Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

LOCATION.

- 15—Coal and Bowers streets.
- 16—Bowers and Centre streets.
- 24—Bridge and Centre streets.
- 25—Main and Centre streets.
- 26—Main and Poplar streets.
- 27—Main and Coal streets.
- 42—Gilbert and Centre streets.
- 43—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
- 62—Chestnut and Coal streets.

To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.

If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike once, then pause and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

A single trial of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will convince any one troubled with costiveness, torpid liver or any kindred diseases of their curative properties. They only cost 25 cents per bottle.

A Good Chance.

A man having hotel experience can secure a hotel in one of the best places in Shenandoah county that is doing a good business, but can be made a better paying place if properly conducted. The business has suffered through the illness of the tenant, who must retire from business. The hotel is an excellent one for summer and winter boarders. The owner will sell the place cheap and on easy terms, or will rent to the right party. Sale preferred. Address "Hotel," HERALD office, Shenandoah, Pa.

Coming Events.

- Nov. 23—Seventh annual ball of the Washington Beneficial Society in Robbins' hall.
- Nov. 24—Supper in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Women's Relief Corps; benefit of Soldiers' Monument.
- Dec. 6—Grand supper under the auspices of the Y. P. A. in Robbins' opera house.
- Dec. 19 and 17—Drummer Boy; or Spy of Shiloh, in Ferguson's theatre, under the auspices of W. Camp No. 296, P. O. S. of A.
- Dec. 22—Grand fair, Columbia Hose & team Fire Engine Co.; Ferguson's front hall.

Spectacles to suit all eyes, at Portz's book and stationery store, No. 21 North Main street. 4-27-tf

Electric Railway Bulletin.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Cherry and Main streets at 5:30 a. m. daily and every 30 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave for Girardville. On Monday, November 7th, 1892, the fare for any length of ride between Shenandoah and Girardville will be reduced to five (5) cents.

Found Out.

The best and easiest way to get rid of a cough or cold that may develop into consumption is to invest 25 cents in a bottle of Par-Tina, the great remedy for Coughs, Croup, La Grippe, Throat and Lung Disorders. Trial bottles free at P. F. A. Kirilin's drug store.

Coughing Leads to Consumption.

Keup's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Type For Sale.

We have 200 pounds mission, more or less, which we will sell cheap for cash, having no further use for the same. Apply at HERALD office.

If you are offered a bottle of Salvation Oil, without wrapper or defaced or mutilated, don't buy it at any price, you may be sure that there is something wrong; it may be a worthless or dangerous counterfeit. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken, genuine package, in a yellow wrapper.

Twelve Photos for 50c.

By sending us your cabinet, together with 50 cents, we will finish up one dozen photos. 11-2-tf W. A. KRAIGY.

Piles or Hemorrhoids.

Permanently cured without knife or ligature. No danger or suffering. No delay from business while under treatment. Patients who are responsible need not pay until well. A perfect cure guaranteed. Send for circular. R. REED, M. D., 129 South 13th St., Philadelphia.

Refers, by permission, to the editor of the EVENING HERALD.

MINERSVILLE.

Newspaper Notes and Happenings From a Bustling Town.

Miss Mary Moore, of Coal Castle, near Minersville, gave a sociable to her young friends of town on Monday evening. The "Theban Club" attended and had a delightful time, after partaking of a sumptuous repast.

Robert Suandel is all smiles. "It's a girl." Mrs. Edward Kear, Jr., Mrs. Edward Kear, Sr., Mrs. Edward Wernert and daughter, Della, and George Scott, of town, were seen among Reeding's many visitors, to do shopping in that vicinity on Tuesday last.

Joseph C. Gantley left town Tuesday for Harrisburg to do business in that city.

Mrs. Chas. Lanbenstein and daughter, Ray, of Ashland, were the guests of her mother, Mrs. Edward Wernert, the former part of this week.

Mrs. S. A. Wythe made a call on her friend, Mrs. Christ Forney, at Cresona, on Tuesday.

Miss Theresa Devitt, of Ashland, is visiting Mrs. C. H. Mohan, of town.

Miss Mamie Haley, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her grandfather, of this place.

Michael Kane, of town, has accepted the position as engineer for the Silver Creek Coal Co., therefore vacating his present position at the Little Coal Co. colliery at Pripps. Mr. K. is one of the "boys."

William Hildebrandt transacted business in Philadelphia Monday.

The P. & R. C. & I. Co. collieries were idle Monday on account of the blockade on the P. & R. road.

The rain we received on Tuesday was needed very badly, therefore our people should be more saving of the element.

George Koops is about to raffle off his black steed and each ticket holder is entitled to partake of the sociable to be held at Hostler's, Llewellyn, on the 20th inst.

The P. & R. C. & I. Co. will pay their colliery hands in the Heckacherville valley district on Monday next.

James Kealy, district superintendent of the P. & R. C. & I. Co. collieries in this vicinity, is about on duty again, after another brief spell of illness.

The funeral of Nicholas C. Maune took place from his father's residence, at Branchdale, this morning. Solemn mass was celebrated by the Rev. P. F. Beresford at the church of St. Mary's Star of the Sea, of that place, after which the funeral cortege proceeded in carriages to Minersville, where interment was made in the parish cemetery.

A large number of our people, friends and acquaintances of the deceased, attended the funeral.

Miss Carrie Kramer, one of our accomplished school teachers, has again resumed her position as teacher, after a brief sick spell.

Washington Camp No. 46, P. O. S. of A., will meet next Tuesday evening at Bender's hall.

The meeting of the Women's Fair Committee of the Independent Hose Company was held on Wednesday evening at 7:30. The ladies of town were largely represented.

William Muldowney, a resident of Greenberry, died during last night after a short illness, aged about 33 years.

Miss Katie Striegel, of Pottsville, was the guest of Miss Katie Pauley, on Sunday last.

Managers Roehrig and Keay have issued coupons for the comic opera which are not understood by our people. The coupon when accompanied by a paid reserved seat ticket entitles the one holding the coupon to a reserved seat beside the seat reserved by the paid ticket, making two seats for one price of admission.

The seats for the Boston Comic Opera Company on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of this week, with Saturday matinee, are going very rapidly. The chart was opened on Monday morning at Roehrig's book store.

The Pittston Gazette, of Nov. 4, has this short but favorable comment to make of the company: "Chimes of Normandy was rendered before a crowded house at Music Hall, last night, by the Boston Opera Company. Eddie Smith made a big success." Change of opera nightly.

The shaft or the elevator at Phoenix Park colliery broke on Saturday and the breaker was compelled to be closed down one-quarter of a day in consequence. It was expected to resume work on Monday morning.

Engelbert Kraft and John Graeber, two of Ashland's most prominent young business men, were among our Sunday visitors, the guests of F. J. Bender.

Four compound engines have been put on the Mine Hill railroad. Two on Tuesday and two yesterday. They are of a new make and pattern and were erected at Baldwin's works, Philadelphia. So far as they have been tested they have given first class satisfaction.

Capt. Geo. J. Lawrence Post No. 17, G. A. R., held their meeting on Wednesday evening.

John C. Clemens and family are attending the funeral of his father who died at his residence in Blue Grove.

A special meeting of Schuylkill Chapter, No. 159, F. A. M., was held at their rooms on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock for work. The D. D. Grand High Priest was present and exemplified the work.

The Mercantile Social Club partook of a supper at Jacob B. Roemer's restaurant, Thursday evening, which one of the members had to furnish as a wager lost on the recent election. It isn't so much the cost of supper, but to miss eating the supper at the other fellow's expense is the tantalizing part of it.

Martin O'Donnell, formerly of this place, died from injuries received by a fall while at work at a machine shop at 22nd and Callowhill street, Philadelphia. His body was brought to Minersville Wednesday evening. Interment was made on Thursday morning in the parish cemetery. He leaves a widow but no family. He was in the 32nd year of his age and was a native of Portland, Me., where his father, who has arrived here to attend the funeral, now resides.

Heckacherville valley and Delaware witnesses, in the liquor cases to be heard at court, went to Pottsville in large numbers this week.

P. J. Courtney, operator of the colliery near Thomason, was a business visitor to Philadelphia. He returned home on Tuesday evening.

A Wreck Averted.

By the breaking of a coupling chain a Lehigh Valley coal train parted on the grade near the red bridge yesterday afternoon. Edward Lindenmuth, engineer of a coal train following, reversed his engine and running his train backwards gauged the speed to that of the runaway section until he had an opportunity to stop it. It was a nice piece of work and the engineer deserves credit for having averted what might have been a serious wreck.

The Place to Go.

Shenandoah people visiting the county seat (surnamed Pottsville) all call in the Academy Restaurant. Either J. F. Cooney, the proprietor, greets you with a smile, or his genial brother, M. A. Cooney, welcomes you. It is the resort for all gentlemen from north of the mountain. 8-24-tf

Will Meet To-night.

The soldier's monument committee will meet in the Council Chamber at 8 o'clock this evening. J. S. Boddall has been appointed to represent Plank Ridge Lodge, No. 880, I. O. O. F., on the committee and has $10 to turn over to the fund.
