A Deficiency Probable for the Next Fisca, Year,

REVENUES NOT UP TO THE MARK

Secretary Foster Says Taxes Must be It creased, or Else Appropriations for Public Buildings, etc., Must be Abandaned and Work Suspended.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 .- Secretary For ter and those Treasury officials who have intimate knowledge of the receipts and expenditures of the Government are giving much thought and attention just now to the subject of a probable deficiency in the revenues for the next fiscal in considering what the probable revenue of the Government will be so that he may aubmit to Congress, as he is by law re quired to do so, the amount of revenue expected.

The estimate of the Secretary of the priation bills. In arriving at this mate the average receipts from customs, internal revenue and incidental sources of revenue, have to be taken into consid-

The receipts from internal revenue it is expected will continue to naturally in-crease with the growth and population and as no legislation has recently passed to effect it. But it is not so with cus-toms duties. These duties, with no disturbing element to affect them, would be stable, subject only to the law of supply and demand and the condition of money market.

With a new siministration coming into power, expected to lower duties on a number of articles and to put others on the free list, a state of uncertainty is created that prevents a close estimate of revenues from tariff duties collected. Merchants will not buy goods not actu-ally needed when they expect the duties

Com plications With Venesuela Likely to Result from Capt. Chambers' Act.

NEW, YORK, Nov. 18. -International complications will probably result between Venezuela and the United States because of the action of Capt. Chambers, of the steamship Philadelphia, in leaving Laguayra without clearance papers.

The Philadelphia reached quarantine at 10 o'clock last night, having on board ex-Governor Mirajes, of Caracas, who served under the Presidency of Pulido.

When Crespo gained the ascendancy many clamored for the head of ex-Gov. Mirajes. Feeling that his life was in danger he secured a passage ticket for New York on the steamer Philadelphia, and put himself under the protection of the Ameri-
