THE Boston Herald has the cour age of its convictions. It believes in an extra "session. It says: "To delay tariff reform until a year from next winter would be hardly less than a betrayal of trust," So it would,

THE infamous gerrymander has as strong a hold on the Democratic party in the North as buldezing election methods have on the Democracy of the South. The Maryland Democrats now propose to so redistrict that state as to make every Congressional district in it solidly Democratic. If this isn't disfrauchisement of the Republicans, what can it be called? Yet Northern Democrat prats about a "Force bill."

THE Prohibitionists of Kansas are reaping the reward they deserve for aiding in the election of a Democratic Governor by placing a third ticket in the field. Gov.-elect Lewelling openly declares that he will do all in his power to make the probibition law a deadletter. Thus whiskey triumphs in Kansas, as it has in New York, by the votes of those who seem most antagonistic to it. Will the Prohibitionists never realize what they are are secret. doing?

A NEW YORK Mugwumpjsays that bugiuess men protest against an extra session and "believe that tariff modifications should be delayed until the country is prepared for the change." This is just what the Republican party has been trying to do, avert free trade until this country is strong and rich enough to do what England has undertaken to do-command the markets of the world. But the time to break down our protective tariff has not yet arrived.

RAINBO W DISAPPEARING.

That Democratic rainbow in the Northwest is fast fading away. As the returns come in it is evident that Harrison has earried not only Minnesota and Iowa, but also Montana Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, California, and Nebraska. The Democratic party It is not only beaten and sold, but ton of a Papal Nuncio. irretrievably disgraced. There is no Democratic party left west of the Mississippi river except in Missouri and Arkansas.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

One of the Republican bugaboos in the Presidential campaign was the pretense that the election of the Democratic ticket would derange business, bort the credit of the country and cause depression in financial circles. * * * The simple truth is-the Herald has frequently stated-that business and banking circles were perfectly content with the prospect of Democratic success. From this time forward business may be expected to proceed just as if we had not held an election, and speculators who have gone short of stocks on the victory of the Democratic party may have to pay higher prices to get them back .-N. Y. Herald (before the election )

It is obvious that any sudden or radical change in our tariff system must lead to the gravest and most far reaching consequences. It can only result in a business and industrial upheaval, upset values, demoralize markets, produce panics and bring unprecedented disaster on the country. -Same paper (since the election.)

Do not suppose that because it is recom mended for animals that Arnica and Oil Liniment is an offensive preparation. It will not stain clothing or the fairest skin. 1m

THE TRUMPBOUR TRIAL.

Defense Alleges a Conspiracy Not to Proceed Against Ostrander.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 17 .- The last juror in the Trumpbour case was obtained vesterday afternoon, and the District Attorney opened the case. After describing the crime, he stated that the prosecution would prove by several re-putable witnesses that Troumphour had confessed his connection with the robbery of the Ulster Savings Institution, and explained the system adopted to take the deposits and falsify the books.

Counselor De Witt during the examina-tion of witnesses stated that the defense would claim there was a conspiracy to imprison Trumpbour and not push the indictment against Ostrander.

OLD WORLD HAPPENINGS

Stormy Scenes in the French Chamber of Deputies.

BITTER OPPOSITION TO M. LOUBET.

Many Convicts Killed and Wounded in Spanish Prizon-Nine Dead from the Collapse of a Building in Salamanea-United States Delegates to the Monetary Conference Henored, Paris, Nov. 17 .- In the Chamber yesterday M. Loubet and his colleagues were caught between two storms, and were tossed about pitliessly by the Conservatives and Moderates on one side, and the Radicals on the other.

It was known in advance that the question of amending the Press law would come up, and the leaders of every party and faction were in place prepared for the attack.

M. Loubet gave them without delay the desired opportunity. He proposed to amend the Press law of 1881 in such a manner as to "curb the license of the extramists. The amendment contemplated would be a dragnet sort of affair, by means of which editors could be handled largely at the discretion of the government.

Loubet explained and defended the amendment, drawing illustrations from the excesses of the Socialistic, American and extreme Radical press during the dynamite outrages, and the labor troubles of the last few months. He was interrupted frequently by manifestations of disapproval and shouted omments.

No sooner did he cease speaking than attack on the Government was begun by Moderates and Conservatives, burden of most of the speeches was that the Ministry were proposing measures against an evil which they themselves had encouraged. The timidity of the Government in treating with the Carmaux strikers was condemned, and the Ministry were asked what they could expect but license and excess when they showed such weakness in dealing with the Carmanx Inwbreakers.

Several attacks were made upon the Ministers for general inefficiency and

The Radical speakers addressed them selves directly to the proposed amond-ment. This, they said, was so worded as to allow the government at its diseretion to curtall the freedom of the press, and to hold French scittors in the slavish dependence of the German edit ors. The designs of the Ministry to ter-rorize the French press were also decribed as paipable efforts to boister a

The debate was interrupted by adjournment. Throughout the speeches there was much caufusion.

DEATH AT A WEDDING FEAST.

Nine Persons Killed and Many Hurt by the Fall of a Building.

MADRID, Nov. 17 .- A sad story of the fatal interruption of wedding festivities is reported from Bejar, a town 45 miles A young couple had just been married in the church there, and the weeding party had gone to a restaurant, where a wedding feast was served.

After the banquet dancing was begun, when suddenly, and without an instant's warning, the walls of the building collapsed. The entire party, together with the employes, of the restaurant, were buried in the ruins.

In a few minutes the work of charing away the wreckage was begun:

When the wrock was cleared away sufficiently for it to be known that no one else was in the ruins, nine bodies were lying in a ghastly row on the sidewalk.

The lajured numbered 30, some of whom, it is thought, will not recover.

Others will be crippled for life.

The disaster has caused general gloom in the community. The building was thought to be perfectly safe. It is sup-posed that the movements of the dancers were responsible for the collapsa.

A NEWS PIRATE CONVICTED. Hawkins Stole the "Thunderer's" Thun-

LONDON, Nov. 17 .- Henry Hawkins, a ournalist, who has been caught in the attempt of stealing early copies of the Times, through the agency of one John Sawyer, for the purpose of cribbing news offected by that paper and sending is to pager papers, appeared before Recorder Hall, of the Central Criminal Court yesterday and was found guilty. Would you rather buy lamp. chimneys, one a week the year round, or one that lasts till some accident breaks it?

Common glass may break or not the minute you light your lamp; if not, the first draft may break it; if not, it may break from a mere whim.

Tough glass chimneys, Mac-beth's "Pearl-top", or "Pearl-glass," almost never break from heat, not one in a hundred.

Where can you get it? and what does it cost?

Your dealer knows where and how much. It costs more than common glass; and may be, he thinks tough glass isn't good for his business.
