IN THE SOUP WE GO! CLEVELAND WILL BE THE NEXT PRESIDENT.

SOME SURPRISING RETURNS John J. Coyle Defeats the Democratic Candidate for the Legislature in This District.

THE election is over and a sweeping Democratic victory on the National ticket is conceded. So far as the county is concerned it is believed, from the returns now at hand, that the Democratic ticket is elected.

Judge Pershing's election is claimed by about 1,000 plurality.

John J. Coyle, the Republican candidate for the Legislature in this district, defeats John J. Reilly by about 150.

Senator Koeler, the Republican candidate in the 39th senatorial district, is re-elected.

Loch, Cooper and Kennedy, Republican candidates in the Fourth Legislative district, are elected.

Falweller, Democratic Legislative candidate in the Second district, is elected, and Dence in the Third.

In the language of the mourner, "We have met the enemy and we are theirs."

Shenandoah was not near as kind to Harrison and the Republican ticket as she was four years ago.

In 1888 Shenandoah gave Cleveland but 60 plurality. This year she gives Cleveland 300.

The vote this year was nearly two hundred short of that in the last presidential campaign and the Republicans suffered through that.

In 1888 Cleveland polled 1,055 votes and Harrison 955, a total of 2,011. This year Cleveland polled 1,125 and Harrison but 720, a total of 1,851, a net loss in the town of 100.

Cleveland polled 75 more votes this time than he did the last and Harrison polled 260 less.

The national and state Prohibition tickets cut but a small figure here and Bidwell, the candidate for President, polled but 41.

But the People's party fared much worse. Two voters in the Fourth ward dropped their tickets in the slot for Weaver, the candidate for President, and McCune, the candidate for the Supreme Court.

One thing is certain in connection with yesterday's election is that the vote of the town was ruinously behind the mark and the Republicans suffered from it.

There were no striking incidents about the polls yesterday. Everything moved along quietly and no disturbances of any kind occurred. The principal fight of the day seemed to be on the Judgeship, the regular Democrats making a hard fight for Pershing and the independents straining every nerve to pull votes over to Ryan to make a berth for Koch.

The Ryan people made a good fight, but the result is not up to their expectations. Many of his leading local admirers confidently expected that he would get 300 votes here and the Fifth ward was looked to for 125 of them, but fell short of that figure by 55 votes.

The Ryan men were in high glee last night and were confident that Pershing had been completely "snowed under," but today the Pershing people claimed that their man was in the lead with about 1,000 votes to spare.

Notwithstanding this claim, the Ryan people still maintain that an official count will show Koch the winner. The returns from the different parts of the county are coming in so slowly that the judgeship really remains an open question.

There are some people who also pin their faith on the belief that Brumm has defeated Reilly. But this is hardly probable.

The Democrats counted Coyle's election by from 100 to 175. As to the Poor Directorship it is generally conceded that Lemis is defeated.

The returns made by the election officers in the wards of this borough are as follows:

Table with columns for Ward, Republican, Democrat, and Plurality. Includes wards like Harrison, Pershing, and others.

The Baker ballot law is looked upon now by all parties as an excellent system. With a little improvement it will no doubt become quite popular with all except, possibly, the election officers.

Inquiries of the election officers today elicited the statements that the people had a very good understanding of the new ballot law.

But very few ballots were thrown out for irregularity. In the First ward, where mistakes were expected in large numbers, less than half a dozen ballots were thrown out.

Two were handed in with no indication of the voter's wishes upon them. In the Third ward was found a ballot showing that a voter had first written some names, then scratched these out, and labbed in the ticket without another mark.

JEWISH WEDDING.

Shenandoah and Mt. Carmel Parties the Contracting Ones.

The marriage of Miss Ida Levine of town, to Mr. Simon Karnovsky, of Mt. Carmel, was consummated at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Jewish synagogue, on West Oak street.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. I. Levine, was dressed in a cream satin dress, bridal wreath and veil and white kid slippers, and looked very pretty as she murmured the vows which bound her to the man of her choice.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rabbi S. Isakovitch, the bridal party, and invited guests repaired to Robbins' hall, where supper had been prepared.

Mr. and Mrs. Karnovsky have the best wishes of their many friends. Prominent out of town people present were: Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Mr. L. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, Thomas Burke, editor of Daily News, Chas. Gable, David Hughes, Elwood Frank, Joseph Copeland, John Smith and Abram Kefowich, Pottsville, and Miss Hannah Kefowich, Mahanoy City.

A STABBING AFFRAY! MARTIN NASH USES A KNIFE TOO FREELY.

THE VICTIM PRETTY BADLY CUT One of the Wounds on an Arm Required Several Stitches—A Fatal Neck Cut Barely Averted.

MARTIN NASH, a resident of South Market alley, is charged with making a desperate assault upon a young Polish man named Enoch Seibert.

Seibert was slashed twice on the left arm, once on the left side of his neck, twice on the left cheek, and another slash of the knife penetrated the left coat sleeve, but failed to reach the arm.

Nash pleaded that he was attacked by Seibert and others when on his way home.

He was under the influence of drink. He claimed that he was the victim and that he made no use of a knife, never carried one in his life, and did not know how Seibert was cut.

Seibert said that Nash walked into his house last night and produced a bottle of whiskey. Seibert refused to take any and Nash challenged him to go outside.

Seibert claims that as soon as he got outside Nash pulled out a pocket-knife and slashed him.

THE PRODIGAL SON. Robert Holman Visits Here After a Long Absence.

Letter Carrier Holman and his family were greatly surprised Monday evening by receiving a visit from Robert Holman, Mr. Holman's nephew, who left this town eleven years ago and was not heard from by his relatives here from that time until his visit Monday.

A HERALD reporter met the prodigal, Mr. Holman, at his uncle's house yesterday. He said that when he walked down town eleven years ago he had no idea of running away.

He was seized with a sudden impulse to "strike out" for himself and he went, leaving no message as to where he intended going, or when he expected to return.

Well, how do you like the Baker ballot law? It was not so intricate after all, was it?

You will have four years to wait again before you can have a chance to vote for a President.

It was an orderly election. May it always be that way.

The next Legislature will improve the present ballot law.

The next big fight will be in the spring, and it will not be a quiet one, either.

Those who have lost in betting now wished they had bet the other way, or not at all.

The good work goes on. Silver Wave Castle, No. 45, A. O. K. of M. C. has pledged themselves to $5 to the monument fund.
