AT KEITER'S

THE SOLDIERS' MONUMENT

A MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE CALLED.

THE CHAIRMAN'S URGENT APPEAL

All the Societies of the Town are Requested to Send Representatives—Committee on Site Ready to Report.

The soldiers' monument committee will meet in the Council chamber to-morrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock. This is in accordance with an announcement by Mr. T. J. James, chairman of the committee, who has been notified that the committee appointed to select a site has completed its work and is ready to report.

The exact nature of the report is not known, but it is understood that it will favor a site on East Centre street, between Main and White.

In calling this meeting Chairman James makes an urgent appeal for the attendance of representatives from every society in the town, so that all may have an opportunity to be heard on the question of site and the best method for raising funds.

It is highly essential that the latter question should be settled at once, as many of the organizations and individuals who have pledged themselves to contribute to the fund are desirous of turning the money over to the treasurer.

One of the main questions to be settled is whether or not the committee will issue certificates of stock to people who may contribute. A number of the committee men favor this plan, but do not wish to adopt it until the societies of town have ample opportunity to have a voice in the matter.

The secretary has issued invitations to all the societies and it is hoped they will be well represented at the meeting to-morrow night.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

Reduction of Fare to Go Into Effect Next Monday.

The Shenandoah Traction Company has decided to reduce the fare between town and Girardville to five cents. The reduction will go into effect next Monday.

Superintendent Gillan announces that the cars will leave the corner of Main and Cherry streets every 20 minutes daily until midnight, when the last car will leave for Girardville.

It is expected the Ashland branch of the road will be in operation by December 1st.

Three cars have been sent to Gilberton and will commence running as soon as the track is finished. The entire line between Mahanoy Plains and Mahanoy City will be put in operation at the same time. One hundred men are engaged on this branch.

This will probably be the last week for the open cars. Two closed cars are already ready at the power house and will very likely be put on the road by Saturday evening.

By December 1st the company expects to have ten cars in operation on the Shenandoah-Girardville branch. When the open cars are replaced with the two closed ones six will be in operation and the bodies for four more closed cars have been ordered. Two of them will be placed on the trucks of the summer cars, which will be stored away until the next summer season.

A Modern Marvel.

When The Pittsburg Times took possession of its splendid building last April its publishers promised that The Times would grow in excellence in the same proportion as its quarters have been enlarged. The Times had already won such a proud position among the newspapers of the country that there was general curiosity to know how the promise would be redeemed. That curiosity has been most pleasantly gratified. The Times has been so enlarged, and so many new features have been added, that it is everywhere cited as a marvel of modern journalism. The chief wonder is that a newspaper so complete in every respect can be sold for one cent a day, or $3.00 per year, little more than the cost of a first class weekly paper. If any of our readers are not familiar by personal inspection with the merits of The Times, we advise them to send for a sample copy, which will be mailed free to any address. If there is no agent for The Times in your locality it will pay you to write to The Times for terms to agents.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Interesting Notes on Political Affairs National and Otherwise.

The next Governor of Pennsylvania is doing good work in this campaign.

—And now the Democrats are getting alarmed in this county. The report that the Republicans are going to block the path next Tuesday and thus prevent the Democrats from voting is very silly, to say the least. Give us something harder to digest, dear Chronicle.

—Alex. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, is making free trade speeches in different sections of the state and is booked for Scranton this evening. But Alex. cannot find time to accept Brumm's challenge for a discussion of the tariff question. The latter's debating abilities and his knowledge of the subject are too much for the wily Alex.

—Brumm's election is now a certainty. The female portion of our population are solid for him. Last evening, while on his way to Lost Creek, he was compelled to address a large crowd of the fair sex, who made the car ring with cheers for our next Congressman.

—The New York Tablet, (Catholic), says a strong effort will be made south of the Harlem to keep down the great Democratic majority, and those who recall the splendid Republican showing made in this city in the election of 1890 may confidently look forward for good results. A greater number of Democratic workers will vote the Republican ticket in New York city and Brooklyn than in any past election. The party managers throughout the country districts should therefore take every necessary precaution to bring every Republican voter to the polls. If they come with their normal majority to the Harlem there cannot be any doubt of success.

—A big haul of Tammany floaters—1,500 of them—will be made in a few days. They will be put where their votes wont count.

—Another Irish-Democratic club in New York has gone over to the Republicans.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Special Herald Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—During the past week interest in the political outlook has been overcome by sympathy with and interest in the family of the President, during their sad bereavement.

As but one week remains within which the rest of the campaign work must be done, and the greatest efforts of the leaders of both parties will be exerted in that time, the interest and attention which are directed upon the great political combat are all-absorbing. Throughout the various departments of the government, the election is the one topic of conversation, and incidentally considerable money is wagered on the result. Democratic confidence in the general result has abated somewhat, but they seemingly claim that their candidates will carry New York with their old time assurance.

The appearance of Senator Quay at the Republican headquarters was the theme of conversation and the object of a great deal of speculation. It was surprising to see the general gain in confidence among the Republicans when it was learned that the silent but successful leader of the struggle of 1888 was at the helm. None the less, surprising was the fear as to the result that the event created in Democratic circles. It goes to show that notwithstanding the maligning and criticism to which Pennsylvania's great politician has been subjected, the people generally recognize the fact that the credit for the Republican victory in the last presidential election was very largely due to Senator Quay.

From Indiana the advices of last week are such as are calculated to reassure the friends of the administration, and justify the assertion made in my former letter that the disaffection in the Republican ranks was not wide spread, but was confined to what is known as the Fort Wayne district. The same opposition to President Harrison existed there in 1888, and the fact that it crops out again need cause no especial anxiety.

The advice given by Quay during his sojourn in New York that special attention be given to states other than New York state has increased the activity of both parties in several of the smaller doubtful states. Connecticut this year is more of a puzzle than ever, and it is admitted on both sides that the victory, on whatever side it is, will be by an extremely small margin. The same may be said of West Virginia in regard to which the general opinion seems to be that Secretary of War Elkins holds himself, as it were, personally responsible that his state shall be found in the ranks of the Republican electors.

Little comment is heard here as yet in regard to the political complexion of the next House of Representatives. A statement was given out last week that gave the Democrats 109 members, the Republicans 109, and the remaining 30 members credited to the Third party and Farmer's Alliance, coming chiefly from the south and west. Another estimate gives the Republicans ten plurality, but gives about the same number to the third party.

If the result should be as thus outlined, the fight for speaker in the next House will be more than ordinarily interesting, as neither of the old parties having a majority of the whole House, the small body of third party members would be in a position to dictate as to the entire organization of the House.

What a figure the Hon. Jerry Simpson would present as speaker! F. H.

THE SCHOOL BOARD!

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT.

REDUCTION OF THE TAX RATE

The Increased Assessments Enable the Board to Levy Fifteen Mills Instead of Eighteen. The Cather Property

CHOOL board held its regular monthly meeting last night and arranged several important matters. The directors present were Messrs. Conry, Brennan, Burke, Lynch, Hanna, Muldoon, Boddall, Treasler, Ogden, Bachman, O'Hearn and Williams.

Superintendent Freeman made his monthly report, the substance of which has already appeared in the HERALD. In addition he reported that the night schools opened Tuesday evening with small attendances. Seven teachers are employed in the work.

Applications from the following named teachers for increase of salaries were read: Misses Hattie Hen, Corinne Tumpset, Nellie Baird, Hannah B. Morrison, Mary Roberts and Irene Shane, and Frank Williams.

President Conry said that there is a continued scramble for positions as teachers and as soon as they are secured there is a scramble for increased salaries. He said he believed the board is dealing as good with teachers as any board in the state.

A statement was made that one of the teachers is receiving a larger salary than the other teachers in the same grade, although her class is no larger.

In response to this it was stated that Miss Smith was given a larger salary because, at the time, she had the largest class, but since then the size of the class has been reduced.

The board decided that as all salaries have been fixed for the year the request of the petitioners could not be considered.

A communication from the state department of public instruction requesting the board to have photographs made of the school buildings for display in the school exhibit at the World's Fair was read. Director Boddall made a strong appeal for a compliance with the request, but the pictures were turned toward the request. The board reasoned that school districts that can get along with four and five mills can better afford to furnish photographs than this district. But Messrs. Boddall and Treasler did not alter their opinions on the question.

J. R. Coyle, Esq., solicitor for the board, was present and made a report concerning the Cather property. He said that W. J. McCarthy, Mark Rowman and Squire Christman, the viewers, had decided that the property the board desires for school purposes is worth $4,200. This figure, Mr. Coyle thought, too high. He said he believed that the viewers were influenced in making the valuation by assuming that the rest of the Cather property would be depreciated in value by having a school building adjoining it. Mr. Coyle said that the board could ask for a review if it so desired. He also said that Mr. Breckous, attorney for the Cather, had stated that although the property sought by the board had been assessed at $4,200, Mrs. Cather would take $4,000 for it, or sell the entire property for $7,500; and that Mr. Breckous had also stated that the Cather people had no desire to hold the School Board if it wished to relinquish the property as there are plenty good outside offers for it.

The board instructed Mr. Coyle to notify the Cather attorney that it would relinquish the property.

It is believed the proposed new building will be erected as an addition to the school building at the corner of Centre and West streets.

The finance committee presented a report showing that under the increased assessments the board could reduce the tax rate to 15 mills and yet have more money than it had under the 18 mill rate, whereupon the board adopted a resolution reconsidering the fixing of the tax rate and fixing the rate at 15 mills.

AN OBJECTOR.

The McKinley Bill and Local Steam Heat Company.

EDITOR HERALD.—Allow me space to put in print what seems to me to be the work that is now being done in town by the steam heat company. To begin, let me say I am a Republican, so that anything I may say politically may not be credited to a Republican party under a Democratic cloak. What do you think of this steam heat business, anyway? What do the miners think of it? Now we hear a lot of talk about the McKinley bill keeping everything out of the country that will benefit the workmen, yet we see Democratic capitalists right at home getting up a scheme to do away as much as possible with the coal upon which we rely upon for our daily bread! This great benefactor (?) the steam heating company is going to heat every building in the town and the very product upon which we depend for our wages is to be boycotted. A load of two bushwheat dumped into the electric light house, and there you are! Light and heat for everybody, but coal goes on the played-out list. How do the miners like this for a Democratic doctrine? And yet we see the Democratic stockholders in this electric light and steam heat company hold their hands up and shiver with terror when the McKinley bill is spoken. I say, Mr. Editor, let the McKinley bill be upheld. If we don't uphold it they will be flooding the country with light and heat in bottles from the old country and then we won't have a market for even the coal dirt. But it is not only the demand for coal that is cut down by this steam heat scheme, look at the poor cripples who depend upon hauling for a living! What are they to do in the future—wind? The Democrats tell us that their party is the workmen's friend. I tell the miners of this place that the first man to put the steam heat in his house here was a genuine, dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, and I for one kick. DROGGS.

GIRARDVILLE GLEANINGS.

A Newsy Letter From a Wide Awake Correspondent.

The popular Adams Express agent, Peter Cross, met with a serious accident Monday evening. An electric car struck the wagon and Mr. Cross was thrown between the horse and shafts. The horse took fright and ran off, but fortunately it was stopped before Mr. Cross was dangerously injured. The accident was not due to carelessness, but rather to the nervousness of a new motor man, who attempted to stop his car when he saw the wagon, but put on the power instead of shutting it off.

The bell for St. Joseph's Catholic church has arrived. It is said to be the largest in the coal regions and weighs sixteen hundred pounds. When placed in the tower it will be heard miles around.

Monday being a holy day the collieries in this district did not work. Our sporting men shouldered their guns and took a tramp on the mountain. The people in town heard a number of shots, but have failed to see any results. Later, the only visible sign of success is a few pieces of rabbit fur flaring through the air.

Co. F is making extensive preparations for its fair, which will be held during the holidays. Crawford Benito is transacting business in Philadelphia this week. J. L. Tempert's sensational drama "Joe" was played to a crowded house here Tuesday evening. The Star Social Club has changed its dancing school from Thursday to Saturday night. H.

Electric Railway Bulletin.
Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Cherry and Main streets at 5:30 a. m. daily and every 30 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave for Girardville. On Monday, November 7th, 1892, the fare for any length of ride between Shenandoah and Girardville will be reduced to five (5) cents.
