People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, wellinformed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the

A Good Chance,

A man having hetel experience can secure a hotel in one of the best places in Schoylkill county that is doing a good business, but can be made a better paying place if properly conducted. The business has suffered through the illness of the tenant, who must retire from business. The hotel is an excellent one for summer and winter boarders. The owner will sell the place cheap and on easy terms, or will rent to the right party, Sale preferred, Address "Hotel," HERALD office, Shenandoah, Pa.

A large number of our small boys with grooms, flags and torches, treated our citizens to a gorgeous street parade on Monday evenng. The little fellows were marshaled by Iver Jones, Jr., who appeared in the character of Uncle Sam. Others of the young chaps were uniforms of various descriptions ome of which were very unique and original. They were headed by a drum corps of little boys whose ages ranged from 9 to 12 years. Some of our residents along the route were illuminated to do honor to the young poli-

Death has again visited our borough and has removed therefrom one of our most prominent men, John Foster Straub, having dled about midnight last Friday, after a lingering illness. For the past few years Mr. Straub's usual robust health, had yielded to a ense which halfled the best medical skill The deceased was married to Miss Annie Moore, daughter of ex-County Tressurer Moore, of this place, who survives him without family, and who, throughout all his liness, was constantly by his side to administer to his wants and comfort. His devoted nother also survives him. John was popular a mong his associates. Frank, and although ometimes brusque, he was ever ready to speak word of cheer and lend a hand to any les avored about him. Genial, bright and witty his company was always sought and enjoyed, and his presence will be missed in many a social gathering. By occupation he was a moulder, having learned his trade at the Minersville Iron Works, where he was looked upon as one of the best skilled in that department of work. After working here for some years he went West and located at Burlington, Iowa, where he became uperintendent of one of the largest foundries in that city. His health falling him, he resigned the position and returned to Minersville where he, when health permitted, worked in the iron works until at last he was bliged to relinquish work entirely. The deceased was a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity and was buried Tuesday afternoon from his late residence on North street. Minersville Lodge, No. 222, F. &. A. M., attended the funeral in a body. The Rev. J. C. Trauger, of the English Lutheran church, officiated at the house, A large number of relatives and friends followed the remains to the M.
