loing great work at headquarters. The ex-chairman has given the Republican organization the benefit of all the means he re-sorted to four years ago to thwart Demo cratic schemes to corrupt the ballot. He bas made a careful study of the new elec-tion law passed by Hill to make the Empire state sais for the Democracy, and has taken steps to check Tammany Hall in the desperate game that is being played to roll up an immense majority for Gleveland with the disc in this city.

Senator Quay's presence here and fre-quent conferences with the leaders has given encouragement and confidence to all Republicans throughout the state. The organization is in line and equipped for victory under shrewd and brilliant leadership

Mr. Cartor's Denial.

New Yong, Oct. 31, --Mr. Thomas H. Carter, chairman of the Republican mo-tional committee, denied 'today the either he or any member of the national Republican committee had been in com-munication with H. C. Friels, of the Car-neerie Homestead works. "The report " munication with H. C. Frick, of the Car-negic Homestead works. "The report," said Mr. Carter, "was evidently put in circulation for the purpose of exciting prejudice against the committee and the cannoit represents. Noither Mr. Frick nor Mr. Carnegic has thought proper to contribute one coult to the fund of this committee. The story to false from end committee. The story is false from end to and."
