CENTRALIA.

Miss Maggie E. O'Connor left yesterday for Pottsville.

Miss Lizzie Kelly, who was visiting friends in St. Clair, has returned.

Mr. C. G. Murphy is erecting a new building in place of the one which was torn down the day of the fire.

Frank Webster, who for the last few weeks has been suffering from injuries received at the Logan colliery, died Thursday morning. The funeral will take place on Saturday from his home on Centre street. He was a quiet young man and has many friends who mourn his loss. He leaves a wife and one child. The sympathy of the community is with the family of the deceased.

November 15th, 1892.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Coming Events.

Nov. 23—Seventh annual ball of the Washington Beneficial Society in Robbins' hall.

Nov. 24—Supper in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Women's Relief Corps; benefit of Soldiers' Monument.

Dec. 6—Grand supper under the auspices of the Y. P. A. in Robbins' opera house.

Dec. 16 and 17—Drummer Boy; or Spy of Shiloh, in Ferguson's theatre, under the auspices of W. Camp No. 206, P. O. S. of A.

Dec. 22—Grand fair, Columbia Hose & team Fire Engine Co.; Ferguson's front hall.

Spectacles to suit all eyes, at Portz's book and stationery store, No. 21 North Main street.

Electric Railway Bulletin.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Cherry and Main streets at 5:30 a. m. daily and every 20 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave for Girardville. On Monday, November 7th, 1892, the fare for any length of ride between Shenandoah and Girardville will be reduced to five (5) cents.

Found Out.

The best and safest way to get rid of a cough or cold that may develop into consumption is to invest 25 cents in a bottle of Pott's, the great remedy for Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Throat and Lung Disorders. Trial bottles free at P. P. D. Kirin's drug store.

Coughing Leads to Consumption.

Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Type For Sale.

We have 200 pounds minion, more or less, which we will sell cheap for cash, having no further use for the same. Apply at HERALD office.

A single trial of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will convince any one troubled with constiveness, torpid liver or any kindred diseases of their curative properties. They only cost 25 cents per bottle.

Twelve Photos for 50c.

By sending us your cabinet, together with 50 cents, we will finish you one dozen photos. 11-3-92

Quotations from Great Men.

My success is owing to liberal advertising.—Esbert Bonner.

The road to fortune is through printer's ink.—P. T. Barnum.

Constant advertising brought me all I own, and he who invests one dollar in business should invest one dollar in advertising that business.—A. T. Stewart.

Advertising is to business what steam is to machinery—the grand propelling power.—Macauley.

I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising.—John Wascowker.

In the earliest years of our business we kept ourselves in the keenest of poverty that we might use our money in advertising an article we felt sanguine would one day acquire us reputation and a fortune.—Dr. Hostetter, the Bitters Millionaire.

Down's Elixir will cure any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing.

Wanted.

Girls for general housework. Call at Max Reese's intelligence office.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

FRACKVILLE.

Luke Fisher, owner of the marble works at Schuylkill Haven, has put a fine stone in the Lutheran cemetery here for H. K. Reich, the shoe dealer.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" at the new Park theatre Friday evening proved an excellent performance. The Annie Mitchell Company produced it Saturday evening. "Monte Cristo" will be produced. The prices are 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Thomas Reed spent Friday at Pottsville. A. S. Scannan also spent the day there.

John Lawlor, driver for Alexander Scott, represented Frackville at the Pottsville Democratic demonstration Thursday night.

Cryslie Castle, No. 156, Knights of the Mystic Chain, of Frackville, gathered at Kern's opera house at 5 o'clock Friday evening, and made merry around a banquet board until 10 o'clock. After that everybody had a social time, dancing the dreamy waltz and ripping quadrille.

ADAMSDALE.

Mrs. Geo. Hoy and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Hoy's father, Daniel Miller, near Grwigburg, on Thursday.

James Whelan and Michael Gaffney, of Landingville, were town visitors on Wednesday.

James B. Hickman, of Philadelphia, was in town on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Walters, of Tuscarora, was visiting friends in town during the past week.

Rev. H. A. Weller, of Orwigburg, spent a short time in town last week.

Wm. Fritz moved to town last week.

The Edison phonograph attracted a large crowd in the school house at Landingville. A number of young men from here took it in.

FRIEDENSBURG.

H. W. Cofehr is on the sick list with fever.

William F. Kreckler, of Allentown, is visiting his mother.

Prof. W. M. Fausset will make the presentation speech at Summit Station on the 21th inst. when the camps of the P. O. S. of A. will present flags to the schools of Wayne.

A. Birnick, one of our saddlers, moved to Auburn on Tuesday.

Rev. Small preached his sixth annual review sermon to a good audience on Sunday afternoon. The following is his statistical report for the year just closed: Preached 126 sermons, officiated at 36 funerals, baptized 47 persons, confirmed 13, admitted by certificate 6, officiated at 17 weddings, had 1187 communicants, made 373 pastoral calls, which is exceedingly well done considering the territory his members are scattered over. He has opened a catechumen class of 13 members which meets every Tuesday.

Cattle sales and election are over, now let us settle down to business again. The next will be Wayne township's big day, when the schools will be presented with flags by the P. O. S. of A., and a big demonstration will be given by the camps, school children of this district and other lodges. Remember this will be a patriotic affair where all should take a hand in and teach the young a good patriotic lesson.

Resident Deitrich visited his brother who is ill at Reading.

Mrs. John Straub has a good farm to rent; a good chance for a good man.

CRENSON.

Miss Ida Hower, of Lebanon, spent a few days with friends in town this week.

Miss Grace Stodd, of Pottsville, was the guest of Miss Lena Wagner on Sunday.

Miss Barbara Fisher, of Pottsville, was the guest of the Misses Forney on Sunday.

Henry Snyder, engineer on the shifting engine at the scales, is on the sick list.

Albert Burton, of Wilmington, Del., formerly a resident of this place, spent a few days with his brother, Isaac Burton, this week.

P. S. Berger left on Monday morning for a six weeks' trip to western Pennsylvania and Ohio selling shoes for his firm, Berger, Brown & Co., at Schuylkill Haven.

Mrs. R. H. Jones, wife of trainmaster Jones, with her son Ramsey, spent Sunday at Minersville.

George Barrett, a prominent member of the M. E. church at Minersville, drove his pastor, Rev. Eli Pickersgill, to this place on Sunday morning. Rev. Pickersgill occupied the pulpit in the M. E. church here. He had exchanged pulpits with Rev. H. B. Cassavant who drove to Minersville and served the people at that place.

Miss Edith Cassavant spent Sunday at Pottsville the guest of her friend, Mrs. Raymond.

Our leading barber, Joe Hornberger, transacted business at Pottsville on Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Allison, of Palo Alto, the wife of one of the victims of Monday's explosion, is a sister to Mrs. J. H. Moore, Mrs. Sarah Strauch, Mrs. Amos Bartolet, Mrs. Daniel Wagner and George Berger. They attended Mr. Allison's funeral from his late home on Thursday afternoon.

Robert Ash, who formerly kept a store on Railroad street, is in town again. He has built a new house a few doors below where his old stand was and will embark in the store business again.

The Place to Go.

Shenandoah people visiting the county seat (surnamed Pottsville) all call in the Academy Restaurant. Either J. F. Cooney, the proprietor, greets you with a smile, or his genial brother, M. A. Cooney, welcomes you. It is the resort for all gentlemen from north of the mountain.

"You're another." "Who is?" "You ate." "Ah!" "Ah!" "Ah!" (And then they separated.)

Angry Father—"How was it, young man, that I found you kissing my daughter in the hall last night?"

Young Man—I suppose, sir, because you happened to be around just at the right time."

The gift of the gab is a beautiful thing; it launches the thought on a powerful wing. So fill your oration as full as you can, But—don't stop over, my dear young man.
