Mascot." As a whole they are a bevy of beauties and both opera and company have been pronounced a grand success and a most exquisite production.

It's Only Spite Work.

The Shenandoah Republican boasts that the Shenandoah Borough Council publishes the ordinance in that paper because it recognizes its value as an advertising medium. The truth is that the advertising is not done by the Borough Council, but by A. R. Lamb and T. H. Van Dusen, the majority members of the room and stationery committee, who are trying to make the HERALD feel the effects of their spite at the expense of the taxpayers. If Messrs. Lamb and Van Dusen can afford to place themselves in such a position before the public the HERALD can stand it.

Republican Meeting.

The Republicans of town will hold a mass meeting on Saturday evening, next, that will be addressed by Mr. J. H. Warwick, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and other prominent speakers.

For School Children.

Don't forget the school children's matinee Saturday afternoon at the Glassblowers in Robbins' opera house when each person will receive a beautiful present free.
