References to Ferguson Theatre Coming Attractions

"The success which greeted the Shackford Opers Company at the Palace theatre last week was something phenomenal. The performance of "Said Pasha" was a fine artistic success, and it did not take long for the theatre-going public of this city to awaken to that fact and crowd the theatre to hear the musical and dramatic treat which was in store for them."-Philadelphia Rem. "Said Pasha? will be produced at Ferguson's theatre to-night by the Shackford Opera Company.

" UNDERGROUND."

If you have never been down in a mine go and see "Underground," the great drams of life in the coal regions, and you can readily see the great dangers encountered daily by the vast army of tollers in this immediate region. The story is bright and interesting and the company, headed by that capable nctor. Frank Karrington, is one of the strongest on the road. BEYOCH ARDEN.

Tenuyson's "Enech Arden" with Charles J. Stevenson in the title role was the attraction at Ferguson's theatre has evening Considering the character of the play, it is astonishing that so few people were present. The story is a beautiful one and, if understood, would be highly appreciated. Many of the best features were eliminated, but for all that, the play was enjoyable. Mr. Stevenson, at the close of the fourth act, appeared before the curtain, and complimented the audience on the respectful attention that had been given, and said that, although it was his first visit to Shenandoah, it would not be
