at Lost Creek, boarded the car to go to his home at Brownsville. He took a seat beside Mike Brezofski, a Hungarian. After riding me distance Lafferty missed his pay, which mounted to $22 and was in bills. He charged Brezofski with a taling it. The accused denied the charge, but a movement of one of his feet direct diattention to the floor of the car. The bills were found at Lafferiy's feet, Detective Amon., who was on the car, took charge of Brezoldti and there was a bealing before Squice Williams. Lafferty said he carried the money in his coat pocket on the side that was next to the accused. There was some testimony that when Amour seized Bresofiki the man dropoed the money and kicked it over to Lafleriy's feet. Odier testimony raised a doubt in favor of the wisoner. They would not awear notificate that Brezo'aki did kick the money and would not swear that Lafferty might not have ac cidentally pulled the money out of his pocket. But after bearing all the evidence the justice fixed ball for trial and Bresofic formished it. The incident caused considerable excitement among the passengers on the

a Charge of Defrauding : Hotelkeeper.

A woman who says her name is Mary Elliott was taken to the Pottsville jail on Saturday to await trial on a charge of debunding a hotelkeeper. The woman says die is a widow and that her husband died in Girardville last June. She says she earns a lying by cooking and about the first of this month she gave up a position at a Mt. Carmel hotel to spend a few days here Upon arriving in this town she put up at the Commercial Hotel. The proprietor of the hotel says that the woman paid her bill for the first few days she was there, but on the $15, she prepared to leave without paying. The woman asked Mrs. Neiswender to go to he bank with her and she would draw sufficleat money to pay the bill. While Mes. Neisweader was up stairs preparing to go out with the woman the latter disappeared and nothing was heard of her again until Policeman Holvey met and arrested her on Main

SUNDAY SERMON.

Lev. W.Pam Powick Prezence on Lusts of the Flesh.

The sermon in the M. E. church on Sanday venlog was on "Religious Quackery"; Jesemian 6-14 "They have healed also the out of the daughter of my people slightly, saying peace, peace, when there is no peace. The movals of both priest and people were very low. The prophets prophesied falsely, and the priests bore rule by their means and God's people loved to have it so. Jeremiah proclaimed destruction and the false prophets proclaimed peace. They made light of sin and did nothing to cure it. Their religious quackery was like much that exists in our own time

The moral damage of the race resulting from the fall is no triffing matter-it is no superficial malady. The depravity we have wherited from a fallen ancestry calls for peroic treatment. We see it showing itself in the predisposition of childhood-its affinity for evil. And with advancing life we see its power developing until it overleaps all barriers and defics all efforts at selfreformation. We see it in man's treatment of God-his disinclination to worship at His people down there had made up their minds feet and to acknowledge His claims. We see it in man's contempt for God's word, and the complacency with which the traditions of men are allowed to usurp its place. We see it in man's disobedience to God's command and disregard for His cause. thoughts of men are out of harmony with and as a consequence "Squire Jack" was God and need to be abandoned. The seriousness of man's hurt and the death of his need are to be seen in the sacrifice of Calvary as stable Toomey was obliged to make many nowhere else. It required a cross and a divine victim to adequately express God's Yesterday morning the decket of the First views of man's hurt. And as the judge's opinion of the law is much more important than that of the culprit's attorney so God's opinion of man's hart and the remedy is jollifications of the night before. And from the very stigut manuer in which many have been healed we are driven to the conclusion that they have been victims of religious quacks. Many we fear are simularlyg in carnal security, deluded with the laca that stance and before he was landed at the there is peace when there is not.
