Archbishop Ryan confirmed a large class at Mahanoy Plane yesterday morning and another large one at Girardville in the afteroon. In the evening Revs. H, F, O'Reilly and Kane; of town, and Rev. Brady, of Beaver Meadow, went to Girardville to escort the Archbishop to this town in a special electric railway car placed at their disposal by Superintendent Gillian.

The visit was the first for the Archbishop o pay to this town for several years, and his presence attracted an immense throng to town. When he last officiated at a confirmation in the Annunciation church the class numbered about seven hundred and fifty.

The A. T. A. B. band and a large number of people waited at the Cherry street terminus of the electric railway last night for the arrival of the special car and escorted the Archbishop's carriage to the Annunciation

Notwithstanding the bitter weather of this norning, hundreds wended their way to Annunciation church, to witness the administration of the rites of confirmation by Archbishop Ryan.

The Archbishop was assisted by Rev. Fathers O'Reilly, Kans and Lenarkowicz, of Shenandoah; Brady, of Beaver Meadow, and Hannigan, of Mahanoy City.
